

Why Women Suffer

Many Lumberton Women are Learning the Cause. Backache, headache, dizziness, nervousness. Women often suffer, not knowing the cause. Irregular urinary passages weakness, languor— Each a torture of itself. Together hint at weakened kidneys. Strike at the root—get to the cause. No other remedy more highly endorsed than Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor? Recommended by thousands— Endorsed at home. Here's convincing testimony from a Lumberton citizen. Mrs. L. R. Brece, Fourth St., and Walnut, says: "Several years ago I began to suffer with severe pains in my back and was in constant misery and always felt tired and run down. If I would stoop over sharp twinges would shoot through me and I could hardly straighten. Often black specks came before my eyes and mornings I was lame and sore and could hardly go. My ankles swelled, and my kidneys were all out of order. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a supply at McMillan's Drug Store. I only used a few when I felt a great deal better. Continued use entirely relieved me of this complaint." Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Brece had. TEN MILE AND BARKER NEWS

New Dwelling—Roads in Bad Shape—New School Building is Almost Completed—Personal and Other Items. Correspondence of The Robesonian. Ten Mile, Jan. 18.—The people in this section are beginning to get ready for a new crop. They are busy cutting the stalks and getting the ground ready. Rev. Frank Hare filled his regular appointment here Sunday p. m. He preached a good sermon, as he always does. We are sorry to say Mrs. H. H. Stanley is still in the Thompson hospital. We sincerely hope and trust that she will soon be able to return home. Miss Katie Britt of Lumberton spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Florence Britt, at Ten Mile. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Britt have moved into their new dwelling, which is very pretty. The roads in this section are getting pretty bad; all the cars seem to stick. Some pull out, some are pulled out, and some have to get buggies in order to get the occupants home. The Ten Mile and Barker school seems to be progressing nicely and the attendance seems to continue to grow, there are over 100 on roll. The new school building is almost completed and the school expects to be in it in a week or two. Miss Jacky and Harriett Legette of Fairmont are spending a while at the home of Mr. H. H. Stanley. Prof. D. B. Oliver spent Saturday in Lumberton. The Ten Mile Sunday school cordially invites all the church members and everybody else to Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Misses Fannie and Annie Lee Humphrey and Maretha Hayes of Saddle Tree spent Sunday at Ten Mile. Mr. W. M. Townsend of St. Pauls spent Sunday with his brother Mr. Charles Townsend.

"Handbook and Guide to Hell" Zion, Ill., Jan. 15.—Residents of Zion were given new light on the terrors of the infernal regions today when Overseer Wilbur Glenn Voliva issued advance sheets on a "handbook and guide to Hell" based on what he termed Hellgrams he said he had recently received.

"Every sinner is going to be punished with an over-dose of his own sin," Voliva declared. "A tobacco smoker will be locked up in a den full of tobacco smoke. A chewer of the filthy weed will be immersed in his neck in a vat of tobacco juice. A drinker will pass his own term of purification in a natatorium filled with beer, wine and whiskey."

John Casey, foreman at the New Bern iron works, and a veteran of the World war, was drowned Wednesday in the Trent river, when he jumped overboard from a sinking boat in which he and his brother-in-law, Harold Willis, were attempting to cross the river.

EDMUND BIGHAM CHARGED WITH MURDER OF FIVE PEOPLE

Coroner Orders Son and Brother Held in Connection With Killing Family. Florence, S. C., Jan. 20.—Edmund Bigham, brother of L. S. Bigham, who was supposed to have killed his mother, his sister, Mrs. Marjorie Black and two adopted children and then committed suicide at Pamplico, near here last Saturday, was arrested this afternoon on orders from Coroner Smith who has been conducting an investigation of the tragedy. Several negroes will be arrested and held as material witnesses, it was learned tonight from the coroner.

Bigham was arrested on the strength of a warrant sworn out by John W. McCracken, father of the two little children, Leo and John McCracken, who were killed, and who had been adopted by Mrs. Black. An affidavit by Philip H. Arrowsmith, an attorney of Florence, also declared that Edmund Bigham had threatened the life of Mrs. Black when she had attempted to recover possession of three signed blank deeds which had been taken from L. S. Bigham by his brother.

In his affidavit, Mr. Arrowsmith asserted Mrs. Black came to him on January 8 and requested him to draw a will for her, charging that Edmund Bigham had threatened her life. The affidavit also stated that Mrs. Black told him she had given to L. S. Bigham three signed blank deeds; that Edmund had taken these papers from his brother and when she attempted to regain possession of them, Edmund had threatened her life. Edmund had conveyed his interest to his mother and brother, it was stated.

Arrowsmith declared he drew the will in accordance with instructions placing in it the reason why Mrs. Black wanted to leave her property to L. S. Bigham. The will has been found, according to authorities.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

Rowland—An event of much interest to their many friends in this and other States was the reception given by the Reverend and Mrs. William Calhoun Merritt on Thursday evening, December 30, 1920, celebrating the 25th anniversary of their marriage. The paragonage was made attractive with evergreens and myriads of candles shot their glow on an already happy occasion. The guests were met at the door by Dr. and Mrs. J. McNeill Smith, who ushered them into the parlor where Mr. and Mrs. Merritt were assisted in receiving by their children, Miss Julia Merritt, Miss Ruth Merritt, Mr. Woodley Merritt and Miss Ethel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was handsomely gowned in silver cloth and lace, while the Misses Merritt were charming in pink and satin frocks.

The guests then passed into the hall where the punch table was presided over by Mrs. Thomas J. Graham and Mrs. J. Brown Bullock. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Ward received in the dining room where a delicious salad course, coffee and mints were served by Misses Julia Graham, Beulah Williams, Sarah Pharr and Julia Pate assisted by Mrs. Bernard A. Edens. Mrs. T. W. Carmichael poured coffee. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Watson were in the gift room where many beautiful and handsome presents attested the popularity of the couple and the high esteem and deep affection in which Mr. and Mrs. Merritt are held not only in Rowland but in the many places they have lived. The Guest Book" was kept by Mrs. Ernest J. Barker, in which, numbers congratulatory who had called to extend congratulations and best wishes.

HOME

(Sent by H. R. Church.) Home's not merely four square walls, Though with pictures hung and gilded, Home is where affection calls, Filled with shrines the heart has builded. What is home with none to meet, None to welcome, none to greet us? Home is sweet and only sweet where There's one who loves to meet us.

Forty-four North Carolina post-mastership nominations were included in a list of approximately 1,500 nominations sent to the Senate last week by the President. The only Robeson county office included in the list was Parkton, Collier Cobb. Like an even larger list sent to the Senate last December, these no doubt will fail of confirmation at the present session.

SOUTH IS TURNING AGAINST CALOMEL

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tonic" Man, Responsible for Change for the Better.

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tonic is taking its place. "Calomel is dangerous and people know it." Dodson's Liver Tonic is personally guaranteed by every druggist, who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back. Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.

Once in Awhile Your Blood Clogs and Your Vitality Runs Down THEN TAKE PEPTO-MANGAN

You'll Pick Up Again Quickly with Plenty of Red Blood Corpuscles. Physicians nowadays take a blood test when you are run down. They count the red corpuscles in your blood. If these are too few they give you a tonic for your blood. It happens right along. They are always on the lookout for indications of weak blood.

Why? Because they know when your blood is weak your resistance to disease is low. Your vitality and energy quickly run down. You can tell when your blood is weak. You look pale feel tired. You are not ill, but you don't feel right. You don't want to do things. That is the time to take the well-known tonic, Pepto-Mangan.

Pepto-Mangan builds red blood corpuscles. Physicians have prescribed it for thirty years. Pepto-Mangan is sold in liquid and tablet form. The medicinal value is exactly the same. Take either kind you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan — "Gude's". The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" should be on the package. Adv.

8,000 Miles Long Ways to go But South African Had to Find Tar Heel College.

It's a long ways to go but fully worth it, according to Victor F. O. Oliver, of Kalkspruit, Transvaal South Africa, who recently showed up in Raleigh with a desire to enter the North Carolina State College of Agriculture.

Certainly, 8,000 miles is a long ways to travel to get into a first class college but Oliver, typical Boer that he is, didn't bother about distance. He started in the general direction of Raleigh and kept traveling. He has entered the senior class and will specialize in the production and handling of cotton and tobacco. His father owns a big farm in South Africa.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Officers Avert Lynching.

Raleigh News and Observer, Jan. 19: A lynching at Warsaw was narrowly averted last night when following the arrest of Alfred Bennett, negro, charged with the murder of Lewis E. Ramey, merchant of Clinton, Saturday night, officers were forced to make a quick getaway from Warsaw with their prisoner, barely escaped pursuers at Bowden station four miles from Warsaw, and finally early this morning landed their man safely in the State prison.
