MEMORIAL DAY HAS NOW ADDED SIGNIFICANCE

Commemorate Now Also Liberation of the World.

President Wilson cabled the following Memorial day message to the American people:

"My Fellow Countrymen: Memorial day wears this year an added significance and I wish if only by a message, to take part with you in its observation and in expressing the sentiments which it inevitably suggests. I observing the day we commemorate not only the reunion of our own county but also now the liberation of the world from one of the most serious dangers to which free government and the free life of men were ever exposed. We buried the gallant and now immortal men who died in this great war of liberation with a new sense of consecration. Our thoughts and purposes now are consecrated to the maintenance of the liberty of the world and of the union of its people in a single comradeship of liberty offered their lives. They came to the field of battle with the high spirit and pure heart of crusaders. We must never forget the duty that their sacrifices has laid upon us of fulfilling their hopes and their purposes to the utmost. This, it seems to me, is the impressive lesson and the inspiring mandate of the day."
"WOODROW WILSON."

BROAD RIDGE BREEZES.

Death of Mrs. Light Britt—Crops Are Looking Very Well.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Broad Ridge (Orrum, R. 1), May 27.—It seems that the people of this section have about got general green under control. Crops are looking very well. I believe Mr. James Lawson has got the best piece of tobacco of anybody in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Lawson of Long Branch spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson.

Great sadness was caused through this section Saturday about 8 p. m. when Mrs. Light Britt was called to her reward. Deceased had been seriously ill for some time and death was not unexpected. She was about 97 years old. The funeral was conducted Sunday p. m. at 4 by Rev. Mr. Corbitt of Proctorville and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground near the home. She left a great host of children and grandchildren to mourn her death. Best wishes to The Robesonian and its many readers.

U OFFICIAL REPORT OF SETTLEMENT FIUME QUESTION

Unofficial advices concerning the settlement of the Adriatic issue are to the effect that Fiume, the chief bone of contention between the Italian and the other members of the council of four, which Italy desired as her own but which President Wilson and Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau declined to concede her, is to become independent. Italy, report has it, is to obtain certain of the Dalmatian islands, but whether she is to get the seaport of Zara, and Sebenico on the Dalmatian coast, seems to be in doubt, one report declaring that she will and another that she will not.

THIS WEEK, NERVOUS MOTHER

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I was very weak, always tired, my back ached, and I felt sickly most of the time. I went to a doctor and he said I had nervous indigestion, which added to my weak condition kept me worrying most of the time—and he said if I could not stop that, I could not get well. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my husband wanted me to try it. I took it for a week and felt a little better. I kept it up for three months, and I feel fine and can eat anything now without distress or nervousness."
—Mrs. J. WORTHLINE, 2842 North Taylor St., Philadelphia Pa.

The majority of mothers nowadays overdo, there are so many demands upon their time and strength; the result is invariably a weakened, run-down, nervous condition with headaches, back-ache, irritability and depression—and soon more serious ailments develop. It is at such periods in life that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will restore a normal healthy condition, as it did to Mrs. Worthline.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Corporal Baxley Writes Ala "Uncle Walt."

To the Editor of The Robesonian:

Sitting on my bunk feeling blue. Thinking of the days gone by, 'tis true, two friends and myself with the "blues" it happened to be. Stationed in a billet that numbers twenty-three, we have a cozy corner; as cozy as can be with no earthly inhabitants except the "cooties" and they go simply wild over me.

New for the eats, let's see. For breakfast we have slum and stew, coffee and cream, very nice, 'tis true. For dinner we have stew and slum, rice that was cooked but not cooked done. For supper we have "corn Willie hash," potatoes that were cooked but never mashed.

Supper over; we go to bed, there to rest our weary heads. Our beds are like a book of law, very unpleasant as they are made of straw. On these beds, these beds of hay, restless hours are passed away.

At night when the sun has ceased to shine and our candles we have lit, we say to each other, "We are doing our bit." Now my dear reader, if you only could see these terrible walls that surround we three! These walls are of rock, tattered and torn, the pictures on the wall, nude and worn; the open fire place, broad and wide; the cobble-stone floor and no seats inside.

Well, I will stop and dream of the "life of my heart," across the sea. Yes, I will stop before I tell that being in France is learning me well. Now in silence, I want to see the grand old statue of Liberty and with patience, I'll wait all alone for the good old ship to carry me home.

When I get home and get off these pants, it's good-bye army and the same to France. There was lots of drills and hiking but our dreams all came true and we have showed the Kaiser what Americans could do.

Now as I must go to bed and sleep, I will dream of going home and of talking to some one that can "com pree". As I close for this time, I want to say that I would be glad to hear from any Robesonian reader. I am expecting to be home soon. Best wishes to The Robesonian.

ALL TROOPS OF 81ST NOW HOMEWARD BOUND

Last Contingent of "Wildcats" Sailed May 29th—Bound for Newport News.

All the troops of the 81st (Wild-Cat) division now are homeward bound. The last contingents sailed Thursday morning on the steamers von Steuben and Finistere, states a Brest dispatch of May 29th. Major General C. J. Bailey, commander of the division, is on board the former vessel.

Before sailing General Bailey was decorated with the French war cross with palm and made an officer of the legion of honor.

These two steamers are bound for Newport News.

The steamer President Grant left Brest May 28th for Boston carrying 8,000 men and officers of the service of supply.

American troops to the number of 160,000 were repatriated through the port of Brest during the month of May.

The 317th field artillery of the "Wildcat" division is due also at Newport News June 9 on the battleship South Carolina. Two casual companies are included among troops on the ship.

The Huron, due at Newport News June 7 and the Kentuckian, due at New York the same day, are bringing troops largely of the 90th division.

The Susquehanna, due at Newport News June 7, is bringing 12 convalescent detachments; headquarters and medical detachments, companies A to D; 511 engineers; headquarters company, medical detachment, companies A to F, 32nd engineers; three casual companies; 14 casual officers and base hospital No. 111.

The Federal, New York, June 9, is bringing a few casualties.

TRUE BILL RETURNED AGAINST U. S. PAGE

The following is taken from a Goldsboro dispatch of May 28th to the Greensboro Daily News:

"In Superior court here this afternoon the grand jury returned a true bill against U. S. Page, Mount Olive police chief, charged with killing the two Smith brothers in that town last January. Following the killing of the Smiths the coroner's jury, after hearing the evidence, acquitted Policeman Page. However, a warrant for the officer was later sworn out by the father of the men killed, and his bond was arranged at $5,000 at a habeas corpus hearing held before Judge W. R. Allen in Goldsboro when an effort was made to have the case reopened before Justice of the Peace E. C. Hall at Mount Olive failed. Mount Olive citizens tonight furnished $5,000 bond for Page. The case probably will be taken up Monday morning.

Chief Page is a son of Mr. E. E. Page, secretary-treasurer of the Lafayette Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Lumberton.

NOTICE

I hereby forbid anyone to hire or harbor my daughter, Ethel Whitehead, who left my home Wednesday, May 28th, without my permission. Information as to her whereabouts will be appreciated.
