Small Colored Girl Drowned in a Watering Hole

A 4-year-old colored girl was drowned in a watering hole in a pasture on the farm of Mr. John Lewis, near Center church, yesterday morn-ing about 10:30. The child was a daughter of Ash Moore. The unfortunate girl with several other children was playing in the hole of water which since the recent rains had become much deeper than it was when they "went swimming" in it some time ago, the water being deeper than the child's head. The water was about 3 feet deep. The other children called for help when they saw their playmate drowning. but when help arrived it was too late.

Shipping Irish Potatoes-Melons Next Month

While the Irish potato crop was cut in two hereabouts by the dry spring, potatoes were being shipped last week by Mr. W. G. Gilchrist, industrial agent of the Virginia & Carolina Southern Railway. Two carloads were shipped from Mr. J. A. Barker's place and one or two carloads from Mr. A. W. McLean's place near the Jennings cotton mills. From the editor of The Robesonian Friday some exceptionally fine potatoes.

Many watermelons and cantaloupes may be expected next month. Mr. Gilchrist says more ground has been planted to melons right around Lumberton this year than ever before.

INTEREST IN REVIVAL GROWS

34 Men Made Profession of Faith at Men's Meeting Yesterday-"The Unpardonable Sin" Subject for Sermon This Evening-Pastor Greaves

Preached in Charlotte Yesterday With each service interest grows in the revival which has been in progress at the First Baptist church a week. Dr. Wm. M. Vines, pastor of the First Baptist church of Charlotte, is doing the preaching. His sermons are strong, eloquent, powerful and are drawing great crowds.
Already many have made a profession of faith in Christ.

Tonight Dr. Vines will preach on "The Unpardonable Sin", or Is it possible in this age for a man to commit a sin for which there is no pardon? Tomorrow night the First Baptist Sunday school will attend the service in a body. Wednesday even-ing Dr. Vines will preach from the subject, "Shall We Know Each Other in Heaven?"

Rev. Chas. L. Greaves, pastor of the First Baptist church here, filled Dr. Vine's pulpit at the First Baptist church in Charlotte yesterday morning and last evening.

Thirty-four men made a profession of faith and many more made a request for prayer at the special service for men held at the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A crowd numbering at least 650 men attended the service. Dr. Vines remarked that it was one of the greatest men's meetings he had ever seen. It was a great meeting. It was good to be there.

A male quartet, composed of Messrs. E. B. Fræman, C. B. Skipper, J. P. Stephens and W. Lennon, sang several beautiful and appropriate selections before the sermon, which was one of the most powerful ever heard one of the most powerful ever heard Paisly McMillan, D. P. Lumberton's Cleanness Commended Dr. Vines commended Lumberton for its cleanliness and urged upon the men of the town the importance of keeping it up to its present high standard. Keep it clean, pure and decent that the boys may grow up in a clean atmosphere.

To be a royal man one must take a stand for Christ and a stand against sin. We have but one life. Keeper, R. L. Shelby: Sir Kt. Chap-We should live so we may have a clean record behind when we come down to die.

In closing his sermon Dr. Vines urged his hearers to be royal men that they might have a royal destiny. Special Sermon to Parents

Friday morning Dr. Vines preached the latter place Mr. Gilchrist brought a special sermon to parents. His text was: "For this child I prayed; and the Lord hath given me my pe- sians have crossed the Ikwa and Styr tition which I asked of Him.
