Kept Marriage a Secret Since Last June.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McKay wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Ella, to Sergt. Frank Pellegrini of Philadelphia, Pa., which took place in Raleigh on the 26th of June, 1918.

Sergt. Pellegrini has been stationed at Camp Cody, New Mexico, for some time. Owing to the fact that he was expected to be absent overseas, they decided to keep their marriage a secret until his return. Mrs. Pellegrini joined the Red Cross for the duration of the war, and was sent to Camp Meade, Maryland, but now that the war is over, she expects her discharge and will return home. Her husband will join her there upon his release from the army.
