

NEWS AND COMMENT.

BY AUNT SOPHIA.

Lumberton, R. 6, Nov. 22.—Rev. L. E. Dailey filled his regular appointment at Raft Swamp 1st Sunday and day before. He preached a soul-thrilling sermon on Sunday from the text, "Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me." Isaiah 6:8. At the close of the sermon he called for all who were willing to dedicate their lives to God and go to foreign fields or anywhere and do any thing that God called them to do to give him their hands. There were only two that responded to that proposition, the writer and Miss Lillian Odum. Nearly all the church responded to the next proposition, to do all they could as home missionaries. We enjoyed hearing Mr. Brown give an account of his conversion at West Lumberton 1st Sunday p. m.; also was glad to have him with us at Raft Swamp to teach a class in Sunday school and hear him testify to the saving power of the blood of Jesus on the second Sunday. Hope we can hear him again at White Pond 5th Sunday. There is nothing that gives us more pleasure than seeing young people saved from sin and bold soldiers of the cross.

Quite a large crowd of relatives and friends from far and near attended the unveiling of Mr. John Culbreth's monument Sunday p. m. The grave was completely covered with lovely flowers. Rev. Dr. Beaman of Lumberton delivered a fine consoling address for the sad occasion. Words fail us to express our sympathy, when we looked at the aged father, mother and grand mother, Mrs. Persall, and the young widow with two small sons and twin daughters and two sisters with the trace of sorrow stamped upon their brows. Thank God for his conversion at the McLendon revival and the hope we have of meeting him again "where the sun never sets and the leaves never fade, in the beautiful city of gold."

Rev. Dr. Durham will be at Raft Swamp at 4 o'clock next Sunday p. m., d. v., in the interest of the 75 million campaign. Just think of the calls for help the destitute places and thousands of souls in heathen darkness without one ray of gospel light, and how we love our old Bibles and Saviour Jesus Christ. Suppose America would sacrifice chewing gum, coca-cola, pepsi-cola, etc., snuff and tobacco, cigars and cigarettes one year, wouldn't it be an easy matter to go "over the top" in one year to say nothing of five, and have money left in the treasury? Hasn't the time come for us to give up every sinful pleasure and every useless, filthy, expensive habit and do with our might whatever our hands findeth to do? "For there is no work nor device nor knowledge nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest." Are we doers of the word, and not hearers only? Are we clean from the filth of the flesh? Are we ready to meet Jesus when He comes as a thief in the night? "Be ye also ready for in such an hour as ye think not the son of man cometh." What we do we must do quickly. "The day will soon be over, in which to work and win; many precious gems lie hidden beneath the dress of sin. Oh, let us dig and find them—God's power is enough to polish into beauty those diamonds in the rough."

Frank left Savannah, Ga., the 7th of this month for England, "in the best of health." He expected to arrive in Liverpool in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McIntyre of Rowland spent Sunday night with us.—Mrs. Tom Britt spent Monday p. m. with us.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sharpe and two children, Anna Courtney and J. A. 2nd, and Mrs. Sharpe's mother, Mrs. Courtney, called Tuesday evening.

Glad we haven't heard of any more trouble in school since the principal, Mr. Britt, was indicted for whipping a mischievous boy who fought other children and would snatch the switch from a lady teacher and give her two licks with his fist before leaving the school room; but when he tackled Mr. Britt he found out that he was not the lady teacher. Before the sunbeam leader arrived at church on Sunday p. m. he fought another boy till they fell and rolled over on the ground and was stopped by the writer. One widow lady remarked that she "could not enjoy a sermon in church on account of those small boys." Remember David mourning for Absalom and the judgment upon Eli's house because "His son were wicked and he restrained them not." Read Proverbs 19:18; 23:13-14.
