

THE MCLEAN PLAN

Plan to Save Cotton Crop Suggested by Lumberton Man Considered Most Feasible—Conference in Washington Today

Washington Dispatch, 17th. Members of Congress from cotton growing States are showing a deep interest in the conference called by Governor Craig to meet here next Monday to devise ways and means for taking care of the cotton situation in the South.

It is believed, too, if the conference results in any real benefit to the cotton people, some plan will have to be worked out whereby the cotton growing States will issue bonds or take other steps to furnish money to finance Federal aid.

Of all the plans suggested so far, there seems to be a general impression that the one suggested by A. W. McLean of Lumberton is the most feasible and the one that would give the quickest and surest relief.

Representative Pou is one of those who thinks the Federal government should come to the aid of the cotton people. He thinks because Congress appropriated money for the Alaska railroad it should also loan money to Representative Godwin thinks the present situation is not one of lack of money, but that it is caused by there being no demand for cotton. The banks, he thinks are not dealing fairly with the farmer because the latter is not given full facts as to the real situation.

PROF. H. L. EDENS.

An Indian Bears Testimony to the Great Good He Did As Principal of the Indian Normal School of Robeson.

To the Editor of The Robesonian: Prof. H. L. Edens, who was principal of our Indian Normal School at Pembroke for a period of five years, I think, as a student under him, did a wonderful work for the young men and young women of our country.

During his administration as a teacher the school grew and prospered along all educational lines. The young men and young women could begin to see and realize the great good there is in education and most of them seized every grand opportunity that came by.

Hoping he will continue to work and push forward the machinery of educational work in his life and be prosperous in all of his undertakings.

Mexico Now in Competent Hands, Wilson Believes.

Washington Dispatch, 17th. President Wilson declared today he ordered American troops withdrawn from Vera Cruz because he believed that Mexicans now in control were able to manage Mexico's affairs.

Coincidentally the British Ambassador, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, expressed to the State Department his own regret that Sir Lionel Carden, British Minister to Mexico, should have been quoted in criticism of the President's policy.

Officials accepted the Ambassador's explanation. They realized Sir Lionel Carden had experienced personal differences with Carranza, and had supposed he spoke resentfully because the Constitutionalist chief had forced him to leave Mexico.

Dizzy Head, Fluttering Heart, Floating Specks. These are signs of kidney and bladder trouble. You'll have headaches too, backaches and be tired all over.

Scattered British and German forces, throughout Africa have been skirmishing wherever their frontiers meet and the South African mounted rifles are reported to have just won a victory over the Germans whom they are said to have expelled from Ramansdrift.

From Berlin comes the report that the German cruiser Hela has been sunk by a submarine boat. The Admiralty at London has not confirmation of this and there is much mystery about the case as surrounded the sinking of the British cruiser Pathfinder by a German submarine.

WAR NOTES.

A dispatch of the 14th to the Central News, London, from Rome says telegraphic advices received there from Petrograd are to the effect that the 17 days' battle of the Russians against the Austro-German forces ended with the following result:

Prisoners taken, 180,000. Field guns captured, 450. Fortress artillery captured, 1,000 pieces.

Transport wagons taken, 4000. Aeroplanes captured, 7. The Russian Embassy in Rome, according to the correspondent of the Central News, says that the German army commanded by General von Hindenberg has been defeated near Mlawka, Russian Poland, and that the Germans are evacuating Poland with a loss of 50,000 men.

A Copenhagen dispatch of the 14th says advices from Berlin admit that the chief Austrian army has suffered an absolute defeat at the hands of the Russians.

Besides invading Galicia, the Russians are said to be operating extensively in Bukovina, the chief town of which, Czernowitz, they occupied some weeks ago. It is believed the intention of the Russians is to go as far south of the Carpathian Mountains, and, in case the Allies are successful, to demand a new frontier in that direction when the war is over.

The Russian General Staff has said nothing about the fighting in East Prussia, except that the Russians were compelled to withdraw before superior forces. The Germans however claim another big victory for General Hindenburg's army in the fighting which raged for four days over the entire front. They say the Russians

Scattered British and German forces, throughout Africa have been skirmishing wherever their frontiers meet and the South African mounted rifles are reported to have just won a victory over the Germans whom they are said to have expelled from Ramansdrift. This may be the forerunner of what may develop into a serious battle.
