perry Chambers of Fairmont.

Word Sent Out from Pembroke by His Wife, He Says, Does Not Give Facts in Case-Article Published in Charlotte Observer, He Says, Does Him Great Injustice.

Rev. M. L. Scarborough, who was given some undesirable publicity last July by reason of word sent out from Pembroke by his wife, was in Lumberton yesterday with his two child-ren, Larine and Melvin, about 7 and 5 years old, respectively, on his way from Dillion, S. C., to Jacksonville,

A news item published in the Charlotte Observer and reproduced in The Robesonian of July 20, last, stated that the police of Charlotte were looking for Rev. M. L. Scarborough, "self-styled evangelist," at the in-stance of his wife, who had written from Pembroke that Scarborough had aken the children away from home and was going about the country with a sad song about the motherless children, thereby imposing on a sympathetic public, and that he was not fit to preach or have the care of the

All of which, Searborough says, is gross misrepresentation of the facts. He says he took the children away with him in the daytime after spending some four months in Pembroke doing evangelistic work, and that he left for good and sufficient reasons which reflect not a bit upon his character, as he says he is prepared to prove. As for being a "selfstyled" evangelist, Rev. Scarborough produced a certificate signed by Edw. M. Graham, chairman, setting forth that on March 27, 1922, the Methodist quarterly conference, Gibson charge, authorized him to preach. Rev. Scarborough said he had been preaching for three years, also doing welfare work, and he showed a clipping from a newspaper published in another State mentioning a commendable bit of rescue work done by him. Scarborough says he has not been to Charlette, that he has been in the North and West, and that he knows nothing about the police anywhere hunting him, and that he went to Sheriff Lewis here and asked if he wanted him and was told that he did not. He says the word sent out from Pembroke by his wife was slanderous, that he has done nothing that would cause him to shun the police of any town, but that heh is supporting himself and his two small children legitimately and at the same time is trying to do good to his fellow-man. no alternative but to "spread the Everyone in Maxton and the vicinity about town where the sweet chimes of the town clock can be heard as it tells of the passing of time, will no doubt rejoice that the clock, which has for several weeks been silent has began to again count time. Everybody has missed the music of its striking and many who, from force of habit, glance up at the clock tower every time they pass that way have been disappointed, not only because they failed to learn the time, but because the expression on the old clock's face had ceased to change, and made one feel as though it were returning one's glance with the blank and frozenstare of a one-time friend.
