Blue Embezzlement Case Compromised

Bank of Fairmont Official Goes Free Upon Agreement That Misappropriated Funds Are to be Refunded—Brittish Locklear Murder Trial Set for Tomorrow—Many Cases Through the Mill.

Robeson Superior court for the trial of criminal cases convenes Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. with Judge W. M. Bond of Edenton presiding. As was stated in Monday's Robesonian, court was scheduled to open Monday, but Judge Bond missed his train at Wilmington and did not reach Lumberton until Monday evening. Mr. L. E. Hughes was named as foreman of the grand jury and Mr. E. McQueen as officer. On account of being a day late in opening court, Judge Bond did not deliver the usual charge to the grand jury. After the jury had been empaneled Judge Bond paused for a moment to pay tribute to the memory of the late G. B. Patterson of the Robeson bar, who died since Judge Bond held his last term of court in the county.

The trial of Brittish Locklear, Indian, charged with killing Melissa Graham, Indian girl, has been set for tomorrow and a special venire of 60 men has been summoned from which to select a jury.

Blue Case Compromised
H. L. Blue, Jr., charged with embezzlement of around $15,000 from the Bank of Fairmont, while an officer of said bank, offered a plea of guilty. Upon the recommendation of the solicitor, council for the private prosecution, the directors and receiver of the bank, prayer for judgment was continued for 18 months upon payment of the cost of the action. Under the agreement of those concerned Blue is to pay to the bank the money which he was charged with misappropriating and also for the audit of the bank's books. Blue, who had been in the county jail for 64 days, was released late yesterday afternoon after the case had been disposed of by the court.

Other cases disposed of during the term so far are as follows:

Andrew Bethea, larceny, plead guilty; 4 months on the roads.
Cie Lewis, assault with deadly weapon, plead guilty; judgment continued for 12 months upon payment of cost.

Boney Burns, disposing of mortgaged property, plead guilty; continued upon payment of cost.

Will Ward, Harley Benton, Tony Ward, Harley Benton, Clarence Taylor, Major Suggs, trespass, Will Ward and Harley Benton plead guilty and judgment was continued for 12 months upon payment of cost. Not pros as to the others.

C. C. Webb, criminal knowledge of a female child; judgment continued upon payment of cost.

J. P. Powers, carrying concealed weapons, assault with deadly weapon and nuisance, plead guilty; judgment continued upon payment of cost.

Heck Blanks and Porter McKay, larceny of chickens; Blanks plead guilty; taxed with the cost and required to pay Quitman Meares $10 for chickens stolen. McKay was found guilty by the jury and sentenced to 45 days on the roads.

Allen M. Hayes vs. Catharine A. Hayes; divorce granted.

A. M. D. C., E. S. H. J. and Lonnie Davis and B. M. Cox, all manufacturing whiskey; A. M. Davis was sentenced to 8 months on the roads, all the other defendants fined $25 each and one-fifth of the cost.

Will and Webster Lewis, assault with deadly weapon, plead guilty; judgment continued upon payment of cost.

John Wesley Davis, removing crop; not guilty.

I. J. Odum, carrying concealed weapons, assault with deadly weapon, plead guilty; sentenced to 6 months on the roads in the assault case, judgment continued in the other.

Frank Johnson, house-breaking, plead guilty; 3 months on the roads.
Jesse McKee, store-breaking; 2 years on the roads.

John Leggett, assault with deadly weapon and resisting officer, plead guilty; 11 months on the roads.

David Rhodes, forgery (3 charges); six months on the road in each case—total 18 months.

Henry Chapman, store-breaking and larceny; 12 months on the roads.
Leonard Watts, house-breaking; 4 months on the roads.

BUT A ROAD SENTENCE IS A HORSE OF ANOTHER COLOR

Jack Hall Appeals to Higher Court When He Finds 4 Months Were to be Spent on Roads and Not in Jail. Jack Hall of Lumber Bridge, who recently was sentenced to 4 months on the roads by Recorder Jno. S. Butler of St. Pauls on the charge of having too much whiskey in his possession, later decided to appeal and Monday was released from the county jail under a $300 bond. Hall did not appeal at the time of the trial and stated Monday that he thought the sentence meant that he would spend 4 months in jail and not on the roads. When he learned that the sentence called for 4 months labor on the public roads, he decided to appeal.

Tax Levy 71 Cents On $100 Valuation

County Commission Fix Levy for 1922—One Cent More Than Last Year—How the Levy is Divided.

The total general state and county tax levy in Robeson county for the year 1922 will be 71 cents on the $100 valuation, as compared with 70 cents last year. The levy was made up Monday by the county commissioners. The levy is divided as follows:

General school tax, 39 cents; school building fund, 6 cents; general county tax, 12 cents; general road tax, 7 cents; bridge tax, 3 cents; court house and funding bonds, 2 cents; Confederate pension tax, 2 cents—total 71 cents. Poll tax will be the same as last year—$2.

The levy of 70 cents on the $100 valuation for the year 1921 was divided as follows: County schools, 40 cents; general county funds, 10 cents; bridge fund, 3 cents; road bond interest, 7 1-2 cents; general road funds, 7 1-2 cents; court house bonds, 1 cent; pensions, 1 cent—total .70 cents.

Where to Find Tobacco Expert

Mr. Harris Will Meet Farmers at St. Pauls and Fairmont Next Week—He Shows How to Prepare Tobacco for Market Under New Regulations.

Mr. H. G. Harris of the State Department of Agriculture, who is in the county instructing tobacco farmers how to prepare their tobacco for market, will meet the farmers at St. Pauls Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings of next week. Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week he will meet with the farmers at Fairmont and give instruction in how to tie and grade tobacco for market. The mornings will be spent in consultation with farmers in the towns named and the afternoons will be spent in visiting the farms and barns.

MRS. E. R. SHEPARD HERE TO INVESTIGATE MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF HER HUSBAND.

She Has No Clue But Feels Sure Her Husband Was Murdered and Is Anxious to Locate Body.

Mrs. E. R. Shepard and 5-year-old son, Jack, arrived here this morning from their home at Putney, Ga. Mrs. Shepard came here for the purpose of trying to find some clue that will clear up the mystery surrounding the sudden disappearance of her husband, whose abandoned car was found in a ditch beside the Wildest highway, one mile south of Lumberton, on April 11. Mrs. Shepard says she has no information that throws any light whatever on the disappearance of her husband, and she feels sure that he was killed and is anxious to locate the body.

As has been stated in The Robesonian, all efforts to locate the missing man have proved futile. An empty handbag found in water near Lumberton recently was sent to a brother of Mr. Shepard at Decatur, Ga., by Sheriff R. E. Lewis for purpose of determining whether or not it belonged to the missing man. Sheriff Lewis has not yet had time to hear from Mr. Shepard.

RAILWAY EXECUTIVE REFUSE TO MEET HEAD OF STRIKERS

Declare Issue is Not One Carriers and Shoppers Can Adjust.

Chicago, July 12.—A flat refusal to meet with B. M. Jewell, head of the striking shopmen, to discuss peace proposals was the answer tonight of railway executives to a proposal made by Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the United States railroad labor board.

In a letter to Mr. Hooper, the executives declared that "the issue raised is not one for consideration between the carriers and the representatives of the organized crafts on strike except through the further orderly process before the United States railroad labor board."

Asserting that the strike was a refusal to accept the results of the arbitration of the labor board, the letter declared that no conferences contingent upon the abandonment of the decision of the board was "permissible nor tolerable, because it would place the carriers participating therein in apparent cooperation with those on strike in seeking to find means to subvert the decision of the labor board."

The letter added, however, that "a prompt recall of the strike order would permit the resumption of form or methods of conferences and permit the consideration of any matters which representatives of employees might desire to submit."

Recorder's Court.

Only three cases have been aired before Recorder David H. Fuller this week. These were:

James Regan and Travis Bass, Jr., affray; judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

Rufus McKellar, colored, fined one-half cost on the charge of being drunk on the streets of Lumberton.

Site Agreed On for School Building

5 Acres Valuable Property in Western Part of Town Selected for $75,000 School Building—Fairmont Drug Co. Goes Into Hands of Receiver—Other Fairmont News.

By H. V. Brown

Fairmont, July 13.—An agreement has been made between the trustees of the Fairmont high school and Mr. A. J. Floyd for the purchase of a site for the new $75,000 school building. The bonds for this building were sold very profitably last week. The site that has been agreed upon includes five acres of very valuable property, located in the western part of town and better described as follows: Beginning at the corner of Trinity and Iona streets, runs west to the corner of Iona and Pittman streets; thence north to a point parallel E. Fisher's line; thence east to Trinity street and from that point as Trinity street to Iona and Trinity, the beginning corner. This property contains a little more than five acres clear of streets which will be opened later. Pittman street will be opened from Iona street north, continuing parallel the school property and possibly on to and through North Fairmont. The consideration is said to be $10,000. The old school property will be sold as soon as possible, three good offers already having been received. The money derived from the sale of the old property is to be used in paying for the new property and necessary improvements. Just when the actual work on the building will be begun has not been announced yet, but several contractors and architects have been before the board of trustees regarding the erection.

Receiver for Drug Company

The Fairmont Drug Co. went into the hands of a receiver last Saturday, T. C. McElhenny as plaintiff and H. L. Blue defendant. Mr. G. W. Thompson has been duly appointed temporary receiver and will probably be made permanent receiver, after which time he will sell the stock, fixtures and other assets of the company. Messrs. T. C. McElhenny and H. L. Blue have been conducting business under a partnership and doing business as Fairmont Drug Co. This is the second drug store to fall into hands of a receiver here in the last 8 months, the Pittman Drug Co., Inc., being the first and which was sold to Grantham & Co., who are now doing business in the same place.

"The Lost Colony" Picture

An educational picture in five reels, "The Lost Colony" will be given in the Fairmont school auditorium Friday night under the auspices of the North Carolina Department of Education. This picture has been shown in most of the important towns and cities of the state and no doubt will be seen here by a large crowd. A small admission fee is charged. The picture is a true drama of the early settlers of North Carolina.

Mr. Simpson secretary and treasurer of the W. H. King Drug Co. of Raleigh, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Rev. B. E. Stanfield and son John of Joesboro spent Wednesday here and at Marietta. Mr. Stanfield assisted Mr. Trawick in the funeral services of Mr. Sam Oliver, of Marietta, who died there Tuesday.

Woman's Auxiliary of A. L.

A meeting of all the sisters, mothers, daughters and wives of ex-service men has been called for next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. J. Chambers on Iona street. The purpose of the meeting is to organize a woman's auxiliary of the American Legion. All over the state and nation such organizations are being fast completed and it is a very valuable asset to the American Legion and to the disabled veterans. Any American Legion post that does not have an auxiliary is called by the national department a "bachelor post," and the local post is proud of the fact that it will not be single very long now.

Fairmont alone is furnishing Lumberton with a large number of visitors this week. Several are witnesses in the cases being tried in court there this week and some are defendants. Much interest is being noted in the case of H. L. Blue, who has spent the last three months in jail on the charge of embezzlement. Besides many business visitors, a large number have spent some time in Lumberton merely as spectators.

Fine Peach Orchard

Some of the nicest peaches grown anywhere can be found growing in the orchards of Mr. J. A. Floyd a few miles east of here. Representatives of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture called on Mr. Floyd this week regarding his orchard, and found it to be one of the best orchards in the state.

Miss Elsie Pugh will entertain a few of her friends next Thursday night at her home in the northern part of town in honor of her 16th birthday. Miss Pugh has a host of friends here who no doubt look on this social function as one of the best of the season.

The death of Mr. Sam Oliver of Marietta came as a surprise to Fairmont people Tuesday. Mr. Oliver was well known in this community and (Continued on Page Five)

Champion Still Capturer of Robeson

Rural Policemen W. W. Smith Called It a Week After Capturing 3 Stills and One Man and Destroying 1,000 Gallons Beer—Just an Average Week Too.

Rural Policeman W. W. Smith of Maxton is the champion still-capturer of Robeson county. He captured three stills last week, destroyed nearly 1,000 gallons of "beer" and arrested one man, who is now in jail. That was not an unusual "big week" with Officer Smith, as indicated by previous reports in this paper of his activities.

The first still was captured on Wednesday, the still being found in the Creek swamp, near Harper's Ferry bridge. This was a 60-gallon outfit, made of a gasoline drum, with a copper cap and worm. Nine barrels of beer found about the still were poured out. Policeman Smith was accompanied on this raid by Federal Prohibition Agent Jim Clifton. The owners were absent and no arrest has yet been made.

On the following day Officer Smith, accompanied by Mr. Geo. Willard, captured two smaller stills, one in a bay on the farm of Mr. G. B. Sellers and the other in a bay on the farm of Mr. John Sellers, William Eppes, Indian, who lives about 100 yards from the still found on Mr. G. B. Sellers' farm, was arrested and is in jail here. A path led from Eppes' home to the still, according to Policeman Smith, who was a Lumberton visitor yesterday. Two barrels of beer were found at each of these stills.

FUNERAL MRS. ELIZA FULLER.

Large Crowd Attended Services at Residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. White and at Meadow-Brook Cemetery—Many Beautiful Floral Offerings.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Rowland Fuller, whose death Sunday night was mentioned in Monday's Robesonian, was conducted Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. White, Eighth street and Elizabeth road, son-in-law and daughter of deceased. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. C. C. Hays, pastor of Chestnut Street Methodist church, of which deceased had for many years been a devoted member. A large crowd attended the services at the house and followed the remains to Meadow-Brook cemetery, where interment was made. Several selections were sung at the house and at the grave by a choir composed of Mrs. C. H. Boyd and her sister Mrs. F. E. Wilson of Gaffney, S. C., Mrs. R. E. Lewis, Mr. E. W. Dunham and Mr. Frank Gough. Many floral offerings covered the grave, among them being many designs of rare beauty.

The pallbearers were: honorary—Dr. J. P. Brown of Fairmont, Messrs. W. H. Humphrey, C. B. Townsend, L. T. Townsend, G. M. Whitfield, W. J. DuBois; active—Messrs. K. M. Barnes, H. M. McAllister, Jno. D. McMillan, T. A. Norment, Gerald Pittman, J. A. Sharpe.

Among the out-of-town people here for the funeral were: Mr. Augustus S. Fuller, only son of deceased, and his daughters, Misses Ellen, Mabel and Willie Fuller, of Statesville; Mrs. George Entwistle, Misses Mary Entwistle, Octavia Scales, May, Eleanor and Faith Covington and Mr. George Entwistle, all of Rockingham; Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Thompson, Mrs. Francis Jones and Mr. Oscar Pittman, of Fairmont.

MR. SAM OLIVER PASSES

Well-Known Citizen Died Suddenly Tuesday at His Home at Marietta—Funeral Yesterday Attended by Large Crowd.

Mr. Sam M. Oliver, well-known Robeson citizen, died suddenly Tuesday at noon at his home in Marietta. Deceased was about 61 years old and is survived by his wife and several brothers and sisters. The funeral, which was conducted from the home yesterday at 4 p. m., was attended by one of the largest crowds that ever attended a funeral in the southern part of the county. Those attending the funeral from Lumberton were Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Townsend, Messrs. T. A. McNeill and Ira B. Townsend. People from all sections of Robeson and many from Columbus county and from South Carolina and Georgia attended the funeral, which was conducted by Rev. B. E. Stanfield, former pastor of Olivet Methodist church, Marietta, assisted by Rev. Mr. Traywick, present pastor of this church. Interment was made in the Olivet cemetery and the grave was banked high with beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. Oliver was a big-hearted man, whose kind and genial disposition won for him the friendship of all with whom he came in contact. He will be missed in his community.

—Mr. J. L. McNeill of the Philadelphia section, who is a Lumberton visitor today, says that boll weevils do not seem to be as plentiful in cotton fields that he has seen and heard from as they were earlier in the season.

St. Pauls News Letter

Sunday School Class and Christian Endeavorers Picnic—Reception in Honor of Mrs. Robt. Murray—Birthday Party—Personal and Other Items.

By Bess G. Johnson

St. Pauls, July 11.—This warm July morn makes us want to quote with S. H. Swett—When the heat like a mist veil floats And popples flame in the rye, And the silver note in the stream-let's throat, Has softened almost to a sigh, it is July.

Mr. Alex. Mabry of Ridgeway, nephew of Mrs. J. A. McGeachy arrived in town last Friday p. m. and will be a guest in the McGeachy home this week.

On last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Walter D. Johnson took her S. S. class of girls over to Odum's pond, where they enjoyed a nice little picnic supper. The young bunch report a "great" time.

On the same afternoon the larger ones who belong to the senior C. E. society went over to Arduless for a little outing, taking with them regular picnic lunches which made the evening "one of pleasure." Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Murray went along as chaperons. Mr. and Mrs. Murray, who spent a week here, left us yesterday, returning to Washington.

In Honor of Mrs. Robt. Murray

On last Friday afternoon the Presbyterian manse was the scene of attractiveness when Mrs. E. C. Murray gave a reception from 5 to 7, in honor of her daughter-in-law Mrs. Robt. Murray, who came into the family some few months ago. This was one of the most enjoyable events of the season. The guests were received at the door by Mesdames S. M. Davis and T. L. Northrop, who showed them to the receiving line, which was composed of Mesdames E. C. Murray, Robt. Murray, Miss Florence Murray, Mesdames J. A. McGeachy, F. C. Shotwell and Miss Sallie Hughes. In the hall were Mrs. J. A. Johnson and Della McGeoghan, who led the way to the dining room, which was very tastefully decorated with nasturtiums and green leaves and where Mesdames J. F. Nash and L. L. Grantham most gracefully presided over the punch bowl. After partaking of this delicious punch each guest was ushered into the "study," where Mesdames W. D. Johnson and N. A. McEachern and Miss Pearl Evans were receiving. Miss Evans having charge of the Victrola, where very beautiful selections were being rendered. In passing thru' the halls and on "out again," we couldn't help but admire the beautiful decorations of potted plants and large yellow black-eyed daisies. About 65 guests called during the evening.

Little Miss Sarah Currie of Parkton has been visiting in the home of her uncle Mr. A. B. Johnson the past few days. She is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Currie of our neighboring little town of Parkton. Her father and mother were also visitors in the Johnson home last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Lucy Hall of Fayetteville spent the day recently at the home of Mrs. S. M. Davis. Mrs. Emmitt Davis, of Glengary also spent a few days last week in the Davis home here.

Miss Addie Blue accepted a position with C. R. Hester a few weeks ago. We all wish her much success in her new vocation.

Mr. L. L. Grantham went over to Charlotte yesterday. Mrs. F. C. Shotwell has been in town the past few weeks. She came here to join her husband, who came here some time ago. Mr. Shotwell has charge this season of the Farmer's cooperative Tobacco marketing association and St. Pauls is very glad to have them in their midst.

Our dear little nieces Misses Annie and Gertrude Brown, who have been in our home the past week, will leave us tomorrow for their home, Cummock. We shall miss them very, very much; but "such is life." They came here on July 3rd. Part of the time, a few days, of course had to be divided with relatives at Red Springs and Philadelphia.

Mrs. R. G. Rozier and children are visiting her people at Linden.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Guiton and son and daughter, Mr. Alex. and Miss Christine, are making plans to attend a family reunion at Mr. Guiton's old home near Rockfish Thursday. We hope the day will prove very pleasant to all.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McGeachy went out to see their aunt Mrs. Kate Baile, near Philadelphia, Monday afternoon. Sunday p. m. they went over to Lumberton Bridge to attend the funeral of Mr. Elias Davis, an aged citizen of that town, 93 years old, who was buried there that afternoon.

The passing away of Maj. A. J. McKinnon known from "boyhood" as "Sandy" McKinnon was indeed sad but sometimes the very ones who seem to us to be so very important are the ones who have to leave us. He was a man who was widely known over the state and whose friends were numbered by his acquaintances. Was a special friend of our townsman Mr. A. R. McEachern. Among those from here who attended the funeral were

COTTON MARKET

Middling cotton is quoted on the local market today at 22 cents the pound.
