WHY WOMEN WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. are continually publishing, genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering.

CHURCH NEWS NOTES

Happenings of Interest at the Various Churches of Lumberton

Miss Gladys Laney of Monroe, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Boyd, sang at the Epworth League service at Chestnut Street Methodist church last evening and delighted an audience that filled the Sunday school room to overflowing.

Mr. J. P. Russell made an excellent talk on "Athletic Strength" at the League service last evening. Sunday school and preaching services had to be omitted at the Presbyterian church yesterday on account of the bursting of a water pipe putting the heating plant out of commission.

AT THE MOVIES

Arcade Theatre "At Bay" today with Florence Reed, one of the most popular actresses of the screen. Pay us a visit and give us "the once over". Open at 2:30. Tuesday, March 14, "A Bolt from the Sky" with Jackie Sanders. A three act photoplay of merit. "Luke Lugs Luggage" is one of the funniest comedies ever devised. "The Iron Claw" will shortly start at the Arcade. It will run on Wednesdays.

Pastime Theatre

The Pastime theatre offers today a show that will please all who can take advantage of the opportunity of seeing good pictures. Mary Fuller will be presented in a 3-reel Victor feature entitled "The Tale of the C." and a single-reel comedy will be run to make up a four-reel show. Besides the regular program a 3-reel "fairy" picture will be run for the little folks. The show will open at 3 o'clock. 5 and 10 cents. Tomorrow the "Juggernaut", one of the greatest V. L. S. E. features yet exhibited, will be offered at the Pastime. In this picture will be seen Anita Stewart and Earl Williams, both of whom made themselves Lumberton favorites while appearing in "The Goddess". The show will open at 2 o'clock tomorrow. The great railroad wreck scene in "Juggernaut" is a thriller, costing a large amount of money to produce. A water date has been secured for "My Old Dutch" recently shown at the Pastime, giving such satisfaction that patrons of the show asked that it be repeated. It will be here April 7th.

Mr. R. C. Lawrence spent yesterday in Charlotte. Messrs. L. C. and Ambrose Davis of route 1 from Buie are Lumberton visitors today.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Lumbee Research Club Reported for The Robesonian. Thursday afternoon, March 9th, at 4 o'clock, Miss Mary G. McNeill, was hostess to the Lumbee Research Club, at her hospitable home corner of Elm and 9th streets.

The subject of the month was Ireland, and the following interesting program was rendered with ability: Reading from Bay View Magazine—Home Rule and Political Leaders—Mrs. N. A. Thompson. Sketch—Thomas Moore—Mrs. W. L. Grantham. Music—An Irish love song—Marjorie (Lang)—Mrs. R. R. Carlyle.

"In Shamrock Land"—reading from Bay View Magazine—Mrs. S. F. Caldwell. Round table discussion. A large number of members was present and responded to roll call with quotations from Lalla Rookh.

Several matters of business were presented by the president for discussion, after which delicious refreshments in two courses were served. The club adjourned to meet in April with a Shakespeare program which promises to be interesting.

Meeting of Alfred Rowland Chapter—Mrs. Sue Rowland Gives $10 to Chapter Reported for The Robesonian. The Alfred Rowland chapter, Children of the Confederacy, met with Mrs. L. T. Townsend Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with a very good attendance. A new member was added, Miss Viola Jenkins. After the business and program were finished Mrs. Townsend read a very sweet note to the girls from Mrs. Sue Rowland. Enclosed in this note was $10 for the chapter in memory of her husband, the late Col. Alfred Rowland, for whom the chapter is named, also for her son John A. Rowland. The chapter appreciates this gift very much.
