HOMICIDE AT ROWLAND

John H. McNeill Killed by Arthur McDougald, Both Colored—Row Over Serving Meal in Restaurant—McDougald in Jail

John H. McNeill, colored, was shot and killed by Arthur McDougald, also colored, at Rowland yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock. The shooting took place in McDougald's restaurant. It is said that McNeill went into McDougald's place of business and wanted to get a meal "on time". McDougald refused to serve the dinner and a quarrel followed. McNeill picked up a ginger ale bottle and served McDougald a severe blow on the head, whereupon McDougald took his shotgun and fired the fatal shot. The load entered McNeill's right side under his arm and passed through his right lung. Immediately after the shooting McDougald left and made his way for South Carolina. Sheriff R. E. Lewis and Deputy A. H. Prevatt were notified of the murder and hurried to the scene. These officers with others from Rowland captured McDougald late yesterday afternoon near the South Carolina line and he is now in jail here. Coroner G. E. Rancke held an inquest and the verdict was that McNeill came to his death from the effects of a gunshot wound, the gun being in the hands of McDougald when fired. McDougald does not deny killing McNeill.

Teachers' Meeting Saturday—Local Betterment Association Will Serve Dinner

Supt. J. R. Poole expects a large crowd of teachers to attend the meeting of the Robeson County Teachers Association in Lumberton Saturday of this week. Every white teacher in the county is expected to attend the meeting. The Betterment Association of the Lumberton Graded School will serve dinner for the teachers. The first session will be held at the court house at 11 a. m. dinner will be served at the graded school building, and the afternoon sessions of the different departments will begin at the school building at 1 o'clock.

Superior Court

Superior Court for the trial of civil cases convened this morning with Judge F. A. Daniels of Goldsboro presiding. While this is supposed to be a two-weeks' term, only a one-week calendar has been arranged. The following out-of-town attorneys are attending court today: Messrs. G. B. Patterson, S. B. and B. F. McLean and J. E. Carpenter of Maxton, A. P. Spell of Red Springs, J. G. Robeson and N. A. Sinclair of Fayetteville.

Less Cotton and Tobacco, More Food-stuffs

Mr. A. L. Lawson of Orum, who was a Lumberton visitor one day recently, says the farmers down his way are not going to plant as many acres in cotton this year as they did last, and not much over half the amount of tobacco. They are going to raise foodstuffs, or try, without much commercial fertilizer. Mr. Lawson says he sowed a tobacco bed, but since sowing it he has decided not to plant any tobacco and that he will reduce his cotton acreage from last year.

Marriage of Miss Ora McCallum and Mr. Daniel McArthur

Mr. Daniel McArthur of the Wauville section and Miss Ora McCallum of Alfordville township, were married here at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. J. F. Gorrell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Friday about noon. Both the bride and groom are well-known and have many friends who wish for them a life of joy and prosperity.

Among the Sick

The condition of Mrs. R. G. Rozier, who has been sick with grippe for two weeks, is slightly improved today. Mrs. K. M. Barnes and daughter, Miss Myrtle, and small son, Wilton, all of whom have been sick with grippe for several days, are somewhat improved today. Mr. P. P. Green returned the latter part of last week from Baltimore Md., where he spent a little over 2 weeks undergoing treatment at John Hopkins' hospital for trouble with his head, constant headache. He does not think he is much, if any, improved. No operation was performed.

The regular monthly meeting of Robeson Chapter, U. D. C., will be held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. E. K. Proctor, Elm and Sixth. A full attendance is desired.

The mission study class of Chestnut Street Methodist church will meet at the parlour Tuesday afternoon of next week at 3:30 o'clock instead of tomorrow afternoon, as has been announced.

Two gentlemen from Wilmington were at the court house Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a co-operative market club. The crowd that heeded the call to meet was so small that the gentlemen decided to give up the idea of organizing the market.

Mr. M. Beverly left yesterday morning for Wadesboro to be with his father, who is very ill. Mr. Beverly was advised Thursday morning that his father was at the point of death and he had planned to go to Wadesboro Thursday night. However, he was notified late Thursday afternoon that his father was much better. Mr. Beverly expects to return tomorrow.

"HOSS" THIEF GOOD TRADER

How Messrs. Zack and Fowler Prevatt Were Trimmed by a Horse Thief—Mr. Fowler is Out a Buggy and Mr. Zack is Out a Mule, Besides Good Money—$50 Reward for the Slick Scoundrel and the Mule and Buggy

Mr. Zach Prevatt of route 3 from Lumberton was among the visitors in town Saturday. Mr. Prevatt was one of the two men who traded with the thief "hoss trader" mentioned in Thursday's Robesonian. Mr. Prevatt says the man with whom he traded, who gave his name at times as James Savage, first went to the home of Mr. Fowler Prevatt on Monday morning and traded a new wagon and the best set of harness he ever saw to Mr. Prevatt for his buggy. Mr. Prevatt paid him $15 "to boot". After he had perfected that trade he went to the home of Mr. Zach Prevatt and wanted to trade him a horse and a mule for his mule. Mr. Prevatt refused to trade, telling the man that he didn't want to get rid of his mule. The trader then offered him $15 in money on the trade. Mr. Prevatt refused to trade at that. The money offer was then raised to $20, and still Mr. Prevatt refused to trade. However, after the trader had spent almost a half day trying to get rid of his mule he offered him $25 in money on the trade. This Mr. Prevatt accepted. The trader then hitched the mule secured from Mr. Prevatt to the buggy he secured in the trade with Mr. Fowler Prevatt, and left. Everything was lovely till the next day, when Mr. J. C. Black of Wilmington arrived and laid claim to the wagon, harness and also both the mule and horse. He said the stuff had been stolen from him by the man with whom the Messrs. Prevatt traded. The stock and wagon and harness were turned over to Mr. Black. Messrs. Fowler and Sanford Prevatt, in company with Rural Police-man Eli Phillips, boarded an automobile and started in pursuit of the man. They followed after him for several hundred miles, going way into South Carolina. Several miles below Florence they lost all trace of the man and returned home. They reported the matter to officers on their route and it is understood the South Carolina authorities are working on the case.

Not only did Mr. Fowler Prevatt lose his buggy and $15 and Mr. Zach Prevatt his mule, but they have spent together more than $55 in trying to locate Savage, but to no avail. They have offered a reward of $50 for the return of the man, the mule and the buggy. It is said that the trader gave his name different at different points. He passed through Lumberton late Sunday afternoon before he made the trades on Monday. A woman who with him at the time he made the deal with the Messrs. Prevatts. Mr. Prevatt bought another mule Saturday.

At the Movies

The Pastime theatre will present this evening an interesting Paramount feature entitled "Kilmeny", featuring Lenore Ulrich, star of "The Bird of Paradise". "Kilmeny" is a romantic story of a child of the woods transplanted to the city. Cleo Madison in "The Ring of Destiny", a Rex feature, will be run tomorrow. Friday Marguerite Clark will be presented in "Seven Sisters", one of Paramount's most pleasing releases. Beginning tomorrow, the pupils of the graded school will be admitted free, one grade each day, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, of each week, until the whole school has been entertained. First grade tomorrow 4 to 6 o'clock.

Real Estate Deals

Messrs. White & Gough recently bought from Mr. Geo. L. Thompson the old Strong Wishart farm about 3 miles from town on the Fairmont road. The farm contains 59 acres. While the price paid has not been learned, it is said that it was one that did not look like a panic sale whatever. Messrs. White & Gough recently sold the S. F. Croft farm of 100 acres, about 5 miles from town on the Carthage road, to Rev. James Long of Laurinburg.

Directory Census Gives Lumberton's Population at 5,053

Mr. Chas. S. Gardner of Florence, S. C., is in Lumberton today delivering copies of the new town directory to subscribers. This is Lumberton's first directory and it is a complete and creditable piece of work. It gives the population of the town at 5,053, which is more than has been claimed. The new book contains an alphabetical department, a street guide, a miscellaneous department and a business directory.

Beginning next Monday, the Pastime theatre, with the co-operation of the little boys and girls in town, will begin the removal of all the tin cans from the streets, back yards, vacant lots and any other places where they may be found inside the corporate limits of town. Twelve cans with hole in bottom, tied together, will admit any little boy or girl under 12 years old to the show between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock every day in the week but Saturday for two weeks or more. Let the children clean up the cans and thus do their part in keeping away mosquitoes and sickness.

FRESH MILK COWS—MARCUS

Alexander of Union county will have fifteen fresh milk cows for sale at Carlyle's stables Monday, March 6th.

DID PARKER MEET FOUL PLAY?

Police Put On Case of Lumberton Man Who Mysteriously Disappeared in Raleigh Some Months Ago.

Robesonian readers are familiar with the fact that Mr. L. C. Parker, former freight and passenger agent of the Virginia & Carolina Southern Railroad, with headquarters in Lumberton, disappeared in Raleigh last November and has not been seen or heard of since. Recently The Robesonian published a cut of Mr. Parker. The Raleigh News and Observer reproduced this cut in its issue of the 26th inst, with the following news story which will be of special interest to Robesonian readers.

"Although three months and two days have passed since Mr. Leslie C. Parker of Lumberton, N. C., mysteriously disappeared while stopping at the Bland hotel in this city, no trace of the young man has been found. The hopes of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Parker of Salemburg, that some favorable word of their missing son would be received having failed to materialize, an uncle of the young man, Mr. J. F. Parker, came to Raleigh yesterday to make an investigation and placed the matter in the hands of the police, as it is now thought that the missing man must have met with foul play. Young Parker was 28 years old and was traffic manager of the Virginia and Carolina Southern Railroad, with headquarters at Lumberton. He came to Raleigh on November 20th and registered at the Grand Hotel. The hotel cashed two checks for him, one for $5 on the day of his arrival and another for $25 on November 22. The last seen of him was that night, or more properly, early the next morning, as he was seen standing by the cigar stand about half an hour after midnight. He was in a room at the hotel the next day, but as his hand-bag was still in the room nothing wrong was suspected, and it was thought possible that he had gone to Philadelphia to witness the Army and Navy game, as he was fond of going to those out-of-State contests. He had also been drinking some. Mr. Parker was about five feet ten inches and weighed between 225 and 250 pounds. He had a ruddy complexion and had light hair. He was said to be of a jovial character. The father of the missing man, about the time of the disappearance, was run over by an automobile and had a leg broken, and is said unable to get about. Mr. J. F. Parker returned to Fayetteville last evening. Chief Keonce will do all in his power to fathom the mystery."

Out Smyrna Way—Tobacco Plants Killed

Correspondence of The Robesonian. Smyrna (Lumberton, R. 4), Feb. 28.—Farmers are busy preparing for another crop. We were glad to have Messrs. C. L. Lamb and Jasper Rowan also Mr. John Bullock of Durham with us Sunday p. m.—Mrs. E. McQ. Rowan who has been on the sick list, is somewhat better. There is a man around here who owns a lot of dogs. The neighbors better mind how they throw sticks at them or they will get into trouble. Mr. Dan Britt spent a few hours with his mother Saturday p. m. Most all the tobacco beds were killed by the cold spell. Miss Annie Hayes spent Wednesday night with Miss Mary Cox of this section.

Recorder's Court

Tom Wilkins of Howellsville township was before Recorder E. M. Britt Saturday on the charge of pulling up a corner land stake. The case was dismissed. Harrison Gaddy, colored, was before Recorder Britt Saturday on the charge of stealing meat. The evidence against Gaddy was not strong enough to convict and he was released.

H. H. Howell Wants to Come Home

Mr. P. H. Britt of R. 6, Lumberton, writes The Robesonian that while in Raleigh last week he visited the insane asylum and had a talk with Mr. H. H. Howell, an inmate of that institution, from Back Swamp section of this county, and found him getting along well. Mr. Britt writes: "There is very little change in his appearance, though he has lost some flesh since leaving here something like nine years ago. Mr. Howell is a native of Back Swamp community. While talking to me he said that he wanted very much to come back home and spend the remainder of his life with his family."

Fall Out Crop Badly Damaged

Farmers from various sections of the county say the fall out crop was badly damaged by the extreme cold weather that visited these parts several days ago, and that the winter crops were practically all killed. This may cause many of the acres planted in oats to be planted in something else. It would be a good idea to plant those acres in foodstuff of some kind.

SCHOOL BETTERMENT WORK

Work Done and Planned by Betterment Association of Lumberton Graded School—Community Extension Work—County Home's Conditions Distressing—Athletics and Library—Preparing to Entertain Teachers at County Meeting March 4

Reported for The Robesonian.

The School Betterment Association met in the eighth grade room at the graded school building Wednesday, February 23rd. The association was called to order by the president, Miss Elsie Newton, after which reports from different committees were heard. Miss Winnie Rowland as chairman of the interior committee gave a statement of work done by them the past six weeks. Besides exerting efforts to prevent defacing of school property, this committee has done much towards cleaning up and making more attractive the interior of building, especially the seventh grade room.

Prof. Poole reported for the committee on community extension. The members of this committee are particularly interested in the county home and the betterment of existing conditions there. They have recently been out to the home on an inspection tour and Prof. Sentelle reported several appalling facts relative to the inmates and their surroundings. Miss Bell, as chairman of the athletic committee, gave a brief report of their work. She spoke of the organization of a basketball team, though as yet the girls have been unable to do much playing. She also stated that a lively baseball team had been formed among the boys. The committee on library work, Miss Anna Neal Fuller, chairman, is preparing to begin a thorough classification of the books. They hope to have the library in good condition very soon. A committee of Misses Carlyle, Fuller and McLean with Mary Lee Caldwell, Margaret Pope and Flora Prevatt, has been appointed to solicit and prepare lunch for the teachers when they come to the county meeting, March 4th. The object of this committee is to make this meeting the most pleasant ever held in Lumberton.

AGNES McLEAN, Secretary.

—Lumbee Tent, 18, K. O. T. M. meets at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Logree work.

—Mr. Grover Pope left Friday for Petersburg, Va., where he holds a position. Mr. Pope came home some weeks ago on account of being sick.

—Daughters of the Confederacy, members of Robeson Chapter, served dinner in the commissioners' room at the court house today and realized about $27. They were well patronized.

—Mr. F. F. Wetmore and family are moving from the residence they have been occupying on Pine and Twelfth streets to a residence belonging to Mrs. Dairy Jenkins, near the county home.

—Mr. W. F. French left Saturday for the West to buy horses and mules for the sales stables of W. F. French & Co., of which Mr. French is manager. He expects to return the latter part of this week.

—State senator G. B. McLeod left last evening for Washington, D. C., to take up his duties as field representative of the Federal Trade Commission. Mention of Mr. McLeod's appointment was made in Thursday's Robesonian.

—Chadburn Herald: Mr. W. J. Prevatt, of Lumberton, who does business in our town, has been confined to his home by sickness for some time, we are glad to report is improved and back to his old stand selling goods.

—Miss Amelia Linkhauser left Friday afternoon for New York and Baltimore, Md., where she will spend several days buying spring millinery for the millinery department of Messrs. R. D. Caldwell & Son, of which she has been head trimmer for 14 years.

—Mr. C. B. Oliver of route 2 from Fairmont was in town Saturday. Mr. Oliver, who lives in the best tobacco growing section of the county says the recent cold weather killed most all the tobacco plants in his section. Mr. Oliver, like many others, sowed his bed over.

—The ladies of Lumberton must be aware of the fact that this is leap year. Recently an old veteran returned from that town to Lumberton and when asked when he was going back to Lumberton he remarked "Don't think I'll go back. I'm afraid if I do I'll get married, and I don't want to do that."

—Mr. Sam Smith had the misfortune to lose $15 Saturday between Mr. E. T. Taylor's place in Howellsville township and Lumberton, or as soon as he reached Lumberton. He had the money inside a tobacco sack in a nurse when he left Mr. Taylor's but when he felt for it after reaching Lumberton the money was missing.

—Mrs. J. J. Moore, who came a week ago to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barker, on account of the serious illness of her brother Mr. Johnnie Barker, returned last night with her husband, who spent yesterday here at their home at Wilmington. Mr. Johnnie Barker's condition is thought to be considerably improved.

—Willie Taylor, colored, who works about town, says he has a son who was 12 months old on the 25th of this month and that same little boy gets down to pray when his daddy gets down to pray, sings when his daddy sings, and slaps and pats his hands, too. Willie wouldn't be surprised if that young hopeful becomes a great preacher.

—Misses Margaret Shelby, Mattie Ammons, Lillian Hutchison, Edna, Dovie and Laura Prevatt and Louise Townsend of Lumberton attended a birthday supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tyner at Lowe Friday night. The occasion was in honor of the 10th birthday of little Miss DeLeslie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tyner. They report a most pleasant occasion.

—Rich and powerful Uncle Sam wants to roll The Robesonian to the extent of the free announcement that he is now open to receive bids for the lease of a building to be used as a postoffice in Lumberton, lease to be for five or 10 years. Bids are to be submitted to H. B. Farrington, Postoffice Inspector, Charlotte, who was in Lumberton Friday on business with the local office in connection with this matter. Postmaster D. D. French can accommodate any one who wishes to submit a bid with specifications and blanks for proposals. It is believed that Uncle Sam will pay the rent promptly.

—Mr. A. F. Williams, who lives in the eastern part of town, took a dose of chloroform last night. When he awoke he was taking a dose of whisky and nitre. Soon after he had taken the dose, he discovered that the bottle was labeled poison and called to Dr. John Knox. Dr. Knox advised him that he had not taken enough to kill him, but that it might have been into a deep sleep. He awoke in a few minutes and immediately began to work all night and seems to be in good shape. Mr. Williams and his family were much scared when they first discovered that he had taken the wrong dose.

—Mr. Glasson was fitted by Dr. Parker, the only specialist in Lumberton licensed by State Board Examination for this important work. HIS SERVICE SATISFIES
