THE GREAT WORLD WAR ENDED TODAY

ALLIES AND GERMANY SIGNED ARMISTICE THIS MORNING—HOSTILITIES CEASED AT 2 O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON.

(By United Press.)

Paris, Nov. 7.—The Allies and Germany signed the armistice at 11 o'clock this morning. Hostilities ceased at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

AMERICAN ARMY SPEEDS UP ITS SWIFT ADVANCE

Bearing Down Rapidly Upon Sedan, Behind Which City Germans are Hurriedly Retreating—Revolution Spreads in Schleswig and Holstein—Socialists Want Armistice Concluded Immediately.

(By United Press.)

With American armies in France, Nov. 7 (Noon)—The first army has speeded up its already swift advance upon Sedan, bearing down rapidly upon the city, now only a few kilometers distant. American aviators report that Germans are hurriedly retreating behind the city.

Revolution Spreading Through Schleswig and Holstein.

Copenhagen, Nov. 7.—Revolution which broke out in Kiel has spread throughout Schleswig and Holstein, provinces which Germany seized from Denmark half a century ago.

British Continue Progress.

London, Nov. 7.—The British continued their progress along the whole battle front last evening. Field Marshal Haig reports today.

Paris, Nov. 7.—Chancellor Maximilian has published a proclamation to the German people announcing that a delegation to receive terms of armistice promptly had been sent to the west front.

Unless Armistice May Be Revolution.

Amsterdam, Nov. 7.—Herr Ebert has notified Chancellor Maximilian that unless an armistice is concluded immediately Socialists will not support the government and will not guarantee that there will not be a revolution.

GERMANY BEGS FOR PEACE.

Sends Envoys to Learn Foch's Terms—Enemy Forces Are Being Given No Rest.

The Associated Press gave this morning the following summary of the war news:

Deserted by all her former allies; her great military machine in the process of destruction by the onslaughts of the Entente allied armies; her dream of world domination rudely dissipated, Germany begs for a cessation of hostilities, notwithstanding the hard terms she knows she must pay.

Scarcely had the decision of the supreme war council at Versailles with regard to a cessation of hostilities in Germany been made public than Germany was speeding emissaries to Foch to learn what the commander-in-chief's terms are to be.

Meantime in France and Flanders the enemy forces are being given no rest. Along the whole battle line in France the British, French and American troops have made further gains and reclaimed numerous towns and villages. Thousands more of Germans have been taken prisoner on the sectors under attack. Generally the enemy forces are in slow retreat, but nevertheless at some points they are offering sharp resistance, particularly against the Americans in the Meuse river region and the French in the old Argonne sector.

The latest gains of the British on the western side of the battle front have been productive of the capture of several towns of great importance, the gaining of more territory east of the Scheldt canal, where the Canadians are on the attack and in the taking of several railway junctions of high strategic value.

Along the Meuse the Americans continue steadily to push forward and at last accounts were almost at the gates of Sedan, a dominating point on the German line of communication to the east. Both east and west of the river the Germans have materially stiffened their resistance against the men from overseas using large numbers of machine guns and gas in great quantities.

West of the American sectors the Germans near Rethel are holding a bridgehead to protect their retreating armies east and west. In doing so, however, they are forming a dangerous salient in which capture is likely should the French break through. Numerous additional crossings of the Aisne have been made by the French. Altogether the situation of the German army is critical.

ROBESON GAVE LARGE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY

Democrats Polled Biggest Vote in Robeson in Several Years—Majority Around 2,000—Full Vote Cast.

Robeson county gave in the election Tuesday the largest Democratic majority it has polled in several years. As near as can be estimated from returns so far received the total Democratic vote in the 25 townships of the county was 3,174, Republican vote 1,190, giving a Democratic majority of 1,984.

This is a remarkably large vote considering the fact that the influenza epidemic made the usual campaign impossible and considering the further fact that 800 Democratic voters of the county are in the army and navy. Several townships that usually go Republican went Democratic, Wishart being the only township that went Republican. A few townships went solidly Democratic, not a Republican vote being cast.

The large Democratic vote cast in Robeson shows that Chairman T. A. McNeill, Jr., did some excellent work, organizing his forces well, and that the voters were thoroughly aroused over the situation.

Democratic candidates were elected as follows: For State Senate—H. E. Stacy, defeating W. H. Kinlaw, Republican; for House of Representatives—J. S. Oliver and G. B. Sellers, defeating C. R. Hester and L. E. Tyner, Republicans; for Clerk Superior Court—C. B. Skipper, defeating T. F. Barnes, Republican; for Sheriff—R. E. Lewis, defeating Joseph Allen, Republican; for register of deeds—M. W. Floyd, defeating Jerry M. Sessoms, Republican. For county commissioners: District No. 3—Rory McNair, defeating W. R. Atkinson, Republican; district No. 5—J. G. Hughes, defeating D. M. Hall, Republican. For road commissioners: district No. 1—J. I. Townsend, defeating I. E. Bullard, Rep.; district No. 2—G. H. Floyd, no opposition; district No. 3—L. L. McGirt, defeating E. L. McCormick, Rep.; district No. 4—I. T. Brown, no opposition; district No. 5—J. Brown Evans, no opposition. Prosecuting attorney, recorder's court, Lumberton district—W. Lennon, no opposition. Recorder: Lumberton district—E. M. Britt, defeating S. L. Parker, Rep.; St. Pauls district—John S. Butler, no opposition; Red Springs district—J. N. Buie, no opposition; Maxton district—R. M. Williams, defeating B. F. McLean, Rep.; Rowland district—D. W. Bullock, no opposition; Fairmont district—A. E. Floyd, no opposition; county surveyor—J. Ed Tyson, no opposition.

Mr. S. B. McLean of Maxton was re-elected solicitor of the 9th judicial district. The canvassing board is in session here today but the official returns from all townships have not been received. In the returns given below from all the townships that it has been possible to get up to the time of press, the first-named candidate in each instance is the Democratic and the second-named Republican. Where there is more than one candidate of each party for an office, they are named in pairs, the first pair being Democrats. Where there is only one candidate, he is a Democrat.

DEMOCRATS SWEEP STATE.

North Carolina Democrats Elect All Ten Congressmen and Senator Simmons Leads the Ticket—Majority Around 50,000—Amendments Carried.

In the election Tuesday North Carolina stood by the President by re-electing Senator Simmons and by electing all of the ten Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives. Chairman T. D. Warren closed Democratic State headquarters in Raleigh yesterday and went home satisfied that the State had rolled up a Democratic majority of around 50,000, going beyond his pre-election estimate of around 30,000 majority. Senator Simmons led the ticket by a most flattering vote.

In the Tenth district Weaver defeated Britt for Congress by 1,000, an increased majority. Brinson's majority in the Third is estimated at 2,500; Doughton's in the Eighth at 2,400; Robinson's in the Seventh at 4,000; Stedman's in the Fifth at probably 4,000.

Along with the sweeping Democratic victory in the State there is the gratifying evidence that the 6-months school amendment and the note and mortgage exemption amendment to the constitution were both ratified at the polls. This means that every rural school district must have at least six months school term and that those buying a farm home of not over $5,000 value may have notes and mortgages due on the farm exempted from taxation to the amount of $3,000, this to be deducted from the tax valuation of the property.

STILL THE "SOLID SOUTH."

Southern States Returned Their Usual Almost Solid Democratic Delegation to Congress.

Southern States east of the Mississippi river returned their usual almost solid Democratic delegation to the House of Representatives in yesterday's elections, while all Democratic candidates for the Senate were elected. There was no turnover anywhere in this territory, states an Atlanta dispatch.

For the 76 Democratic seats in the House from the nine States, there were contests by Republicans in only fifteen districts, while the Democrats contested only one of the three seats held by the Republicans.

Ten Senators were elected from eight States, but the Democratic candidates were opposed only in Tennessee, North Carolina and Georgia with the race between Senator Shields and Henry C. Evans in Tennessee the most formidable contest of the day. Latest returns indicated Shields' election by a safe margin.

The only Republicans elected in the South were two representatives in Tennessee, one of whom was without opposition, and one in Virginia, also without opposition. In the normally Democratic districts, the only close contest was in the Tenth North Carolina, where Representative Weaver had an apparently safe lead over James J. Britt.

State tickets were contested in only two States, Alabama and Tennessee, and in the former Democrats were elected by overwhelming majorities. The result of the contest for Governor in Tennessee was uncertain late last night.

In Florida the State constitutional prohibition amendment was adopted by a large majority, while in Louisiana the equal suffrage amendment to the State constitution was defeated.

The Democratic leaders in Congress, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, and Representative Kitchin of North Carolina, were re-elected, as were the House Republican leader, Representative Mann of Illinois, and the acting Republican leader, Representative Gillett of Massachusetts. Former Speaker Cannon of Illinois was re-elected to what will be his twenty-second term in Congress, a record of service interrupted by only two defections.

Mayor London, the only Socialist in the House of Representatives, was defeated by Henry M. Goldfugle, a Republican running with Democratic support, but the Socialists retained representation by electing Victor Berger, from Wisconsin, a former member of the House, now under indictment under charges of violating the espionage law. Other Socialist candidates were defeated, among them Morris Hillquit, candidate for mayor of New York a year ago.

Election Results in County and State Most Gratifying.

National Committeeman A. W. McLean, after spending a few days at his home here on business, left last night for Washington, where he spends practically all his time when he connects with the War Finance board, of which he is a member. Mr. McLean thinks the Democratic victory in the county and State is very gratifying, especially since the influenza epidemic made a campaign out of the question. He thinks that Senator Simmons ought to feel especially gratified at the result, as there seemed to be more interest in giving him a big majority in this county and elsewhere in the State than in anything else.

Mr. A. L. Jones of Fairmont was a Lumberton visitor this morning.

REPUBLICANS WIN HOUSE.

Control of House of Congress Placed in Hands of Republicans—Control of the Senate Depends on Result of Contests in 3 States.

With control of the House of Representatives placed in the hands of the Republicans by a majority of 16 and probably more, the attention of the country, states a Washington dispatch, centered on contests in three States—Michigan, Idaho and New Mexico—which will decide whether the Democrats shall lose control of the Senate as well.

At midnight last night returns from five congressional districts were missing—in Montana, New Mexico and South Dakota.

Without them, however, the Republicans have won 234 seats in the House of Representatives—10 more than the 218 votes necessary for a majority.

The Democrats, on the face of those returns, had 195 seats and if the five missing districts were to be conceded to them they still would lack 18 votes of the number necessary to control the House.

Later reports show plainly that Speaker Clark, instead of being defeated as reported Tuesday night, had been re-elected by a substantial majority.

The contests which will decide the political complexion of the Senate were very close. As the Senate stands without a decision in these contests there are 46 Democrats and 47 Republicans.

In Michigan the race between Henry Ford and Truman H. Newberry was so close that it was said an official count might be required to decide the winner. Both parties were claiming the seat.

In New Mexico, where Republicans are claiming the election of Senator Fall by a majority of 1,000 at least, not a single county had reported complete returns.

In Idaho, where 74,000 votes out of an estimated total of 95,000 had been counted, Senator Nugent, the Democratic candidate for re-election, was leading Frank R. Gooding, the Republican candidate, by a little more than 300 votes. The result is in doubt.

With the House firmly in the hands of the Republicans, control of the Senate is more important than ever to the Democrats. If the administration can retain control of the Senate it can in large measure check the activities of a Republican house. It is doubly important to the national administration because of the part which the constitution assigns to the Senate in the ratification of the peace treaties which will end the world war.

In the Senate reposes the prerogative of ratifying any treaties which the President may make.

Republicans made one of their campaign arguments on the contention that a Republican senate should be elected to participate in the work of making peace. The Democratic administration, on the other hand, contends that negotiations of treaties is wholly the function of the executive branch and that the Senate's part is to ratify them.

With the senatorial returns still missing from Michigan, Idaho and New Mexico the figures showed that the Republicans had lost one—Senator Weeks of Massachusetts—while the Democrats lost six. Shafroth of Colorado, Secretary of Delaware, Lewis of Illinois, Thompson of Kansas, Willey of Missouri, and Hollis of New Hampshire.
