To Our Farmer Friends

Storing cotton last fall to those who sold when the price was low, proved very unprofitable, but it is the opinion of not only ourselves, but the most competent cotton people that of all years to hold your cotton this is the one. We are now operating the Big Banner Warehouse under the State and Federal Systems, our receipts are recognized by the Federal Reserve Bank and are backed by the State of North Carolina which makes it negotiable. Our rates are reduced from what they were last year and we shall be glad to have you bring us your cotton.
