Elzie Hill's Escape-J. W. Davis Not

Responsible. To the Editor of The Robesonian.

I, the undersigned, am disgusted with the article which was published in Tuesday's Robesonian concerning the escape of Elzie Hill from the chain gang. There is no doubt but what the very fellow who furnished to The Robesonian the news which blamed me for the escape of Hill, knew that I had not worked a day at the chain gang in almost three weeks. Then, if he was not aware of that fact I think it would be well for him or anybody who wishes to write or report anything to The Robe-sonian to hold his tongue long enough to get the facts involved therein. I have not had anything to do with the prisoners of the chain gang since last April, when I gave up my job of working the prisoners and began looking after the county's mules and their work on the road Then on Aug. 14th I gave that job to the other man, and since that time I have had nothing whatsoever to do with the chain gang or the "gang" as it was expressed.

Sure enough, Hill did remove his shackles and flee, but I would like to impress the readers of The Robesonian of the fact that when I was responsible for Elzie Hill he wore shackles with rings which were too small to be pulled off over his feet. Now, if any man has anything to say about the escape of this prisoner let
