

NASTY COLDS ARE RELIEVED AT ONCE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Then Breaks up a Cold in a Few Hours.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up a severe cold and ends all gripe misery.

The very first dose opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nose running, relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, contains no quinine—Insist upon Pape's!

REMINISCENCES AND COMMENT

30 Years Ago—"Old-Time Religion" and the Old Saints—Other Matters. BY AUNT SOPHIA.

Lumberton, R. 6, Jan. 13.—Monday, Dec. 22, was 30 years since we were married in White Pond church at 11 o'clock Sunday by the pastor, Rev. D. B. Dow, who died suddenly in Lumberton about 20 years ago, and when he said "Let us pray," we kneeled before our maker and implored Divine aid to succeed in making a happy home and defeat the devil who goes about as a roaring lion seeking to devour our homes, schools and churches; and when I saw a small dining room here in an old field between Bear Swamp and Lumber river I asked "What is that little house yonder? Is it a school house?" and husband replied, "That is home." Even the grass looked poor, and I decided to see what we could do to improve the place and was glad to hear people remark, "You have a pretty place out here."

I was a delicate orphan girl 22 years old and weighed 98 pounds and we were thankful for our little home. We lived in it five years and four children were born in it. The first one, a fine boy, never lived to see the light of day. Sorrow and sadness were mingled with joy and gladness, but when we had to part with mother, father-in-law and a brother-in-law in about four months' time it seemed like our hearts would break with sorrow and sadness. But we commenced seeking "higher ground" and leaned heavily on Jesus and He sustained us and gave us grace sufficient to rejoice under the cross; and He has led us safely through troubles, trials, tribulations, persecutions and afflictions too numerous to mention, and now our 13th baby is in his 5th year and we have edibles to sell and keep. Our heart burns with love and gratitude and we praise the Lord from the rising of the sun until the going down thereof for His goodness and for His wonderful works to us.

Rev. L. E. Dailey failed to fill his appointment at Raft Swamp the 1st Sunday of December. Attorney Lenoir of Lumberton occupied the pulpit in the interest of the 75 million campaign and we were very much disappointed when we found our pastor absent. No one else can fill his place satisfactorily. And we are surprised to hear him say that "the world is growing better. Talk about 'old time religion!' Look at Abraham, with two wives, and Jacob, a deceiver. Why, they would turn their right out of Raft Swamp church if they were here today."

While comparing the "old-time religion" with the religions of today, when we have hospitals, orphanages, etc., he ought to have remembered that Abraham was the "father of the faithful," obedient in going out into a strange country not knowing whither he went, and building an altar for God everywhere he pitched his tent and obeyed God in offering up his only son Isaac. Dies, the rich man saw Abraham afar off and Lazarus in his bosom, etc. "Peace to his ashes" is all this scribe has to say about him. And Daniel spent the night in the lion's den unharmed and the Hebrew children walked through the fiery furnace without the smell of fire upon them, and Peter converted three thousand souls with one sermon. The victories of "old-time religion" are too numerous to mention. The "old-time religion" is all the genuine religion that there is and we are still singing from the depths of our heart "O give me the old-time religion, O give me the joy I can know; I believe in the old-time religion, for it saves from all sin here below." "Take heed what ye hear."

Sunday was a week was a very bitter cold day. The beautiful snow fell a while in the a. m. and after the service at church we attended two funerals. Mr. Matthew Gregory's was conducted at the grave by Rev. Mr. Murray at 2 o'clock. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

While passing Mr. Murray he gave us such a warm handclasp till we thought he must be an old friend that we failed to recognize, but that is the way the Presbyterians make strangers of other denominations feel at home among them. We hope that will not be the last time we'll hear him preach.

Cousin David Townsend's funeral was conducted at the grave by his pastor, Rev. L. E. Dailey, at 3:30. Mr. J. C. Baxley laid a large bouquet of beautiful ferns on his grave. The writer gave him flowers while he could appreciate them, but the bitter cold caused us to neglect taking any along to put on his grave. All he regretted was not letting Jesus come into his heart sooner, when he could travel about and testify for Jesus. He said "if the Lord would heal him he would spend all his life traveling and testifying. He sent word to his Sunday school class for them to "give their hearts to Jesus and not wait so long and have to regret it like he had done." But we are glad he was saved before it was forever too late.

May God hasten the day when all the Baptists will be filled with holy zeal to win souls for Jesus like they have been for dollars, till even the lawyers will go out into the highways and hedges on a cold December day and compel them to come that His house may be filled. Just think about how much one soul is worth. And when you are tried and tempted by the scoffers' keen rebuff, don't you turn away in anger, he's a diamond in the rough.

Cousin William Odum who is a student of Wake Forest college, called Wednesday was a week.

We appreciate a calendar from the Pilgrim's mission at Benares, Indian, also a long letter and the missionaries' pictures, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Norton. A natives' picture of India is on the calendar.

Am so glad we can live at home and exert an influence among the heathen nations. Another beautiful calendar just received from Norfolk, Va.

Brother farmer, remember what Rev. Paul T. Britt told you, that "July and August is not the time to decide against the tobacco, but December is the time," and plant something that will benefit man or beast before your wives kill themselves working in the poisonous weed. This scribe has put out paris green till I could spit it from my mouth and blow it from my nostrils, and I do utterly hate it. But this is Bible: "Wives, obey your husbands," and what should the husbands do: "Love his wife as the weaker vessel." And no man loves his wife like he ought to do if he allows her to work in a tobacco patch, and a wife is not to blame much if she does hit her husband with a rake after he has hit her heel with a rake, like we heard of one doing last summer. Tobacco is a filthy, useless weed, for you know and I know and everybody knows 'tis something that the people don't need. May Omnipotent God blight the weed and the seed.

When brother Alfred moved to Florida he left his fine blooded colt for us and Maud will follow us without a halter. We enjoy seeing her run and play in the rye pasture. Brother J. J. Page gave us a Poland China pig and we certainly do appreciate presents. We never did enjoy being at White Pond more in our lives than we did Sunday 28th. Was glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Danford of Bolivia who was visiting Mrs. Danford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Page. Also glad to see Miss Lillian Page and hear her sing and play the piano. She had just returned home from Horry county, where she had spent some time visiting relatives. Miss Valley Page is visiting relatives in Florida.

Did you ever hear a preacher say he "didn't believe in too much religion?" Why nobody can't believe in too much genuine "old-time religion" like St. Paul was martyred for. May we be filled with all the fullness of God and abound unto every good word and work.

WOMEN AND THE INCOME TAX.

Women Who Had Incomes During 1919 Are Reminded That They Are Subject to All Provisions of the Federal Income Tax.

Women who had incomes during 1919 are reminded by Collector of Internal Revenue J. W. Bailey, that they are subject to all of the provisions of the Federal income tax. Many thousands of women file returns and pay taxes regularly, and there are new names added to this list each year. The high wages and salaries received by women last year will perhaps double the number of the fair sex who are required to file returns.

A public school teacher, or other city, town, county and State employee, is not taxed on her salary wages, but must file a return if her taxable income from other sources was sufficient in amount to come within the law's definitions.

An unmarried woman, a widow, or a married woman who is living apart from her husband, must file an Income Tax return if her net income for 1919 was $1,000 or over.

She is entitled to an exemption on the first $1,000 of her income. If she is the head of a family, as defined in the income tax regulations, she may claim $1,000 additional exemption. Also, she may claim further exemption of $200 for each person for whom she is the chief support, if the dependent is under 18 or is mentally or physically defective.

A married woman who has an income from a separate source, but her husband is entitled to file a separate return with respect to that income. Ordinarily a husband and wife file one joint return, including the income of both. But if the husband does not include his wife's income, the wife is required to file her own return. Separate returns of husband and wife are required if either had a net income exceeding $5,000.

A married woman who lives with her husband is not allowed a prescribed exemption. She and her husband have $2,000 plus $200 additional for each dependent; and this exemption may be taken by either or divided in any manner between them.

A woman who was widowed during 1919 may claim exemption for the full year, on the basis of her status as of December 31.

A wife whose husband is in a sanitarium or temporarily working in another city, is separated from him only through necessity, and should not consider her status as "living apart" from her husband. But if there is voluntary continuous separation, whether or not granted by court decree, each must take the status of a single person with respect to the income tax.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught, Relief From Head-ache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Thedford's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regularly until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit. If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Thedford's, the original and genuine. #19

Farming With A FORDSON Tractor

The Farmer is aware that the day of hand labor has gone. It is too slow and it is too expensive. In these days when labor is called from the farm to every other occupation the farmer must have something that will stay with him, and something fast enough to get over the ground.

This is The Day of Machinery

THE Fordson TRADE MARK

It is the day of the tractor for plowing, hauling, clearing land, building road, doing any of the jobs around the place that require moving, and up near Laurinburg a man has two gins connected up to his Fordson tractor, and when it is not plowing it is running the machinery.

It goes without much talk that you must come to the tractor before long. Every day you put off making the deal you are losing time. You want the machine at work right now to get your ground ready for your crop.

You can have no hesitation about the tractor. It will be a Fordson. If not now, then later when you have tried another one and seen where the Fordson is the pick of all of them.

Always remember this about the Fordson tractor and the Ford service whether cars, tractors or trucks. The Ford service station is in Lumberton to see that every thing goes right. Any day you can call the Ford man and have the tangles straightened out, the repairs made, or information be given.

The Page Ford station keeps men on the job who are specialists. W. A. Griffin is the Fordson tractor man, and he pays no attention to anything but Fordsons and their attendant equipment, plows, harrows, cultivators, etc., and he is always ready to attend to them. That is one important reason why the Fordson is the only tractor you need to consider. It is the one that always has an expert in call, and one who is an expert, not simply a salesman with a hundred other jobs on his hands.

Mr. Griffin is already beginning to sprinkle Fordson tractors around through Robeson county, and he is glad to have you come over to a neighbor's any place where he is showing how one works. He is in and out at his office in the H. A. Page, Jr., building, the Ford service station, and you can always call him there or make an appointment.

Drop in any time and see the Fordson tractor. Ford cars and trucks are also on hand. See the tractor, and Mr. Griffin will arrange to take one out to your farm and show you just how it will save you work, and do your work for much less cost.
