Baccalaureate Sermon.

The need of courage to meet the problems of life was the theme of the baccalagreate sermon preached by Rev. R. A. White, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Mooresville, to the graduating class in the Presbyterian church last evening. The large auditorium was filled to overflowing and many found seats in the balcony. The sermon was a masterpiece delivered as a heart-to-heart talk.

"Moral Courage," was the subject of the discourse and the text was, "Have I not commanded thee? Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whither-soever thou goest"-Joshua 1:9. The scripture lesson was read by Dr. R. C. Beaman, pastor of Chestnut Street Methodist church, who read the entire chapter from which the text was selected.
