County Fair Will Continue Through Saturday. Large Crowds Are Attending

Agricultural Exhibits Best in History of Fair and Number of Entries of All Kinds Larger Than Ever Before —An Attractive Display—Good Midway and Brilliant Display of Fireworks at Night Best Ever Seen

THOUSANDS THRONG BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS DAY AND NIGHT

The eighth annual Robeson county thousands of people are visiting the fair grounds and buildings day and night. Owing to the heavy rains Monday afternoon and night, the opening of the fair was postponed from Tuesday morning until Tuesday evening and as a result of the late opening the fair will last through Saturday English and as a result of the late opening the fair will last through Saturday English and Saturday Satu fair is now on in full swing and fair will last through Saturday En-tries in the floral hall, poultry and livestock buildings total 2,200. This is by far the largest number of en-tries ever made at a Robeson county

Visitors generally admit that the agricultural showing at the fair this the Robeson county fair. The exhibits lead to some connection with the heretofore.

Good Midway dustrial exhibits, the Matthew J. J. W. McPhauf and H. S. Toon. Riley shows make up the midway. As solicitor While the show management had mended the much difficulty in getting on the grounds, owing to the heavy rains, the midway is considered one of the best. The defendant is represented by numerous rides are there for the entertainment of both young and old.

Baby Contest Today Many habies have been entered in e "Better Babies" contest, which is being held today.

The Show in Floral Hall Splendid exhibits of farm produce of all kinds, collective and individual booths, old relics, Civil and World War weapons, fancy hand and needle work, drawings, basketry, flowers, petted plants and industrial booths make up the show in floral hall Entering the building to the right one is first attracted by general collection of fancy work, drawings, homemade clothing, silk quilts, etc., enter-ed by the ladies of Lumberton.

Pantry Supplies Department The pantry supplies department comes next, this being displayed in glass show-cases. In this section one is "carried away" with the showing of delicious bread, cakes, pies, homemade candies eggs, honey, all kinds of fruits and vegetables, cream, butter and butter-milk and dozens of daily food of human beings.

Canned Goods The large and creditable display of canned goods, fruits and vegetables, reminds one of the fact that the 1922 fruit crop was not allowed to go to waste. The entries in this department are larger than at pervious fairs and shows that the ladies of Robeson county are experts in canning and pre bond. The defendant has retained the interest of the railroad company serving.

Curios The collection of old coins, Confederate currency, comics and curies on display is another feature that at- HECTOR STEPHENS' HOME NEAR tracts fair visitors. In this collection is found an old blue-back speller. Another exhibit that calls to memory the days of old, is a spinning wheel, set up and ready for operation. Farm Products

The general exhibit of farm products is made up of all kinds of grain fourths of the house-hold goods, over funeral. Early this morning large the ditch and badly bruised, scratched grown in this section, peas, beans, case, potatoes, cotton, peanuts, onions, cane, seed and ribbon cane, melons, all kinds of vegetables, homeof what the fertile soils of this great county will produce.

Individual Booths Mr. Shelton West has a creditable individual booth, in which one finds so many different farm products that it is difficult to count them. The products are well displayed and the booth is a credit to both Mr. West and his farm. The individual booth arranged by Mr. and Mrs. B. Sam Edwards is another attractive display. In the back. ground is a minature chicken and tock farm, surrounded by a creditable showing of canned fruits and vegetables. The booth is decorated with flowers and potted plants.

It appears that Mr. and Mrs. L. B.
Barnes have out-classed the splendid booths that they have had at other fairs. In this booth is attractively displayed "everything grown on the farm." This booth would attract at-(Continued on Page Eight)

SPECIAL SALE OF HOME- MADE CAKES ON CURB MARKET SAT.

By Martha Flax Andrews The St. Pauls' Home Demonstration club will put on a special sale of home-made cakes at the curb market Saturday. The women of St. Pauls are most efficient and dainty in their cooking and it is a rare privilege to town. We greatly sympathize with have them put on this sale at the curb market. The cakes will be in care of Miss Della McGoogan and we cannot say too much regarding her ability to do things well. Keep this in mind and buy the best cake you ever ate atthe market Saturday morning.

Mr. W. W. Singletary Critically III Mr. W. W. Singletary has been critically ill at his home, East Fifth street, since 10 o'clock Monday night, when he suffered a second stroke of paralysis. His condition is reported as slightly improved this afternoon, however. Mr. Singletary suffered a light stroke Sunday, but was able to be on the streets Monday. His son, Mr. Fred Singletary of Greensbore, arrived Tuesday and left at noon today for his home. He will return to Lumberton at an early date.

To Determine School Site Tomorrow Location of a school site in district No. 1, Britts township, will be considered at a special meeting of the county school board Friday, the mat. ter having been continued at the regular monthly meeting held on the first Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Moore and two children of Wilmington arrived yesterday and will spend several days here visiting at the home of Mrs. Moore's brother and sister-in-law, Chief of Police and Mrs. D. M. Barker, Willow street. Messrs. J. Frank and J. G. Stephens of R. 1, Orrum were among the visitors in town yesterday. Mesdames A. C. McGoogan and A. N. Tolar of Rennert are Lumberton visitors today.
