Sermon Tuesday Evening

For me to live is Christ-Phil. 1:21 From this text Dr. Turner preached a thought-provoking sermon Tuesday evening. The most serious and important question that confronts any mortal, he declared, is, "What are you going to do with your life?" The answer is determined by what one allows to become the controlling thought of one's life. There is no life without a purpose, there is no such thing as a purposeless life. Somewhere deep in every life is a thought that controls. As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.

For a miser to live is money. A woman of Paris who had drunk of every cup of pleasure to the dregs offered $1,000 to any one who would invent some new pleasure. To her to live was pleasure. To Paul, when he stood by and consented to the death of the martyr Stephen, to live was to persecute Jesus Christ and to stamp Him out of the hearts of men, but after his vonsercion to him to live was Christ.

Life is so short, life is so uncertain, if you are going to make anything of your life you must do it now. You cannt recall the minute, the hour, the year that has passed. The op-portunity that has passed is gone for-

Your soul is what you make it. A man left his home in the East and went to the West to make money. He was successful, as the world counts success, and made a fortune. He thought when he left home that he would go back to the old place, but gradually sentiments like that left him, his life was wrapped up in making money. One day a poor woman walked unannounced into his private office. She told him she was a wid-
