Presbyterian—Special Sermons Next Sunday

Correspondence of The Robesonian. Next Sabbath day, July 16th, the pastor, Rev. Dr. G. E. Morehouse, will preach two special sermons. At the morning worship at 11 o'clock the subject will be, "The Marks of the Lord Jesus." At the evening worship at 8 o'clock, a special sermon to young people, subject, "How to Avoid Temptation."

A Fine Deliverance

As has been mentioned in The Robesonian, Rev. Chas. L. Greaves of Lumberton preached the sermon at the recent annual meeting of the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville. In last week's issue of Charity and Children Editor Archibald Johnson makes the following complimentary reference to Mr. Greaves' sermon. "Dr. Mercer gracefully introduced Rev. Charles L. Greaves, the brilliant pastor of the First Baptist church of Lumberton. Mr. Greaves speaks with exceptional grace and fluency and the inspiring audience before him added warmth and glow to his words. The sermon was based on the character and career of Moses, and it was quite as fine a deliverance as we have had in the past twenty one years. We have the promise of this delightful and vigorous sermon and it will be found on the front page of an early issue. There is therefore no need for our saying another word about it, for it will speak for itself."

MARRIED TWICE IN 24 HOURS

Miss Beulah White and Mr. Watus Edwards were married in South Carolina yesterday and here this morning.

Getting married is becoming a habit with Miss Beulah White and Mr. Watus Edwards. They were married this morning for the second time within 24 hours. The marriage took place in the office of Register of Deeds M. W. Floyd. The young couple, who live at the National cotton mill, ran away yesterday afternoon and went to Dillon, S. C., where they were married. The girl's parents wanted to be sure the couple were legally married so they made arrangements for the second marriage this morning. Rev. W. R. Davis, pastor of East Lumberton Baptist church, spoke the words that satisfied the parents. Quite a number witnessed the affair.

Marriage of Miss Ethel Taylor and Mr. E. M. Shepherd.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff D. Taylor, about two miles east of town, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Ethel, became the bride of Mr. E. M. Shepherd. Rev. W. R. Davis, pastor of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. Only a few intimate friends of the bride and groom witnessed the marriage. Both bride and groom have many friends here and elsewhere who wish for them a joyous and prosperous life. Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd left on the 10:25 V. & C. S. train for City Point, Va., where they will make their home.

Marriage of Miss Ruth Lamb and Mr. Howard Bullard

A surprise marriage took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Small, Second and Seneca streets, Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock when Miss Ruth Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Lamb, became the bride of Mr. Howard Bullard. Rev. N. L. Seabolt performed the ceremony. Both bride and groom lived in the eastern part of town. The newly married couple will make their home at Marion, S. C., where the groom has accepted a position.

Flour Mill at Pembroke Puts in More Machinery

To the Editor of The Robesonian: I wish to inform the public that the flour mill at Pembroke shut down yesterday to put in some more machinery and will be still about ten days. After that time it will be running in first-class fix and will be pleased to do your grinding any time. Be sure your wheat is dry and clear of smut. The mill will not grind smutty wheat as it ruins the flour of several grindings afterwards. Last year several men got their flour ruined by grinding smutty wheat before their. This year we are prepared to exchange smutty wheat for flour and put the smutty wheat in to mill feed. This is some of the machinery that is going in now. W. K. CULBRETH.

T. G. Cobb, editor of the Morganton News-Herald and for a number of years chief clerk of the House of the Legislature, died at his home in Morganton on the night of the 5th. He had been in poor health for some time. He was well known throughout the State.

Taking Big Chances. It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and everyone should go prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere.

His Backache Gone. Just how dangerous a backache, sore muscles, aching joints or rheumatic pains may be is sometimes realized only when life insurance is refused on account of kidney trouble. Joseph G. Wolf of Green Bay, Wis., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills relieved me of a severe backache that had bothered me for several months. Take Foley Kidney Pills for weak lame back and weary sleepless nights. Sold everywhere."

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Mrs. Dennis Biggs Entertains in Honor of Mrs. D. D. King and Mrs. Robert Craven. Reported for The Robesonian.

Mrs. Dennis W. Biggs entertained at a beautiful reception Friday afternoon at her home on North Elm street, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. D. D. King, one of this city's many charming brides and Mrs. Robert Craven of Abbottsburg, house guest of the hostess.

The rooms were attractively decorated for the occasion, a profusion of ferns and cut flowers being used, with a color note of pink prevailing.

Mrs. W. L. Grantham greeted the guests at the entrance, where little Misses Maitland Thompson and Margaret Finlayson received the cards. Mrs. J. R. Poole led the way into the parlor and presented the callers to the receiving line, composed of Mrs. Dennis W. Biggs, Mrs. D. D. King, Mrs. Robert Craven and Mrs. G. E. Morehouse. Mrs. W. W. Parker ushered the guests into the punch room, where Mrs. W. O. Thompson and Miss Emma Norment were receiving and Misses Cammie and Josie McNeill presiding at the punch bowl. Receiving in the rear hall were Mrs. K. M. Biggs, Mrs. Daniel McNeill and Mrs. John T. Biggs. In the dining room cut cream and cake with ginger was served by Mrs. T. C. Johnson and Mrs. R. H. Crichton, assisted by Misses Agnes Johnson, Nannie Thompson, Ruth Norment, Misses Lula May Johnson and Bertha Barker presided at the victrola, the selections rendered adding greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon.

This was one of the season's most delightful as well as largely attended social events.
