Col. Bryan Grimes says he has defeated his opponents Hartness and Clark and that there will be no secand contest for Secretary of State. It is thought in Raleigh that the entire old State ticket has been renominated and that Mr. Manning has de-feated his opponents for Attorney

The Raleigh News and Observe states this morning that Maj. W. A. Graham for Commissioner of Agriculture is ahead of Maj. A. J. Mc-Kinnon. Maj. McKinnon, however, still trinks he has a majority and is confident that at least he polled more votes than either of his oppon-

From the best information obtainable it seems certain that a second race for Congress will be necessary in the sixth, Mr. Godwin lacking some 800 or 1,000 votes of winning over his 4 opponents. It is thought that Joe Brown will be in the sec-ond primary with Mr. Godwin. The nomination of Judge W. P. Stacy in the 8th judicial district to With official returns from Rowland, Red Springs, Rennert and Shan-non townships not available at the
