Prayer.

Evangelist McLendon preached Tuesday afternoon on "prayer."

The preacher declared that God is not dead and that the key to Him is prayer. Prayer is worth no more, however, than you are willing to win in work. You cannot honestly pray God to save your relatives or friends and not do all in your power to get them saved.

The friendship of mankind is great, but nothing to compare with the friendship of God. Prayer helps us to realize the presence and friendship of God. It portrays our dependence upon God.

We Get By Giving.

We get by giving. Many get so little because they give so little. If one half of the church members were to die the world would not lose anything spiritually.

"I believe in experimental religion," he said. "You must be born from above. The devil is working as hard to damn Lumberton as Christ is working to save it. He never takes a vacation. If you fight the devil he will fight you. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found."

All the Way With God.

"All the Way with God." This was the subject of Evangelist McLendon's sermon Tuesday evening.

In his preliminary remarks before beginning his sermon Mr. McLendon said that those who were staying away from the meeting would support it loyally before it closes.

In beginning his sermon, the preacher declared that the man who sets out to fight God will lose. He asked, What would God say if he were to write or speak about you? God knows may fool your neighbors and they may fool your heighbors and they may fool you, but you cannot pull the wool over God's eyes. You can backslide without your family knowing it, without your pastor knowing it, but God knows it. You will be haul-ed up before God some day. God sees all you do and if you desert Him He knows it.

In closing the evangelist appealed to his audience to "go all the way with
