from Revelation 15: 1-3. The song of Moses is, "Great and are all Thy ways." Moses sings about the works of God and the Lamb of the ways of God.

They will all be on a glassy sea. When God gave Moses a view of creation it was a panorama. The "higher critics" think Moses wrote Genesis from tradition, but it was by direct infallible revelation. John saw a large number of former Wake panorama of the closing days of this age as Moses saw the first days. This is why Moses sang of the works of God. When we all get on that glassy sea we will see all the worlds with opportunities now opening up to the our glorified eyes and will see God's glory and beauty. Truly we will sing need of a thorough organization of with Moses, "Great and marvelous are Thy works." Moses will strike his harp and we all will unite with him and sing, and then the Lamb will come in and sing, "Just and true are Thy ways."
