AMERICAN DEMANDS SENT GERMANY

Demands a Guarantee That No More Attacks be Made on Merchant Ships Carrying Non-Combatants—Reparation Sought for Loss of American Lives—American Government Will Leave Nothing Undone to Obtain Compliance With Its Requests.

Washington Dispatch, May 12th. The United States in a note to be sent to Germany tomorrow demands a guarantee that there will be no further submarine attacks on merchant ships carrying non-combatants. It serves notice, too, that full reparation will be sought for the loss of more than 100 American lives in the sinking of the Lusitania and for other violations of American rights in the sea war zones.

While no indication is given of the steps to be taken by the United States in the event of an unfavorable reply, the note informs Germany that the American government will leave nothing undone either in diplomatic representations or other action to obtain a compliance with its requests.

Slight Changes Made
The document was to have been cabled tonight, but the President after conferences with Counsellor Robert Lansing of the State Department, made several changes in the legal detail and then revised it alone in his study. Tomorrow it will be dispatched and, it is expected to be made public soon.

No essential changes were made in the communication as formulated Sunday by the President and approved by the cabinet yesterday. The principal points in the note are substantially as follows:

1. The United States government calls attention to the various incidents in the war zone proclaimed by Germany around the British Isles, the sinking of the British liner Lusitania with the loss of Leon C. Thresher, an American; the attack by German airmen on the American steamer Cushing; the torpedoing without warning of the American steamer Gulfight, and finally the torpedoing without warning of the Lusitania with its loss of more than 1,000 lives of non-combatants, among them more than 100 Americans.

2. These acts are declared to be indefensible under the international law. The United States points out that it never admitted Germany's right to do them, and warned the imperial government that it would be held to a "strict accountability" for attacks on American vessels or lives. A strict accountability, therefore, is now asked from Germany.

3. The usual financial reparation will be sought, although Germany is in effect reminded that no reparation can restore the lives of those sacrificed in the sinking of the Lusitania and other ships.

4. Regrets are Valueless
Expressions of regret may comply with the legal precedents, but they are valueless unless accompanied by a cessation of the practices endangering lives of non-combatants.

5. The right of neutrals to travel any point of the high seas on neutral or belligerent merchantmen is ascertained.

6. In the name of humanity and international law, the United States demands a guarantee that these rights be respected and that there be no repetition of the attacks on merchantmen carrying non-combatants.

7. The giving of warnings to the American public without officially communicating them to the United States government is commented on in connection with the German Embassy's printed advertisements before the sailing of the Lusitania, but irrespective of the failure to advise the American government of Germany's purpose, the point is made that notice of an intention to do an unlawful act neither justifies nor legalizes it.

8. The suggestion is conveyed that the German government, of course, could not have intended to destroy lives and consequently that German submarine commanders must have misunderstood their instructions. The American government indicates its hope that this will be found to be true and a cessation of the unlawful practices thereby will result.

9. In conclusion Germany's attention is called to the earnestness of the government and people of the United States in this situation. It is made plain that the United States will leave nothing undone either in diplomatic representations or other action to obtain a compliance by Germany to the requests made.

Power Election Failed to Carry.
The citizens of Lumberton voted Tuesday not to give the town commissioners the power to sell the light plant owned and operated by the town. The total number registered for the election was 371. 38 votes were cast for and 183 against the proposition. All who registered and failed to vote were counted against the proposition, so it failed to carry by 333.

Most of the citizens of the town would like to have the Yadkin River Power Co. furnish current for the town, but don't like the idea of a 60-year franchise. However, the election Tuesday was not to determine whether or not the town would sell its plant to this company, but to decide whether or not the town commissioners would be given the power to sell the plant in case they saw fit to do so to any person or corporation.

ANGRY MOBS WRECK GERMAN SHOPS

Angered by Germany's Action in Sinking the Lusitania, Mobs are Destroying German Property in England—Hatred and Suspicion of Germans Aroused to Fever Heat. London Dispatch, May 12.—The sinking of the steamer Lusitania has aroused to a violent climax the smouldering hatred and suspicion of Germans living in England. This animosity has found expression during the last 24 hours in attacks on German and their shops in London and Liverpool, while there have been minor disturbances in Manchester, Birkenhead, Glasgow and a few other places.

Windows of many German shops were smashed and some shops were pillaged. The proprietors of the shops generally were driven away by angry crowds. None of the persons attacked are reported to have been seriously injured. One or two shops have been set afire by the rioters.

MR. TOWNSEND CANNOT SERVE

Law Says the Man Who Serves as Town Clerk and Treasurer Must be an Elector—Petitions Being Circulated Asking That Mr. Page be Reinstated.

Petitions that ask the town commissioners to reinstate Mr. Grover T. Page as town clerk and treasurer are being circulated about town and many citizens are signing them. They will, it is understood, be presented to the commissioners at their next meeting. Mr. Jas. D. Proctor of the law firm of McIntyre, Lawrence & Proctor, who is a member of the board of commissioners, says he has looked up the law and it says that at the first meeting of the town commissioners after an election they shall elect some elector for town clerk and treasurer, which means that Mr. Ira B. Townsend who was elected to this position at the last meeting of the board, cannot serve, as he had not been living here long enough before the election to vote. It is expected that the commissioners will meet tomorrow night.

FAIRMONT CHALLENGES PARK-TON

Fairmont Claims Score is Still Tied in Parkton-Fairmont Game. Special to The Robesonian.

Fairmont, May 11.—The first game of the double header between Parkton and Fairmont, at Parkton Monday, started well for Parkton, they taking a three-run lead while the Fairmont boys were solving Vann's delivery, which they did to such an extent that they pushed one run across in the fifth inning and came back strong in the sixth with one more and with two men on bases. Nye, for Fairmont, smashed one to left field for two bases, Hoke Floyd, catching the rubber with the tying run only to be called out by the Parkton "base umpire". It was highway robbery if the right umpire had called him out, but if Parkton and the umpires only knew the base umpire does not call the plays at the plate, Parkton, will you please tell me what you have an umpire for other than the base umpire if the base umpire is going to call it all? Fairmont rebelled and left the field, for they are sensible enough to know that no team can win a game against nine players and the umpire, too. When it comes to 2000 clear baseball we have demonstrated the fact that Parkton is not our equal by winning eight out of eleven games played at different times here and there. We hereby issue a challenge to the Parkton team to play either one game or a double header on any grounds other than Parkton or Fairmont, playing strictly home teams for gate receipts. Having two disinterested umpires.

POWERS RELEASED

Robeson County Man Charged With Violating the White Slave Act Taxed With the Cost and Released Under Bond for Appearance at Next Term of Federal Court.

Mr. T. L. Johnson, senior member of the law firm of Johnson & Johnson, returned this morning from Wilmington where he represented H. L. Powers in the Federal Court, indicted for violating the white slave act. Powers was taxed with the cost and placed under bond to appear at the fall term and show that he had severed his relations with the girl he was charged with taking from some point in South Carolina to Baltimore, Md., and later returning to Robeson county with her. He was arrested at Fairmont several months ago and given a hearing here before U. S. Commissioner W. H. Kinlaw and bound over to the Federal Court. Powers has a wife and children in the southern part of the county. It was generally expected that Powers would draw a prison sentence. He had been in jail at Wilmington for some time.

Death of Mr. J. P. Thompson of Abbottsburg.
Mr. John P. Thompson of Abbottsburg, Bladen county age 60 years, died at the home of his son, Mr. Noah Thompson who lives at the National Cotton Mills, yesterday afternoon of heart failure. The remains were sent to Abbottsburg this morning where the interment will be made. Mr. Thompson had been visiting at the home of his son for some time.

VETERANS MEET IN ANNUAL SESSION

Annual Meeting of Camp Willis H. Pope—Delegates to Richmond Reunion—Entertained With Exercises by Members of Alfred Rowland Chapter, Children of the Confederacy—Dinner Served by Daughters of the Confederacy.

The regular annual meeting of Camp Willis H. Pope was held in the opera house here Monday. The meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock a. m. by Commander J. A. McAllister, after which the chaplain, Rev. Wesley Thompson, led in prayer. The roll was then called and 41 members answered. The following were appointed delegates to the Richmond reunion: Rev. Wesley Thompson, Rev. P. A. Prevatt, B. F. Freeman, W. H. Barnes, N. C. Graham, A. B. Small, D. A. McGowan, C. W. Smith, J. A. McAllister and M. G. McKenzie.

After the business meeting was over Miss Marie Russell read a beautiful paper—"A Memorial to the Late Mrs. Stonewall Jackson." A number of the children of the Alfred Rowland Chapter, Children of the Confederacy sang "Dixie" and "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching." After this the crowd was dismissed and ushered to the commissioners' room in the court house, where a bountiful dinner was served by the local Daughters of the Confederacy, Robeson Chapter. All who smoke were provided with cigars and both the Pastime and the Star theatres invited "the boys" to the theatre.

A number of the boys who were grey were heard to remark that the meeting Monday was one of the most enjoyed they ever attended. They were especially pleased with the paper read by Miss Russell and resolutions were passed asking the papers of the county to publish the paper as it was read.

Lumberton is ever glad of the opportunity to entertain the men who stood and fought for their rights, and the rights of their country.

A vote of thanks was tendered the ladies for the hospitable treatment received at their hands.

After the dinner the members of Robeson Chapter, U. D. C., decorated the graves of the Confederate dead.

SIDELIGHTS FROM ROWLAND

Children's Day Exercises Sunday—New Town Board Meets—Excellent Concert—The Robesonian's Anniversary Edition—Personal Mention.

Correspondence of The Robesonian, Rowland, May 11.—There will be children's day exercises at the Methodist church here next Sunday night, Rev. J. A. Lee, the pastor, tells us that a very interesting program is being prepared. There will be children's day exercises at Centenary Sunday morning.

The new board of town commissioners held its first meeting last night. Nothing radical was done. Mr. O. P. Chitty, who has been the efficient town clerk for several years, will serve again this year. No town constable was elected, although there were several candidates for that office, and it is not likely that one will be elected before fall. Rural Policeman J. H. Carper lives here, and the would-be law breakers never know what minute he will arrive from his visits to the country, so we have law and order without a constable.

The Rowland Musical Association gave an excellent concert here last Thursday evening. The association is a live organization, and is doing much to stimulate the study of music.

Several from here attended the burial of the late N. T. Andrews at Iona last Saturday morning. Deceased was well known in Rowland, and he had many friends here. On Wednesday before his untimely death he visited his son, Dr. N. H. Andrews who lives here. The burial services were conducted by Rev. H. J. Mills of Rowland, and not Rev. J. M. Miller, as erroneously stated in Monday's Robesonian.

Mr. G. B. Sellers of Maxton was a visitor here Monday.—Dr. N. H. Andrews is spending today in Loris, S. C.—Miss Purcell Adams returned last Friday from Coinjock, near Elizabeth City, where she had been teaching.—Mr. H. L. Breeden of Dillon, S. C., is visiting friends here.—Mr. LeRoy Martin of Maxton was a business visitor here Saturday.

Permit me to congratulate The Robesonian for the excellent Anniversary Edition published last Thursday. It contains much interesting reading matter that will be interesting in the years to come. Every reader of The Robesonian should file his copy away for future reference.

Turnley vs. O. C. Nicholson, verdict for plaintiff; W. A. Sealey vs. A. C. L. Ry. Co., judgment for plaintiff in the sum of $300.

A number of judgments have been signed.

Generette was unanimously elected secretary and treasurer.

After the business session, the guests engaged in a spirited contest which called their minds to the minds of the beautiful forest for a while. The best contestant, Miss Edgerton, was awarded a beautiful and useful hand-made prize. Delicious grape juice was served during the contest. Current events were read by Mrs. Wells. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. B. L. Temple, served cream and cake, followed by mints. Visitors at this meeting were Mrs. B. G. Temple, Mrs. B. L. Temple, Misses Bessie Korneagie and Lillian Edgerton.
