RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT
 Mrs. Eliza Fuller
 Whereas, after a long and useful life, she has pleased our loving heavenly Father to remove from labor to rest our beloved mother in Israel, Mrs. Eliza Fuller, who on July 9th, 1922, in the hush of the holy Sabbath's evening calm suddenly and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus.
 Therefore be it resolved:
 That in the death of Grandma Fuller the Woman's Missionary Society of Chestnut Street Church loses not only its best-loved member, one who in the days of her strength devoted much of her thought and time to the society's usefulness, and who up to the hour of her lamented death was deeply interested in all its activities.

Second, That we shall miss not only her sunny presence and sweet companionship, but the inspiration of her great faith, for she walked and talked with God in the confidence of a little child, and to the end nourished her soul upon the eternal varieties of the Divine Word as interpreted to her by the great Wesley and the Holy Spirit.

Third, That we extend to her stricken loved ones our tenderest sympathy, and pray that the consolation of the grace of God may be theirs in this time of grief and loneliness.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our society, a copy sent to the bereaved family, a copy sent to The Robesonian and the North Carolina Christian Advocate for publication.

MRS. K. M. BARNES,
 MRS. J. A. SHARPE.
