RE-CU-M-A For BOWELS, LIVER & KIDNEYS

YOUR FRIEND

I am your friend. Come to me when emergency calls, though you have a thousand friends, for I am certain. I encourage efforts, protect possessions, I develop safe judgment by disclosing the value of conservative thought, the reward of conservative action. I teach thrift and thereby enrich. Through habits of thrift I cultivate other careful habits and discourage careless ones. Thus do I mold character and among your fellows, improve your estimate and understanding. I look far ahead. I secure you from the humiliation of dependency. In the sunset of your years when your energies have earned their period of repose, I continue to be your friend—your assuring friend. When you have put aside your labors, you may still rely upon me. When your mind has secured its opportunity to unrestrictedly indulge retrospect, profound thought, and sublime reflection, I shall stand ready to surround you in comfort with the atmosphere of peace, the happiness of ease, and the things you will at such a time most desire to be surrounded with. I prepare and provide the way—your all-time friend.

CHURCH NOTES.

There will be services at the Catholic church next Sunday at 9 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Theodore Partrick, Jr., pastor of Trinity Episcopal church of Lumberton, has been elected managing editor of the Mission Herald, the church paper of the Diocese of Eastern North Carolina. The paper is published at Greensboro, but will be published here after January 1, next. Mr. Partrick was formerly editor of the Sampson Democrat and has had considerable experience in newspaper work.

Rev. Dr. C. H. Durham, pastor of the First Baptist church, will not fill his regular appointment Sunday as he will leave in the next day or two for Raleigh, where he goes to fill a business appointment, and will also visit relatives at Hendersonville and Gastonia before returning home. He will be away a week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Stone and four children of Mt. Elm passed through town yesterday en route to Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. R. L. Leggett of R. 3, Lumberton, is in town today. Mrs. A. J. Smith and small son, A. J. Jr., went Sunday to Goldsboro, where they will spend a week visiting friends.
