Carson Lowry Killed By Shot Fired Through Window

Brittain Locklear in Jail Charged With Firing Fatal Shot at Home of Nora Locklear Near Old Prospect Church—Utley Locklear, Father of Brittain, Held as Accessory to the Murder. Carson Lowry, Indian, was shot and killed at the home of Nora Locklear, near Old Prospect church, Smiths township, about 8:30 o'clock Monday night. Brittain Locklear is in jail charged with firing the shot, while Utley Locklear, Brittain's father, is held as an accessory to the killing. The shot that killed Lowry was fired through a window of the Nora Locklear home. The load from a shotgun entered the back of Lowry's head and death resulted instantly, his brain being shot out. The two Locklears were arrested Monday night soon after Lowry was killed by Deputy A. H. Prevatt and Rural Policemen A. R. Pittman and W. W. Smith and placed in jail here. According to the evidence brought out at the inquest, there had been some trouble between Lowry and the two men arrested before the killing. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that Lowry came to his death from gunshot wounds, the gun being in the hands of Brittain Locklear. The jury also ordered that Utley Locklear be held as an accessory to the killing of Lowry. The inquest was conducted by Mr. D. W. Biggs, who was nominated for county coroner in the primary Saturday. The jury was composed of Messrs. W. M. Freeman, Richard Kinlaw, J. H. Harris, C. H. Moore, S. S. Small and E. S. McNeill. Utley Locklear was released yesterday under a $1,500 bond. Brittain Locklear will be held without bail.

Jenkins Will Not Ask For Primary

Voluntary Retirement of Fairmont Man Leaves McKinnon Nominee for House With Cobb—Mr. Jenkins Does Not Want to Put County to Expense of Second Primary. Mr. N. W. Jenkins of Fairmont, who stood third highest in the vote cast in the primary last Saturday for lower house of the Legislature, will not ask for a second primary, which gives the nomination to Mr. D. P. McKinnon of Rowland, who stood second in the total number of votes. Mr. Collier Cobb of Parkton, as stated in Monday's Robesonian, was nominated for the house in the primary. In advising The Robesonian of his decision not to ask for a second primary, Mr. Jenkins writes that while he appreciates what his friends have done and would do for him, he does not feel that it would be right to ask for second primary, as it would be too much expense to the county, and he does not care to do so for the further reason that his business demands his attention. The vote for candidates for the house was Cobb, 3,863; McKinnon, 3,379; Jenkins, 2,443; Townsend, 1,874; Page, 1,543. Official totals of the vote cast in Robeson for other candidates follow: For sheriff—Lewis, 3,769; McMillan, 3,493—Lewis' majority, 276. Coroner—Biggs, 4,527; Glover, 1,843—Biggs' majority, 2,684. Clerk of Court—Skipper, 3,610; Humphrey, 2,341; Jenrette, 1,093—Skipper's majority, 176. Solicitor—McNeill, 4,379; Carpenter, 1,717; Smith, 715. Judge—Sinclair, 3,905; Cook, 2,941. Corporation Commissioner—Lee, 4,558; Avery, 1,736.

Parkton Letter

Some Election Celebrators Come to Grief—Too Much Reckless Driving—Small Grain Damaged by Rains—New Postmaster Takes Charge—Personal. By C. D. Williamson. Parkton, June 6.—Rev. C. R. Sorrell has moved into the new Baptist parsonage. The building has just been completed, a nice brick bungalow, with modern equipment, located just in rear of the Baptist church. Mr. T. B. McNeill and family now occupies the residence vacated by Mr. Sorrell. Rev. R. F. Munns left today for Durham, and will be away a couple of weeks attending the summer school for preachers. His family stopped over in Raleigh, where they will visit relatives during the two weeks' vacation. Our town was largely represented at St. Pauls today, attending the Christian Endeavor convention which met there today and tonight. St. Pauls royally entertained the visitors, also the program was most interesting. Splendid game of ball this afternoon, Parkton and St. Pauls. We hear that St. Pauls won; score 5 to 6. The election went off very quietly here Saturday. It was managed very satisfactorily and on the square. Our town furnished one candidate in the person of Mr. Collier Cobb, and his election was quite satisfactory to his many friends. Of course there were more candidates from our town but they were for minor offices. We will always remember the quiet manner in which our town and community, conducted themselves on election day, while we were somewhat disturbed late hours Saturday night by some young folks from one of our sister towns yelling for their favorite. They really tried to disturb every person in town and I guess they pretty well succeeded. On Sunday evening we were advised some of the same youngsters were in our town and on their way home a short distance from town, running their Ford at a high speed, collided with a larger car of Mr. D. B. Lancaster of St. Pauls, damaging the large car somewhat while the Ford turned turtle, looping the loop, spilling the driver also rebounding the other two passengers of their seat. The driver and all were somewhat bruised up, but not seriously hurt, but were given a mighty close call and should serve as a warning to these young men not to appear on the public highway in such condition any more. It is never our intention to expose any young people when they are overtaken in a fault, but there is too much of this reckless driving on the public highway. Both cars were repaired and taken to St. Pauls late Sunday afternoon. Mr. Boyd Stubbs spent Sunday with relatives at Johns Station. The recent heavy rains have put small grain in an awful bad shape up our way and badly damaged. Our new postmaster, Mr. A. A. McDonald, took over the office today and has entered upon his duties as acting p. m. and will be at the same location for a few days. Helen Marie McNeill of Lumberton is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Williamson. 3 Stills and 4 Men. Rural Policeman W. W. Smith of Maxton brought to Lumberton Monday two copper stills and one lard tub still, all of which he captured last month. He arrested four men in connection with the stills. —Mr. Collier Cobb, who was nominated for the lower house of the Legislature in the primary Saturday, checked out Monday as postmaster at Parkton, being succeeded by Mr. A. A. McDonald. Mr. Cobb held the office 8 years and it was advanced from 4th to 3rd class a year ago last January. —At the closing session yesterday in Raleigh of the North Carolina Optometrical society it was decided to ask Governor Morrison to appoint to the State board of optometric examiners one of three members of the society, Dr. W. W. Parker of Lumberton heading the list. The other two live in Raleigh and Winston-Salem, respectively.

St. Pauls News Letter

C. E. Convention—Newspaper Started—Death of Little Lois Cox and Mrs. T. E. Riddle—A Surprise Marriage—Personal Mention. By Bess G. Johnson. St. Pauls, June 6.—We have been having quite a rainy season to greet us this "first of sweet June," but perhaps the sun will soon be shining, and "all will be well" once more. Today is the day of the county C. E. convention here. They were expected about 300 here today, if not more. The heavy rains may make it impossible for some to get here, however. St. Pauls can "boast" of a town paper at last the first issue coming out on last Friday, the 2nd; editor, J. B. Benton, assisted by Mr. A. L. Goodrich, managing editor. They came here highly recommended and we hope will make a good thing of it. The paper will be called The St. Pauls Review, at the rates of $1.50 per year. We heard some weeks ago we were on the verge of having a paper here, but thought we'd wait until was a "sure enough" thing, ere we gave the "alarm." The Davidson boys got in on last Thursday, viz., Messrs. Lee McLean, Alex. Guiton, Heck McRainey, son of Mr. J. D. Dawson Northrop and Mr. Francis Northrop going on to Lake View to play in the orchestra this summer, as was mentioned in our last week's letter. Mr. Northrop plays piano and is splendid at the "business." St. Pauls can "boast" of 2 more in the masculine line who are noted musicians, Messrs. P. R. Lowry and Max H. Schubert residents of our little town. Mr. Lowry is fine on piano, while Mr. Schubert is a violinist of "some note." Mr. Malloy Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis, also a student of Davidson, arrived in St. Pauls last evening. Mr. Davis stopped over in Winston-Salem on his way to visit his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Montague of that town. Mrs. Montague and little daughter, Nita, came home with Mr. Davis yesterday, and will be guests in the Davis home a while. The Flora Macdonald girls have also arrived in St. Pauls, Misses Flora Belle McGooagan and Gola Willoughby of near St. Pauls, also Miss Murphy Hall, who is making a specialty of music. Misses Nonie Johnson and Sarah McDuffie are expected in the a. m. Miss Johnson has been principal of the Joyner school, out from Greenville. Her school came to a finis some days ago, but she stopped over in Greenville to attend the commencement at East Carolina Teachers college. Miss McDuffie has been a student at this institution, having graduated in the training school there this session. Mrs. Coy Roberson and Annie Louise Fisher of Tar Heel were in town a while Tuesday afternoon, the 30th. Miss Alice Shaw arrived home from Fayetteville on Wednesday p. m. the 31st, after spending some 2 weeks in the McEachern home, Mrs. Archie A. McEachern accompanying her home for a few days' visit. Messrs. A. R. McEachern and W. D. Johnson went up to Fayetteville for them.—Rev. McLean McGeachy and family of Whiteville came over Thursday and spent till Saturday with relatives here. Mr. McGeachy and family were all looking well and seem to like it at Whiteville. Mr. McGeachy is pastor of a Presbyterian church in Whiteville, also at Chadbourne and some other places. Little Lois Cox, 16 months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cox, died last Friday a. m. following an attack of pneumonia. It first became a victim of whooping cough then first one thing and another until pneumonia finally set in which removed it from earth unto glory. The funeral service and burial took place last Saturday at 11 a. m. at the new cemetery near town. Lois was a sweet little "flower," and the pet of the family. Mr. Cox is our depot agent here and resides on Armfield street. They have our deepest sympathy. One other little daughter, some older, is left. Mrs. T. E. Riddle, near Bladen-Union, died suddenly last Friday a. m. about noon. She was in the St. Pauls dry goods store which is managed by Mrs. Ida Holland of our town, when death struck her. She leaves a husband and 3 children, one an infant of 7 months. Mrs. Richard Rivers is ill in bed with rheumatism. We hope she will soon prove convalescent. Our mother is also suffering with something like neuralgia or "rheumatics" again this week, perhaps when all this rainy weather ceases, "all will be well" once again. Here's hoping. Misses Jessie Allen and Georgia Lee Howard, the latter a daughter of Mr. Carl Howard, are home from Meredith college.—Rev. McLean McGeachy and family and Miss Margaret McGeachy were invited over to Fayetteville for dinner in the McEachern home on last Friday.—Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McEachern and sons, Messrs. D. S. and D. C., spent Sunday afternoon in Lumberton with Mrs. D. S. McEachern and little William Alexander. We are all anxious to get a peep at the "little rascal". Mr. Lacy McRainey and Miss

If the author will come forward and claim his work all will be forgiven. —It's a clock wonder, and can be seen at the First National Bank of Lumberton. This clock is composed of hands, a magnetic compass and dial and is void of "works". However, it keeps accurate time. The hands of this clock are moved by the revolution of the earth. In other words, the movements of the earth make the clock "go". When you look it over you'll admit it's a curious time-keeper. —From today's Wilmington Star: A banquet will be given tonight by the Berean and Business Men's Bible classes of the First Baptist church on the roof of the annex of the new Sunday school building. Election Board Will Hear Complaints About Vote for Recorder in St. Pauls District and Road Supervisor in Rennett—Only Request for Second Primary So Far is From Rowland Recorder District—If There is Second Primary It Will Be Held July 1. Protests of the count of the vote in Rennett and St. Pauls township for recorder of St. Pauls district and in Rennett township for road supervisor in the primary last Saturday have been filed with the county board of elections, which is asked to re-count the votes, which will be done if tickets are furnished the board. The former protest was signed by Jno. S. Butler, who was defeated for recorder by Marcus Smith by a few votes, according to the returns, and D. B. Lancaster and Carey Powers. The latter was filed by Lacy McNair. A hearing in re these protests will be given by the board at an early date, though the exact date of the hearing has not been named. Owing to incomplete returns from some of the townships, the election board has been unable to tabulate the vote for township and district officers. The vote for solicitor in Fairmont township published elsewhere in today's paper is incomplete. The official vote for solicitor in that township was: McNeill, 352; Carpenter, 57; Smith, 72. In case of a second primary it will be held July 1, instead of June 24, as first announced. Only one request for a second primary has yet been filed with Mr. Frank Gough, chairman of the county board of elections, this being for recorder of the Rowland district. Requests for second primary must be filed in writing with Mr. Gough by Monday of next week.

MUCH DAMAGE BY HEAVY RAINS

Roads and Bridges Suffered Greatest Damage—Fairmont Townships Heaviest Loser—Several Bridges Washed Away—Crops Also Damaged Considerably, Especially Tobacco. Much damage was done to roads and bridges in Robeson county by the heavy rains Sunday and Sunday night. The worst damage reported was in Fairmont township, where the damage to roads and bridges together will total several thousand dollars, according to Mr. J. I. Townsend, county superintendent of roads. Several bridges spanning Ashpole and Old Field swamps in the southern part of the county were washed away. Dams across these swamps were also badly washed out. It is apparent that crops in the county were damaged considerably. The tobacco crop, much of which wilted as a result of the rain, perhaps suffered the greatest damage.

Chautauqua Has Given Fine Program

Closes With Concert and Lecture This Evening—All the Numbers High Class and Enjoyed by Large Audiences. The 5-day Redpath Chautauqua which began last Saturday will close this evening with a concert by the Kublick company and a lecture by Dr. H. A. Adrian on "The Wonders of Burbank." This afternoon at 4:30 there will be a popular concert by the Kublick company and Bernice Van. All the attractions offered, twice each day since the beginning and three mornings for children especially, have been of a uniformly high order and have been a source of pleasure and profit to those who have attended. The largest audience that has so far attended was delighted with "Friendly Enemies," the play presented last evening. Many consider that the lectures of Dr. Ott and Mr. Flowers alone were worth the price of a season ticket. No doubt the concert and lecture this evening will be equal to anything so far presented. The guarantors will have to make good a deficit of about $350. This is smaller than any deficit the guarantors have had to meet heretofore, and no doubt the Chautauqua will be engaged for another season.

Cook Lead Sinclair in Home County—Pledges Support to Winner.

In Monday's Robesonian the vote of Cumberland was given wrong for the candidates for judge of this district. The reporter had the vote right but it got transposed. The home county of both the candidates gave Cook 2022 and Sinclair 1594. Mr. Cook expresses great appreciation for the nearly 3,000 votes he received in Robeson and for the big vote the district gave him for the high office of judge. He writes The Robesonian that Mr. Sinclair will receive his heartiest support and that he has extended to him his cordial congratulations. Recorder's Court. J. A. Love was found guilty of forcible trespass by Recorder David H. Fuller Tuesday and fined $5 and cost. Love gave notice of appeal and made bond in the sum of $200. This is the only case heard in recorder's court here this week. Mrs. R. C. Beaman went yesterday to Henderson, where she will spend some time with relatives.
