Dr. ceremony she rendered a prelude-Vines is expected to remain for about two weeks. He is one of the most gifted and accomplished ministers in the South, and has served important pastorates, including such churches as Asheville,Freemason St.,Norfolk, Hanson Place, New York city. He has been in his present pastorate three years, during which time nearly seven hundred members have been added to the church and $72,000 collected for various church purposes. Among other things a debt of $16,000 was as a church financier years ago by raising a $20,000 debt against the Asheville church in a week's time. Put of course Dr. Vines' work here is to be that of an evangelist, and in that respect he has been very successful in other places. The church and community are very fortunate in ceremony she rendered a prelude-"June"—Barcarolle by Tschaikowsky.

LEE-HIGLEY WEDDING

Brilliant Wedding at First Baptist Church—Miss Emma Higley Be-comes Bride of Mr. Manly G. Lee A crowd that filled the large audi torium at the First Baptist church attended the marriage of Miss Emma Kenan Higley, daughter of Mrs. Thomas N. Higley, to Mr. Manley Guion Lee Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Chas. L. Greaves, pastor of the church, of which both bride and groom are members, performed the deremony.

A violin solo, "Love's Greeting", by Elgar, was rendered by Mr. Rowland Brown of Red Springs. Following this Mr. C. B. Skipper sang "Because," by D. Hardelot.

Strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March announced the coming of the bridal party. First came the flower children, little Miss Mary Ruth Greaves and Master William Pope, the latter a cousin of the bride. Then down the right aisle came Miss Mary provided for, which reminds us that Pope, a cousin of the bride, as maid Dr. Vines first came into prominence of honor, while down the left aisle as a church financier years ago by bearing the ring in a white lily. The bride entered down the left aisle with Mr. M. N. Folger, her brotherin-law, while the groom entered with Mr. Leonard F. The maid of honor was most tastefully dressed in yellow Georgette crepe trimmed in black velvet and old English lace, with gloves and slippers to match. She wore a picture hat of chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink Killarney roses. The flower children were dressed in white and pink, while the ring bearer was handsomely gowned in white. The ushers wore outonnieres of lillies of the valley.

"Tanhanser's March," by Wagner, was played as a recessional. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left in an automobile for Fayetteville, where they boarded a train for the western part of the State, where they will spend two ty on Tuesday, May 9, and to re- weeks, after which they will be at new the friendships of former years, lome to their friends at the home ley Seventh and Pine Streets.
