THE ONLY SAFE GUARD AGAINST ANARCHY OR BOLSHEVISM

The Common People Should Be Protected Against the Land Greed of the Rich and Powerful.

To the Editor of The Robesonian:

Farming is the main original source of wealth. On the prosperity of farms the superstructure of social institutions must of necessity rest. Society has divided itself into classes according to common interests, and almost every one of these classes is well organized for the protection of its individual members. These organizations are powerful according to the financial strength of its members and correspondingly weak as money is needed.

In government, financial interests make and interpret the laws; the masses know but little of their relations to society except to submit quietly to the exacting and impoverishing burdens that financial interest forces them to bear. The powerful have always been able to protect their interests; the poor have always been ignorant, weak, and unprotected in their rights. There is no excuse for law, and no necessity for it, unless it protects the weak from the strong.

Land, water and air are three natural elements that God created and gave to man for his support and development. He made the home the sacred writ of society from which children should go out into the world trained in the things that make for civil and religious liberty. If independent homes are the pillars of Church and State, destroy these and the superstructure must fall. Today in our own country we see strong business men dispossessing small farmers and adding small tracts of land to their already too large possessions. The tenant class is rapidly increasing, and as its ranks are filled from once small and independent farmers, the stability of our institutions is in a corresponding ratio being undermined. But the land-grabber argues it is legal. His class has made it legal, because his class made and interpreted the laws; but God has made it unjust to destroy the home of childhood with their sacred possibilities. A lamb finds little or no protection in a wolf's den. Has a strong man mentally and financially, the right to take advantage of a poor and needy farmer's necessity to secure his home and then drive the unoffending mother and children into the rank of the permanent homeless?

So helpless is this class of people and so powerful is the influence of wealth that neither newspapers nor preachers dare to espouse their cause seriously and yet they know that history teaches the fact that the common people feeling secure in the possession of their country homes is the only safeguard against anarchy, or Bolshevism. The sooner labor organizations force land from the speculative markets and limits the number of acres one man may own, the sooner will our country be strengthened to meet the new conditions imposed on it by the advancing brotherhood of man.

STATE AND COUNTY COUNCIL AT UNIVERSITY NEXT MONTH

A Conference of North Carolina Officials and Public-Spirited Citizens On Questions of Absorbing Interest and Concern.

Chapel Hill, Aug. 22.—With letters going out from Governor Bickett to the county commissioners, from Dr. E. C. Brooks, Supt. of Public Instruction, to the educational forces from R. F. Beasley, Commissioner of Public Welfare, to the county welfare officers, and from Dr. W. S. Rankin of the State Board of Health, Frank Page, chairman of the Road Commission, A. J. Maxwell of the Tax Commission, to their respective clientele, urging their attendance upon the State and county council to be held at the University of North Carolina, beginning September 15th and lasting for six days, with Governor Bickett presiding, the conference is beginning to assume a State-wide significance and importance.

The Association of County Commissioners of North Carolina in session at Wrightsville Beach recently gave its hearty approval and support to this conference of North Carolina officials and public-spirited citizens upon these questions of absorbing interest and concern to the entire State in designing official delegates to attend as its representatives. More than a thousand officials have been invited while the entire conference will be open to anyone desiring to attend. Requests for reservation of quarters are already being received by the university authorities, and prospects for a large attendance are exceedingly bright.

The program is being rapidly completed and will be ready for announcement in a few days. The conference will take the form of daily successive conferences directed by the State departments of Education and Health, and the Highway, Tax, and Public Welfare commissions, together with representatives of the county commissioners and other county officers. The purpose of the conference is to unify the work of the State and county officers and boards particularly to discuss important legislation passed by the recent General Assembly in reference to schools, health, public welfare, highway construction and taxation. On the five nights of the conference distinguished speakers from other States will address the gathering.

Six thousand dollars worth of whiskey bottled in bond by a Kentucky distiller 5 years ago and shipped to Geo. Cook, Durham, in a carload of hay, was taken to Raleigh by a revenue officer Thursday night. Geo. Cook's home was found to be at Apex and he denies any knowledge of the whiskey shipped in his name.

HIS FRIENDS WERE AMAZED

Condition So Serious That Friends Thought Jones Could Not Live—Gained 32 Pounds On Tanlac.

"I have already gained thirty-two pounds by taking Tanlac and now everybody is amazed at my wonderful recovery," is the remarkable statement made recently by W. D. Jones, foreman on the feed floor at the El Paso Livestock Show.

"About eight months ago," he continued, "I was taken down with what was pronounced malaria. Then my stomach got in a terrible fix and what little I forced myself to eat seemed to form into lumps. I have gone as long as three days without eating anything but one glass of milk. I developed a frightful case of rheumatism in my arms, neck and shoulders, and though I tried everything I could hear of, I kept getting worse until I was absolutely helpless. I don't believe I slept an average of more than three hours out of twenty-four and then the sleep I got didn't rest me.

"I dropped down from one hundred and sixty pounds to one hundred and eight—just a frame of skin and bones—and had spent over two hundred dollars for treatments, but kept on-going down hill. Well, sir, a friend of mine recommended Tanlac, and after taking six bottles of it I feel like a new man. I have actually gone up to one hundred and forty pounds, and I am gaining every day. I can eat just anything I want and have a dandy appetite. Nothing hurts me anymore, and I don't know of any better way to show my appreciation for my relief than to tell others how Tanlac has helped me."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.
