

Thanksgiving Specials

THANKSGIVING: To give thanks in earnest is a beautiful thing to do. But to give it, and in return we do nothing for which to be thankful, is the highest form of hypocrisy. That is something which we strive always to avoid. Sometimes there are occasions when one's patience is worn to a thread. But in things of this sort which makes for betterment and for our part, we are glad of it. Notwithstanding the many obstacles we have had to surmount since last Thanksgiving, our business has grown; the confidence the public has in this store and its personnel has increased. For these and other things we are truly thankful, and cordially invite you to note our spirit of thankfulness for the liberal patronage accorded this store in the extremely low prices we quote on the few items listed, which are significant of the many bargains our store has to offer for Thanksgiving week. Be quick and you will be Thankful.
