Prospects are said to be splendid for making the Cern and Agricultural Show which will be held in Wilmington November 16-19, inclusive, the largest agricultural fair ever held in this section.

Mr. J. A. Floyd of Fairmont asks, in a communication published elsewhere in this issue, why the rural policemen should not pay more attention to seeing that the stock law is observed better.

Series of Meetings This Week at Chestnut Street Methodist Church—Sermons by Rev. Dr. W. B. North—Other Church News.

A protracted meeting has been in progress at Chestnut Street Methodist church since Saturday, Rev. Dr. W. B. North, pastor of the church, doing the preaching.

An Advocate With God Dr. North's text Sunday morning was the 3d verse of the 8th chapter of Revelations: And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

The preacher said in part: There is humanity in heaven in the form of Jesus Christ; and there is an innumerable host there as proof of the power of the blood of Jesus to save sinners. The saints, that is, Christian people who love and serve God, should pray often, in the spirit, in earnest, importunately. It is an amazing thing that there are so many professing Christians and still the world has not been evangelized; it is amazing that Christians do no more than they do to extend the kingdom of God.

A Great Need of the Church is Strength But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.—Isaiah 40, 31st verse.

This was the text Monday evening. One of the greatest needs of the church is strength. Often we fail to put the proper estimate upon our task when we think of conquering our wills. There are so many wrecks where men have fallen because they were weak; so many are conquered by Satan because they do not exercise proper strength. We contemplate the majesty of God but still fail to place proper estimate upon the strength of mind and soul necessary to measure up to the Christian life.

The Religion of "Go." But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented, and went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and went not. Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, the first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

UP PHILADELPHUS WAY

Times Somewhat Dull—Many Attended Fair at Fayetteville—Personal Correspondence of The Robesonian. Buie, Nov. 2—Sheriff R. E. Lewis, on his usual rounds for taxes, spent Thursday at Buie. We happened to go away and did not find out how the sheriff came out collecting in Burnt Swamp this year.

Times are very dull through here just at present, only for the fair at Fayetteville, and a party occasionally and such things as these. We don't know what the boys would do if they had a little hard for to have gotten up our usual weekly letter only for our consolation, and that is we have often heard it said that no news is good news. We decided we could get through some how.

The fair at Fayetteville was grand in every respect and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. Old Robeson was well represented. We have heard tell of but one accident during the four days, and this was that a Mr. McLean from near Red Springs broke his arm in trying to crank his auto. Of course this might have happened if he had not been there.

Misses Janie Humphrey and Laura Jones left Saturday to accept positions as school teachers down in Howellsville at Tabernacle school house. Misses Grace McMillan and Annie Humphrey of the Philadelphia community spent Saturday in Lumberton. Messrs. Paisly and Walter McMillan spent Wednesday in Fayetteville. Miss Mary Humphrey spent Saturday evening in Lumberton. Mr. John J. Brown and family, Mrs. Graham Smith and Mrs. D. P. McArthur of Red Springs attended the funeral of their kinsman Mr. McRae in Fayetteville Wednesday evening. Miss Mabel Currie spent Wednesday in Fayetteville. We notice the following Lumberton visitors from up Philadelphia: Messrs. Charlie McNeill, Manly Carlyle, J. B. Humphrey, W. K. Glover and Misses Nannie Bell and Mary C. Brown.

The fair that is going to be at Bennettsville this week no doubt will be largely attended from this section. We hear a great many speak of going. Mr. J. F. McKay, our well known and popular county commissioner rom up Philadelphia way, was a Lumberton visitor Monday.

HOGS RUNNING AT LARGE

No Fence Law Not Well Observed—Owing to Large Acreage in Winter Cover Crops Hogs Should be Kept Up To the Editor of The Robesonian: Will you please allow me space in your paper to say a few words relative to hogs running at large?

The no-fence law has been in effect for about 15 years, and for a few years just after it came into effect it seemed to be regarded as a law, or at least more so than it has been for the last few years. In some sections there seems to be between the people an understanding to turn their hogs out in the fall after crops are gathered, but this does not affect the law against such; neither does it keep these hogs from going into other sections where people do not turn their hogs out.

The result of such is that those who keep their hogs up have to be annoyed and worried by the hogs of others.

In other sections there is no understanding as to turning the hogs out, but some turn them out anyway. It is one of the things I do not like to do, to have to keep after a neighbor or friend about his hogs. It is an embarrassment to anyone who has any respect for his neighbor or friend.

Owing to the large acreage being sown to oats, wheat, rye and other winter cover crops it will be very necessary that hogs be kept up this fall and winter.

Why could not the rural policemen pay a little attention to this? I think it would be very much appreciated by many and would not be much trouble for them.

DEATH OF H. T. MCKINNON

Native of Robeson County Closes Successful Career—Died in Charlotte Tuesday. Charlotte Observer, 3d:

Ending an illness that had extended over a period of several months, death came to Mr. Hector Theodore McKinnon, father of Mrs. F. O. Hawley, Jr., yesterday morning at 11:25 o'clock at the home of his daughter, No. 9 Elizabeth avenue. He was 70 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Hawley, a brother, Mr. L. T. McKinnon of Brunswick, Ga., and other relatives were with him at the last.

It was noted last Wednesday that Mr. McKinnon's condition had become more critical. Saturday there was a decided change for the worse, and he grew steadily weaker. At 6 o'clock yesterday morning came an attack which presaged the end. Death was due to heart trouble, from which he had suffered long.

The death of Mr. McKinnon marked the close of an interesting and successful career. Born in Robeson county this State, he had moved in early life to Georgia, where by engaging in the turpentine and lumber industries he amassed a fortune. He had then returned to his native State to spend his declining years, surrounded by friends and loved ones. He made investments here and contributed materially to the progress of this city.

EARLY LIFE

Mr. McKinnon was born October 12, 1845, near the town of St. Paul's. He was a son of John McKinnon and Katherine McNair McKinnon. His grandfather, Kenneth McKinnon, and came to this country from Scotland. On November 26, 1872, McKinnon was married to Miss Mary T. McMillan in St. Paul's. Soon afterward they moved to Georgia, where financial success awaited their coming and where in the turpentine and lumber industries Mr. McKinnon won a high and influential place by the skill and industry which he exhibited in the management of his business affairs. They lived near St. Mary's, Ga., where through the efforts of Mr. McKinnon a Presbyterian church was built.

Later they moved to Florence, S. C., in the hope that the health of Mrs. McKinnon would be benefited. She died in 1899. Mr. McKinnon and his daughter, Miss Margaret F. McKinnon continued to live in Florence, until the latter's marriage to Mr. F. O. Hawley, Jr., in 1905. He then came here to make his home with them.

Of a family of 11 children, of which Mr. McKinnon was the youngest, only two survive, Mr. L. T. McKinnon of Brunswick, Ga., and Mrs. Mary C. McNeill of White Oak, Ga., both of whom are here.

Mr. McKinnon was the owner of the McKinnon building on North Tryon street and had a number of other investments here. Although he had rare aptitude for business and a quality of judgment that is rarely met with, the range of his interests was much broader than the realm of commerce. He had read widely and traveled much, and was well informed on a variety of topics. He was unostentatious and sincere in word and action. The inner circle of his friends knew best the qualities of his heart and their devotion for him and his for them was reciprocal and mutual.

Mr. McKinnon was a Confederate soldier and a popular member of Mecklenburg Camp, United Confederate Veterans. The members of the camp will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the city hall to attend the funeral in a body. They will wear the badges of mourning.

Mr. McKinnon in early life united with the Presbyterian church. He was identified wherever he resided with its interests and its work. In Georgia he was a deacon. Since coming here he had been connected with the First Presbyterian church.

THE FUNERAL

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3:30 from the residence, No. 9 Elizabeth avenue. Rev. Dr. Melton Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro, who conducted Mrs. McKinnon's funeral service, will conduct this service also, assisted by Rev. D. H. Rolston, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. Frank Morton Hawley of Mebane, brother of Mr. F. O. Hawley. The pallbearers will be Messrs. E. O. Anderson, B. Rush Lee, O. L. Barringer, James Steere, Cameron Morrison, W. W. Kidd and J. J. Conyers. Miss Sallie Austin, a cousin of Mr. Hawley, Mrs. Harry Harrington of Waynesville, Ga., and Miss Margaret Harrington of Carthage are expected to attend the funeral.

Whereas, the great and supreme Ruler of the Universe has in His infinite wisdom removed from among us our worthy and esteemed and one of our most faithful fellow workers, D. A.
