Successful Revival Closes—Movements of the People.

Correspondence of the Robesonian Buie, Oct. 6—One of the most successful revival meetings in the history of Philadelphus church came to a close Sunday night. Rev. William Black of Charlotte was the one in charge of the services. Everybody that knows him will agree with the writer that he is one of the ablest preachers in the State and one of the best men. Mr. Burr of Canada was in charge of the singing, also Mr. George McKay, of Maxton, and Miss Pool of St. Pauls, were great helpers in the singing. There were about 28 joined the church while there were a great many more conversions, that will join other churches. Mr. Black and Mr. Burr spent their time while here at the homes of Messrs. I. T. Brown, John M. Brown, Miss Minnie Brown, and Misses Katie and Blue Bell McCallum, with others. These good people are always ready to welcome the visitor in their homes. Mr. Black returned to his home in Charlotte together with Mr. Burr Monday. Their next revival will be held at Smyrna.

Misses Julia Pate, of Laurinburg, and Florence McIntyre were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Brown.

Rev. William Black and Mr. Burr were visitors at Bide-A-Wee farm and water mill Thursday, and sang very sweetly for Mrs. Brown and family that lovely song "Our Heavenly Father Knows."

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McGoogan and their two sons, Ernest and Hughes, were relatives at the Philadelphus community Sunday—Misses Vera and Clelia Britt, Mr. Sanford Britt Mr. Quincy Parrnell and W. H. Brown were visitors at the home of Mr. Charles Terry over in the St. Pauls section Sunday afternoon.—Messrs. J. F. McKay and N. B. McArthur, of Red Springs were Lumberton visitors Monday.—Mr. H. T. Flowers of Lumberton spent Monday here and at Red Springs.—Messrs. Earl B. and Willie Brown spent Friday in Fayetteville.—Miss Berta Cox and her two sisters were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Brown Sunday.—Mr. Mack McArthur was among the visitors from Red Springs in Lumberton Monday.—"Aunt Becky" attended the revival meeting at Philadelphus some of the time last week.—Miss Sarah Black and the writer spent a short while at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Brown Monday.

Officers Farmers' Union Endorse Constitutional Amendments.

The officers and executive committee of the State Farmers' Union at Raleigh Friday of last week adopted resolutions urging all to vote for the proposed Constitutional Amendments. The resolutions read as follows: "We, the undersigned officials of the North Carolina State Farmers' Union, without committing the organization, and recognizing fully the non-partisan character of the proposed Constitutional Amendments, do hereby state to the people of North Carolina that we have examined the aforesaid amendments, and it is our conviction that their adoption will make for progress in this State and for the advancement of our farming interests and all other worthy interests in the State. "We remind the people especially that the taxation amendment does not pledge the people to any plan, but simply sets free our people to work out necessary reforms in taxation, while leaving in force the present restrictions on rate."

The resolutions were signed by Dr. H. Q. Alexander, president; Dr. J. M. Templeton, vice president; E. C. Faires, secretary; J. Z. Green, organizer; W. C. Crosby, educational secretary; W. B. Gibson, C. C. Wright, W. H. Moore and Clarence Poe.

These resolutions endorsing the amendments were also endorsed unanimously by the 80-odd farmers, county union agents in conference in Raleigh on same day for the formation of a central State agency for buying and selling for farmers in co-operation with the county agencies.

Why Not Publish It?

When you want an act to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent heartburn. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." COTTON LOAN FUND PROPOSED

Plan For Raising Cotton Loan Fund of $150,000,000 Proposed

St. Louis Dispatch, 5th. A plan for raising a cotton loan fund of $150,000,000 proposed by a conference of St. Louis bankers, was ratified here today by a delegation of bankers from the cotton-growing States and now awaits only the approval of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and the Federal Reserve Board before it is carried into effect. The plan as approved "in general essence" by nine Southern bankers who had been asked by Secretary McAdoo to attend the conference with St. Louis bankers, provides for the raising of the fund by subscriptions from National and State banks, trust companies and mercantile and manufacturing companies throughout the country. "It must be distinctly understood," declared Fetus J. Wade, chairman of the St. Louis Clearing House Association, and originator of the plan, "that this is not a movement for the purchase of cotton. It is simply a movement to make available a fund of $150,000,000 to loan on cotton at not to exceed six cents per pound, middling basis. "The establishment of this fund will make the cotton crop a liquid asset; stabilize its price, and bring about normal business conditions in all lines of trade."

Wilson and Harvey Hold Harmony Meeting at White House. President Wilson and George Harvey, formerly editor of Harper's Weekly, but now editor of the North American Review, whose controversy over the support of Harper's Weekly furnished one of the chief incidents of Mr. Wilson's campaign for the presidency, celebrated "peace Sunday" by a harmony meeting at the White House. It was their first meeting since their talk in 1911 in the presence of Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, which gave rise to Mr. Watterson's later attacks on Mr. Wilson and led Mr. Harvey to support Speaker Clark for the presidential nomination.

LONG BRANCH LOCALS

Farmers at a Loss to Know What to Do—Digging Ditches—Hawk Eats Kittens—Watch Out For Mother—A Loss to Community.

Correspondence of the Robesonian Lumberton, R. F. D. 4, Oct. 2—News seems to be scarce around around here as everybody is busy picking cotton, and getting ready for the Sunday school anniversary tomorrow, which meets with the Sunday school at Smyrna. Our Sunday school is getting along fine and has made lots of preparation for the occasion in the way of songs and speeches. The farmers around here seem to be at a loss to know what to do with their cotton as the price is so low and there tobacco failed to pay expenses, and lots of them will have to buy corn and meat next year to make the next crop on—if they don't have to go to the war. There seems to be no progress going on around here at this time except Mr. Alfred Britt is having some new ditches put in on his farm. We are quite sorry for Mrs. A. L. Stone for her pets. She had 4 fine pet kittens and for a fact a hawk caught 2 and was found eating them. Did you ever hear tell of a hawk catching kittens before? Mr. L. H. Britt is all smiles: it's a fine boy. Mr. G. W. Britt is all smiles: it's a fine girl. Mrs. J. W. Branch and daughter Wilmer went to town shopping this afternoon. I am always sorry to hear of boys getting bluffed, but there was a certain girl went to see another girl to spend Sunday afternoon, and two certain boys came to pass that way and perchance met those two sweet girls at the gate, which gate seemed to be a nice cool shade, which is always a nice place to keep cool. But oh! to their surprise the mother of one certain girl came on the porch and told those certain girls to come in the house and get their dolls and play with them. We are very sorry to hear Mrs. Cynthia Britt and family are talking of moving out of our community, as Mrs. Britt is one of our best neighbors and one of the first Sunday school teachers in our church. Way back in the 70's, when Long Branch church and Sunday school were in their infancy, long before I ever heard tell of Long Branch church; and as she is part of its builder and founder we regret seeing her move as most all the old charter members are now gone to their reward.

Runaway Marriage Causes Upstir Among the Colored Folks. Reported for The Robesonian. There was a runaway Sunday evening, colored, daughter of Gaston Spearman. This was an upstir among the colored people. Her father was at home and she left home to go to church (Sandy Grove church). An automobile was out there waiting for the girl, and when her father got the message he ran out to the church and he came across the field running. He ran so hard until he forgot what he was intending to say but, "Come back, Ida, honey, for your papa, double-double-double, do love you." He got to saying double and could not stop.

IMPORTANT TO ALL WOMEN READERS OF THIS PAPER.

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one dollar size bottles at all drug stores.

FREE DISTRIBUTION.

By direction of the General Assembly of 1913, 500,000 copies of the Constitution with the proposed amendments have been printed for distribution to the people. Every voter in the State should be familiar with the provisions of these amendments. Copies may be had upon application to any register of deeds or a copy will be mailed to any address upon request, by J. Bryan Gibson, Secretary of State, Raleigh, N. C.

Indigestion and Nervousness

are overcome by Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy which purifies the blood and tones up the system. Mrs. Mary Amanda Nash, Lumberton, N. C., was a severe sufferer from acute indigestion, which brought on extreme nervousness, suffering daily with catarrhal headache. Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy relieved all these ills and she endorses it as the best medicine in the world.

Give Nature a Chance

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy purifies the blood and permits nature to repair the damage of the ills brought on by impure blood—indigestion, rheumatism, scrofula, eczema. Get the blood right and most ills are cured. Your druggist should have Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. If he hasn't, send us his name and one dollar for large bottle. REMEDY SALES CORPORATION CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Mrs. Joe Person's Wash should be used in connection with the Remedy for the cure of sores and the relief of inflamed and congested surfaces. It is especially valuable for women, and should always be used for ulcerations.

Wilson and Harvey Hold Harmony Meeting at White House.

President Wilson and George Harvey, formerly editor of Harper's Weekly, but now editor of the North American Review, whose controversy over the support of Harper's Weekly furnished one of the chief incidents of Mr. Wilson's campaign for the presidency, celebrated "peace Sunday" by a harmony meeting at the White House. It was their first meeting since their talk in 1911 in the presence of Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, which gave rise to Mr. Watterson's later attacks on Mr. Wilson and led Mr. Harvey to support Speaker Clark for the presidential nomination. Mr. Harvey called at the White House at the invitation of Mr. Wilson to discuss the European situation and the fall campaign. In the last issue of his magazine Mr. Harvey praised the President's attitude since the outbreak of war in Europe and suggested that he wait patiently for the psychological moment to urge peace.

FAULT IN AMERICAN VOICE

Touch of Harmony Does Not Seem to Be There, as It Is With Other Races.

The American voice lacks cadence. The touch of harmony is lacking. In depth or shrillness, its strongest quality is monotony of tone. In conversation it is colorless, and half of the resources of the vocal cords are unused or undeveloped. A strident, high-pitched, nasal voice fails in paying any good thing well. Every one has the power of speaking with sweet inflection. Every one can attain a reposeful utterance and clear enunciation by training the ear and voice to work together in avoiding harsh tones, and cultivating the middle and more mellow register in every voice. Excitement sends it up to a screaming pitch, but self-control will lower it again, and its playground should be through the varying harmonies or cadence of five notes. According to Thomas Wentworth Higginson, our English cousins put more cadence, more up and down, into an inquiry, "What time is it?" than Americans would into the announcement that a president was shot. A crowd of baseball fans will pitch the cheering on a high note and yell itself hoarse. In the same number of Europeans, the shouting would be full of undertones and cadences. They would sing their enthusiasm.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

Sixteen men were killed and 12 injured as a result of gas explosion at mines near Ensley, Ala., Monday.

Monticello, home of Thomas Jefferson should be maintained as the "Virginia home of the Presidents" in the opinion of its owner, Representative Levy, of New York, who notified Secretary Bryan Monday he would consider an offer of $500,000 for the purchase of the estate by the Government. His communication will be referred to Congress. The postoffice department at Washington is being urged to contract for cotton twine this year. It is thought that this will be done and that thereby 100,000 bales of cotton will be converted into something that will be used by Uncle Sam in place of other twines.

Great Britain and Slavery. Serfdom in England was finally abolished in 1660. For a century afterwards colonists and others on a visit to England were allowed to bring their slaves with them, but by a judgment of the queen's bench in 1772, when an attempt was made to regain possession of a fugitive slave it was decided that no man in Great Britain could be held as a slave. An act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies was passed by the British parliament, chiefly through the exertions of Wilberforce, in 1833, and on August 1, 1834, nearly 8,000 slaves became free. Their owners were compensated by the British government to the extent of £20,000,000 sterling. Slavery was abolished in the East Indies, then under the control of the East India company, in 1838. Great Britain had nothing to do with slavery in South America or the United States.

"Don't Speak" Club. The Moscow prefecture has just confirmed the statutes of a newly-formed club in that city the chief feature of which is the absolute silence imposed on its members within the club precincts. Any infraction of this cardinal rule involves a monetary penalty. The club is well appointed and luxuriously equipped. Gesture is the only medium of intercourse among its members. The same rigid regulation obtains at the club buffet and in the dining-room, as well as in the library and general rooms. Orders are conveyed to the silent waiters by means of tablets they carry.—Daily Mail.

Firing High. Bishop Boyd Carpenter, as reported in the London Times: "Instead of saying to the children, 'You shall not do this or that,' they should say, 'You should keep the whole of that great organism which God has put into your care, with its delicate forces, physical, moral, and intellectual, in such a state of healthful activity that they shall be combined in your own individuality in such sort as to be real powers for good through the whole length of your days.'"

Harold (continuing to pull the cat's tail)—"What did you say, mother?" (The cat says)—"Punch."

DOES THE WORK OF CEMENT

Substitute Used in Turkey Has Been Found to Give Really Excellent Results.

Cement is almost unknown in the vicinity of Harput, Turkey. There an excellent substitute has been found that has met with rather good results when applied in exposed places, in filling crevices in water pipes, covering joints in stone floors, in fountains and for numerous other purposes where cement would be required. The mixture is as satisfactory in water as in exposed places, but it must be allowed to become thoroughly dry before it is submerged. The mixture is slaked lime, linseed oil and cotton fiber. Generally a hollowed out stone is used, although a flat, hard surface will answer and the process is started by pouring the oil on a handful of cotton, after which the lime is dusted in. It is then kneaded until the whole is thoroughly mixed and about the consistency of dough. The more it is kneaded the better it becomes. This compound has undergone a severe endurance test at the American consulate at Harput. Two years ago the stone floor in the balcony on the north side of the consulate leaked in several places and rotted the woodwork supporting the balcony. The floor was finally taken up, new timber added, and the stone flags again put down. Between each stone this mixture was forced in and smoothed over the joints. It took several days for hardening. The oil spread out on the stones for about half an inch from each joint, leaving a slight mark, but the compound soon hardened like cement, and now the surface over the part where the stones are joined is as hard and smooth and watertight as if cement had been used.
