M'LENDON MEETING

M'LENDON MEETING CLOSSES THIS EVENING

Great Evangelistic Campaign Caused Greatest Spiritual Awakening Lumberton Has Ever Known—Despite Many Handicaps, the Campaign Was a Decided Success.

The service at 7:30 this evening will mark the close of the McLendon revival, which began here December 8, last. Mr. McLendon will not preach his sermon to men tomorrow evening, as he is wanted.

Yesterday was one of the greatest days of the campaign. The three services were attended by more than 9,000 people and hundreds made profession of faith.

The campaign has brought about the greatest spiritual awakening Lumberton has ever experienced. Around 150 persons have applied for membership in the various churches as a result of the meeting, hundreds have been reclaimed, and the spiritual life of the town and surrounding community greatly revived. While there have been many handicaps in the way of bad weather, sickness, etc., the meeting was a decided success.

Mrs. C. L. Steidler, a noted singer and personal worker, of St. Louis, Mo., arrived Friday and will be with the McLendon party in the future. Mr. McLendon announced yesterday that his next meeting would be either at Rowland or Washington, this State.

WITH ROBESON SOLDIERS.

Two Soldiers Home From France—They Saw Several Months Service at The Front.

Mr. Willie Albert Shelby, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Shelby of Lumberton, and Mr. Charlie J. Helligrin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Helligrin of the Globe Swamp section, arrived home Saturday from France. They belong to the 52nd coast artillery and after spending a 15-days furlough at home will return to Camp Eustis, Va. Both belong to the regular army. They saw several months service at the front. Mr. Shelby was in France 16 months and was in two big battles, besides some others not so great. They left a French port December 22 and landed at Newport News, Va., January 2. Neither of the young men was wounded in the fight. Mr. Shelby brought home a rifle captured from a German soldier, also a German helmet and a German gas mask.

The soldier talks most interestingly of their experiences at the front, and declare that none except those who were there can form any idea of the big light. They are of the opinion that the American soldier will soon return home from France, except the army of occupation. Mr. Shelby has a pair of shoes that still have Verdun mud on them.

Mr. Bailey Floyd, of Fairmont R. 1, arrived home Friday night from Camp Hancock, Ga., having been released from military duty.

A son of Mr. R. C. Seasons of the St. Pauls section returned home Wednesday of last week from France. He has been released from military duty.

To Members of Camp Willis H. Pope No. 1707: You are commanded to meet in the court house in Lumberton on Saturday, January 18, 1919, (Lee-Jackson day), at 11 a. m. for the election of Officers, payment of dues and duties of the camp for that day.

The ladies of the Daughters of the Confederacy will serve dinner and Mr. T. L. Johnson will make us a speech for the occasion.

All veterans of adjacent camps are invited to be with us on that day.

M. G. McKenzie, Commander
J. F. Rabon, Adj.
Lumberton, N. C., Jan. 13, 1919.

United War Work Pledges Due January 15th.

In the United War Work campaign citizens of Robeson county subscribed $15,814.02 to provide home comforts and cheer for the boys in the service on land and sea. A little over two-thirds of this was in cash and the remainder in the form of pledges, January 15th is the date for the second payment on these pledges.

The ending of active warfare has tended to increase instead of lessen the responsibilities of the seven welfare organizations that participated in the United War Work campaign. The need for the money to carry on the work for the boys is just as urgent today as in November, when the drive took place.

Attorney General Gregory Resigns
Thomas Watt Gregory, Attorney General of the United States since 1914, has resigned because of "pecuniary responsibilities" and will return to the practice of law. President Wilson has agreed to his resignation next March 4th.

J. T. Biggs Will have a Tailoring Opening January 23, 24 and 25.

PARKTON PARAGRAPHS

Death of an Infant—School Closed—Tenant House Burned—"Flu" Situation Improving—Movements of the People.

Correspondence of The Robesonian. Parkton, Jan. 16.—Elliott, 18-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Faircloth, died at their home in Rocky Mount on the night of Jan. 1st. The remains were brought to Parkton on the 2nd, accompanied by the parents and a few relatives and friends, and were taken to the home of Mr. D. M. Bunnell, father of Mrs. Faircloth. Friday at 11 a. m. interment was made at the family burying ground at Lumber Bridge. Little Elbert was only sick a few days with pneumonia. He was a beautiful babe and greatly loved by all the family.

Mr. Leon Perry left Monday for Dell school in Sampson county. The Parkton graded school was ordered closed by the board, which met last Thursday night. It is much to be regretted. While the school could not have been what was desired, yet it looks like we could have had some kind of school.

Mr. J. K. Currie unfortunately today about 11 o'clock lost a tenante house near town by fire. The house was occupied by Norman McMillan, colored. Most of his belongings were saved.

If I were to mention everybody that has moved since our last letter up our way I would occupy my allotted space, or should I mention all that have come and gone. Miss Georgia McMillan left today for the State Normal college, Greensboro.

Mrs. J. M. Johnson is in a hospital in Fayetteville for treatment. Dr. D. D. Hughes is critically ill. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Alley moved last week to Kenansville, where Mr. Alley has accepted a position as cashier of the bank of that place. We hate to part with this good family, as Mr. Alley was one of our best citizens and was employed of the A. C. L. railway here. His place in church and town will be hard to fill.

Mr. R. T. Gaitley has sold his farm in Sampson county and has moved to Parkton and will operate his large farm near town. Miss Aron, music teacher in the Parkton school, left the last of the week for her home at Ashboro. We hated to see her leave, as she was a well-qualified teacher. She will be greatly missed.

Mr. Claude Jernigan is getting along fairly well after suffering from heart trouble and complications. The "flu" situation is much improved up our way. We hear of no new cases this week.

NEWS AND COMMENT

Marriage—School Moving on Nicely—A Man Without a Peer.

Correspondence of The Robesonian. Lumberton, R. 5, Jan. 8.—Saturday, Sunday and Monday were but duplicates of the corresponding days of a year ago. The temperature was certainly low.

We are delighted to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Spivey of Salter's Depot, S. C., back in our midst. They are good people.

Mr. Allen Hayes and family of Dillon, S. C. have moved into the home formerly occupied by Mr. W. R. McDonald and family, also Mr. B. J. Allen of Dillon, S. C., has moved into the home recently vacated by Mr. Berry Mayze. It is always gratifying to have good people come among us.

The services at Cedar Grove Saturday and Sunday were well attended despite the cold. Several members were added by letter as a result of families moving into the community.

Sunday afternoon in the home of the bride, near Smyrna church, Mr. Joe B. Smith and Miss Hattie Cox were quietly married. The ceremony was performed by the writer, who is the bride's pastor. Both Mr. Smith and his excellent new bride have many friends, who join in extending best wishes and heartiest congratulations.

The public school at Cedar Grove is moving on splendidly, and we are most happy to report no sickness in the community, more than slight colds. The teachers are trying to raise 25 cents per capita for the children in the district, in order to enroll the school as a member of the Red Cross; but we are not raising our money by way of the box supper.

And now Mr. Roosevelt has gone away. He was, in many respects, a great man. He made a good president, and was the man of the hour at the time. Fortunately he was not called upon to lead the country thru any great war. He only proceeded with the unfinished tasks to which the immortal McKinley had set his hands. As to the recent great world conflict it is a cause for which the whole world should be profoundly grateful that the present incumbent is chief. He is the man without a peer. On his shoulders fell the responsibility of leading his people through the greatest war with which history knows anything. But he has been known by the greatest people of the earth. If President Wilson was a man of ambitions and selfishness he could have ruined us, but he loves the people more than he loves his power. Long live Wilson!

J. M. Fleming.

—Dr. J. P. Brown purchased last week the wholesale grocery business of E. G. Floyd & Co. at Fairmont and the business will be conducted by Dr. Brown's son, Mr. Hal Y. Brown. Mr. E. G. Floyd, who was a Lumberton visitor this morning, will go into the tobacco warehouse business with his brother Mr. D. M. Floyd at Glennville, Ga.

Picturesque Points in the Message of Gov. Bickett to the General Assembly.

The finest memorial we can build to our brave is a state that will rank as high over here as they did "over there."

The state is party to an awful crime against childhood when it permits idiots and imbeciles to perpetuate their species. Double the automobile tax. If a man feels that he is not able to pay the additional amount then let him walk and improve his health.

The right of the child to an education at the hands of the state carries with it the right of the state to compel the child to take advantage of the facilities provided.

The principle of the short ballot should be applied to all state administrative offices.

There may be more safe and sanitary county convict camps in the State, but personally I never saw one that was fit for the abode of a human being.

The primary law should be radically strengthened or repealed.

The poll tax should be strictly limited to $2. In some of our cities the poll tax ranges from $6 to $8. This is an outrageous burden on the head of the poor man.

The law should make it perjury to make a statement materially false. The law can be so framed that any person who endeavors to conceal the real value of his property will be in grave danger of going to jail in this world and to hell in the world to come.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

A Year of Prosperity—The McLendon Meeting—Personal.

Correspondence of The Robesonian. Buie, Dec. 31.—A great year of prosperity is passing out with today. This country has been greatly blessed in the past year and we should look forward to 1919 to be even a greater year, trusting in Him who doeth all things well.

I was in a store in a town during the holidays when a small boy came in and told one of the clerks that he had brought back a toy that his mother had purchased there and it was broken when she bought it. In reply the clerk told the boy that they did not take back anything and furthermore his mother should have noticed that it was broken before buying it. Therefore, the child could do nothing but turn away with a sad little heart and without any more money just for the sake of a few pennies for this large and well-known firm. The way people take advantage of some, and especially the poor, to enrich others, is a great sin.

I have had the pleasure of entertaining in my home Mr. Ray of Red Springs, Prof. and Mrs. Carroll, who are conducting the singing for Mr. McLendon at Lumberton, Mr. J. A. Stanton, Messrs. Willis and Frank Humphrey of Philadelphia; Mr. J. D. Lee of Norwood, N. C., Mr. Charlie Willis of Buie, my father, Mr. J. S. Brown, Mr. Sim Jackson of Philadelphia and my young friends and kindred, Messrs. Anthony and Bernard Redmond of Lumberton, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Redmond. Also Messrs. Robert T. Brown of Philadelphia, Walter and Peyton McMillan and George Ray. I merely mentioned the names of these in thanking them for being so kind and thoughtful as to call on me and I sincerely hope they enjoyed their visits.

One of the prettiest and best kept grave yards in this section or any other section that I know of is at Philadelphia. It is kept up by Mr. R. T. Brown.

I had the pleasure of seeing two beautiful Christmas trees Christmas. One at Mr. J. A. Stanton's belonging to little Misses Helen and Hermit Peels. The other one was at Mr. Paisly McMillan's.

Mr. McLendon is sure conducting a great revival at Lumberton and the spirit is there. No doubt many souls are being added to the Kingdom through this great man's preaching. There were thousands of people there Monday night and people should go from every section for 50 miles around and more to hear this wonderful man of God. I think I have heard that he is next to Billy Sunday while others say that he is just as good a preacher as Billy Sunday. People should not turn their backs on this golden opportunity, but should go out to hear his great messages, for it is not often, if ever before, that the people of Robeson had the opportunity of hearing preaching of this kind. I am of the opinion that we need more of this kind in our pulpits and not so much of the flowery language that some of our preachers use.

I had the pleasure of dining Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McMillan, near Philadelphia, whom I thank sincerely for the invitation.

ADD BRIEFS
W. H. M. BROWN.

—Don't let your chickens and hogs get you into trouble! Officer Bell Robeson says he hears complaint that many Lumberton people are allowing their chickens to run at large and destroy their neighbors' gardens. Also a few hogs are roaming the streets of the town. He says he is going to indict, and, not only indict, but prosecute, all offenders. Take warning.

WITH AUNT BECKY

A Quiet, But Pleasant Christmas—Concerning the Civil War—Other Matters Discussed in a Most Interesting Manner.

Correspondence of The Robesonian. Old Fork, (Maxton, R. 1), Jan. 9.—The old year, one of the most eventful in the world's history, is numbered with the past, bringing to the warring nations the precious boon of "Peace on Earth." Yet I have just been reading in today's papers, of a sanguinary battle between American troops and the Russian Bolsheviks, where in a number of our boys suffered casualties, and five of the bodies had been most brutally mutilated. I thoroughly agree with the sentiment of Senator Johnson of California, when in a speech before the Senate he protests against the further spilling of American blood on Russian soil.

The Christmas tide and holiday season passed very quietly in the Fork, with very little demonstration, and but little visiting. Though there was no lack of refreshments for the inner man, and tables were laden with abundance of Christmas fare.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hamer were made happy on that day by the presence of all, save one, if their family of 12 children; the absent one being their son Robert, who belongs to the Navy, and is now stationed at Philadelphia. However he came home on leave of absence since that time and spent some days including that of New Year.

Will and Hugh Stewart of the Aviation department, Hampton Roads, had 72 hours leave, and spent the Christmas day with home folks.

Mr. Hugh Craig of Matthews, was a holiday guest in the home of Mr. D. M. Stewart.

The "younger set" enjoyed a pleasant social entertainment on Thursday afternoon in the home of Mr. W. H. McCormick.

Miss McPhail, after suspending school for one week, resumed her duties at Oak Grove academy on Monday the 30th.

Misses Dorothy York and Gladys Hamer, students of Carolina college spent the holidays at their respective homes. Messrs. John Caddell and Coit and Elmer Whitlock enjoyed the season with home folks.

This section is so blessed, that we had none of God's poor and needy ones in our midst, and none without a good Christmas dinner.

Of course I spent the Christmas tide by my own fireside, enlivened by the multitude of sweet cards, letters and packages from friends and loved ones, breathing the spirit of the season, and reviving tender memories; among which came to me from a friend of "Auld Lang Syne," a lively burnt wood box from far off California, containing rich clusters of raisin and sun kissed figs, the delicious products of that golden land.

As we journey down the Western slopes, and the shades of the evening time begin to fall athwart our pathway, the heart grows more susceptible and responsive to "little deeds of kindness, little words of love" and the mellowness of age creates a deeper appreciation of true friends. This reminds me that if I live one more week from this day I shall have attained my 3 score years and ten, having lived thru the eventful period of two wars.

A young cousin of mine who enlisted in the Navy last March, and was recently at home called on us, and gave us some interesting details of his experience. The crew of his ship is composed of boys from North and South, and he said that frequent scraps occurred on board on account of the Yankee boys guying the "Rebels" as they term them with their illiteracy, and the "whipping the Yanks gave them during the Civil War. A few days after he returned to service, I ran across an article in the Charlotte Observer containing the following statistics authentically compiled: "The South furnished 600,000 soldiers for the Confederate armies, and 316,000 white soldiers for the federal armies. There were 186,000 negroes in the Northern armies, most of them from the South. This made a half million contenders from the Southern states, to be contended with by the Southern armies."

The North got 176,000 soldiers from Germany, 144,200 from Ireland, 45,000 from England, and 53,500 British Americans and 74,000 of other nationalities. Thus the foreigners and negroes outnumbered the Rebels by 80,000 men. The soldiers drawn from the other Northern States numbered 1,773,791, so that the total number of Federal soldiers was 2,775,000 men. "Now who was it that defeated the Rebels? European hirelings and negroes. I think I will copy above statistics, and forward to my sailor boy cousin, as an armor against assaults from his Yankee comrades. In fact we were not whipped at all, but as Robert Toombs pertinently averted, "we just wore ourselves out whipping them, and their hired allies."

Today, from our window we see passing, to a near by cemetery, the remains of an ante bellum "black mammy" Aunt Sallie Douglas, who had lived to the ripe old age of 107. She was a native of Virginia, but came to this section when quite young, and had spent her length of days in this immediate vicinity. She was one of the faithful few, who are so rapidly disappearing from life's stage, and are sadly missed.

The cold wave has struck us at last and we are closely confined by the flu. The "flu" has been all around us, but so far we have escaped, and the contagion has subsided in this vicinity, though I hear it has broken out again in the John and Hasty sections. The school at John has suspended indefinitely. Young Shaw Webb of Hasty, died from flu-pneumonia yesterday.
