EDGAR IVEY. In the 33rd year of his age the soul of our brother and friend Edgar Ivey was called back to the God who gave it. He was stricken with influenza, developing into pneumonia, and from the beginning of his illness it seemed that there was no hope for his recovery. He realized that death was near and expressed his being willing and prepared to go. His dying message to the loved ones and friends left behind was that they be prepared to meet him in that home where final separation never comes. He will be sorely missed in the home, in Baltimore Baptist church, of which he was a member, in Sunday school, as he was the faithful leader in the choir. But God makes no mistakes and some day, sometime, we'll understand. "Be still, sad heart, and cense re- pinning. For behind the cloud, the sun is still shining." A FRIEND.
