Rev. I. N. Clegg Files Answer

Rowland Minister Denies Charges
Made by His Wife in Habeas Corpus
Proceedings—Says White-
Robed Men Came to See Her at His Home But Not at His Request.

HEARING WILL BE HELD HERE
FRIDAY BEFORE JUDGE DEVIN.

Rev. I. N. Clegg of Rowland was in Lumberton yesterday and filed an answer to the complaint in habeas corpus proceedings instituted by his wife, Mrs. Annie McEl Clegg, now residing in Richmond, Va., in which she alleges her husband asked the Ku Klux Klan to visit her in which she is seeking custody of their four children.

In his answer Mr. Clegg admits that he has not lived with Mrs. Clegg since the 3rd day of last August, the date that she left for her home in Granite Va., ostensibly on a visit to her people.

He denies that the petitioner was forced to leave his home in Rowland or that he acted in any way to make life burdensome or unbearable. He admits that he did not go to Granite to see her and tried to persuade her to return to Rowland and live with him. He denies that he has granted the possession of the children to the petitioner and that any agreement was made relative to her return to North Carolina.

Didn't Ask Ku Klux to Visit Home.
He admits that 8 white-robed men came to the home in Rowland about 10 o'clock at night and asked for the petitioner, stating that they had a letter for her, but he denies that he had anything to do with their coming, states that he was surprised when they came, and further states that he would have done everything possible to keep them from coming, had he known anything of the plans. He says that they came there without his knowledge and strictly against his will.

Regarding the 5-year-old child, Archie, whom she alleges her husband had consented to her taking back to Virginia with her but spirited away just before time for the train, Mr. Clegg denies that he took the child away, but admits that he kept the child at the home and refused to allow him to accompany his wife to Virginia.

The respondent admits that he went to Virginia for the purpose of bringing two of his daughters back to Rowland with him and that he found them about 8 miles from the city of Richmond walking along a path through the woods, unprotected in a remote country. He spoke to them and when they recognized him they ran to him, threw their arms about his neck and kissed him and gladly accompanied him back to their home in North Carolina. This he says was all done in the day-time and was no secret. He brought them back to Rowland and placed them in the graded school.

Mr. Clegg refuses to abandon his duty of caring for the children and surrender them to the petitioner, stating that she has a violent temper and that her work as an elocutionist and public reader keeps her away from home so much that she cannot care for the children in the proper manner. Mrs. Clegg, according to the answer, is not of domestic habits and the children cannot be properly safeguarded by her.

A special hearing has been set for tomorrow and Judge W. A. Devin of Oxford, before whom the case will be heard, is expected to arrive here tonight.

BROOKS MUST REMAIN IN JAIL
AT LEAST ANOTHER WEEK.

Hubbard Lowrey is Considered Not Out of Danger Yet—Another Hearing Will be Held in a Week if Wounded Man Continues to Improve.

Duckery Brooks, Indian, charged with being an accomplice in the shooting of Hubbard Lowrey, chief of police of Pembroke, on May 28th, will remain in the county jail at least another week and possibly longer, as Recorder W. B. Ivey did not deem it wise to let him out on bond after a hearing which was held Monday afternoon.

The hearing was urged by friends of Brooks, who wanted to get him out of jail on bond until Superior court. Dr. H. M. Baker, who operated on Lowrey after the shooting, testified that although Lowrey was doing nicely he did not consider him out of danger yet, and for that reason the hearing did Brooks no good, as he was ordered placed back in jail to wait at least a week, when another hearing will be made if Lowrey continues to improve.

Will Fred Locklear, who did the shooting also is still in jail.

Dr. G. M. Pate Re-elected Director of Cotton Co-ops.

Dr. G. M. Pate of Rowland was re-elected director of the Cotton Growers Co-operative Marketing association for this district in an election held at the court house Monday.

The other nominee for the office was Mr. A. R. McEachern of St. Paul, who received a good many votes. The majority of votes cast were mailed.

Jails and Convict Camps in Robeson

Prisoners Are Well Cared for and Well Treated—Solicitor McNeill
Will Recommend Some Improvements.

Solicitor T. A. McNeill completed yesterday a general inspection of the county jail, road convict camps and prison conditions as they exist in Robeson county, assisted by Mr. A. L. Bullock, a member of the state prison board, Dr. E. R. Hardin, county health officer, Miss Elizabeth Frye, county welfare officer, Messrs D. P. McKinnon, J. S. Oliver and J. M. McCallum and Mr. E. J. Britt, county attorney.

Owing to a matter that will necessitate further investigation Mr. McNeill has not made his final report yet, but the following is a part of the report which he will prepare:

The county jail was found to be in a very sanitary condition, also the different road camps. The prisoners are being well cared for and treated in an admirable manner. The prison cages used at the camps are not modern and it is very difficult to keep them in a sanitary condition. Recommendations will be made to the county commissioners that portable steel wire stockades be bought and placed at the camps for the use of prisoners, especially on Sundays. It will also be recommended that screen wire be put on the doors and windows of the kitchens and eating places.

FORD WRECKED IN COLLISION
Young Man Thrown Out of Car but Not Injured—Struck a Packard at Intersection of Streets.

An automobile collision in which considerable damage was done to a Ford touring car driven by Mr. C. L. Hall of Lumberton, R. 2, and slight damage to a Packard touring car driven by a lady of Wilmington occurred yesterday morning at the intersection of Fifth and Elm streets.

A front wheel on the Ford was entirely demolished and a rear tire was torn from the rim. The running board of the Packard was badly damaged and the front fender was slightly bent.

The lady was driving north on Elm street at a slow rate of speed and had practically crossed the intersection when Mr. Hall, not seeing the approaching car, ran into the side of the big car, the jar of which threw Mr. Hall's son, who was riding with him, out of the car. He was uninjured.

Mr. Hall was not driving at a fast rate of speed and said that he was looking east on Fifth street, preparing to turn that way, and did not see the approaching car. Eye-witnesses state that he failed to hold out his hand to warn any approaching car of his intention to turn out of the street he was on.

The lady driving the Packard was a member of a party in which were Mr. Louis T. Moore, secretary of the Wilmington chamber of commerce, and Mr. McMillan, an auto dealer of Wilmington, on their way to Fairmont to attend the highway association.

NEGRO DIED SUDDENLY

Robert Patterson Dropped Dead
While Cutting Oats Tuesday Morning—Night Employee of Seaboard.

Robert Patterson, colored, about 45 years old, died suddenly Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock while in an oat field cutting oats on Mr. Jenkins Bennett's place about 3 miles west of Lumberton.

With him at the time of his death was his son, who was assisting in cutting the oats. A physician was summoned who found that death was instantaneous, due to heart trouble. Coroner D. W. Biggs did not deem an inquest necessary as there were no signs of foul play.

Deceased was an employee of the Seaboard Air Line railroad, working at night, keeping coal in and caring for the engines that might lie over here during the night. It was stated that he worked all night Monday night and was working hard Tuesday morning when he was stricken. The remains were taken in charge by a local undertaker and shipped to Rockingham for burial yesterday.

Parkton Letter

Mr. A. M. Culbreth Wins a Bride in Georgia—Mrs. D. S. Currie's Arm
Broken—Gospel Tabernacle Needs
Voluntary Labor—Social and Personal.

By C. D. Williamson.
Parkton, June 13.—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Culbreth of Tarver, Ga., arrived in Parkton last Wednesday and returned to Georgia Sunday evening. Mr. Culbreth was happily married to Miss Ellen Prescott of Statesville, Ga., June 4. They spent most of their brief visit at the home of their uncle, Mr. J. B. McCormick, of our town, but made several calls to near relations in upper Cumberland and Har- net county. They met a most hearty reception while with relatives and friends here and only regret their time was so short. Billy, as we all call him, was most fortunate in winning one of Georgia's most accomplished and fairest brides who possesses a personality equal to her beauty. We had the pleasure of entertaining them in our home for dinner Saturday and thoroughly enjoyed their association. Billy claims they will make their home at Saints' rest at Tarver and invites his scribe down to enjoy fishing with him, and I only wish I could. He speaks of the alligators, but excuse me—then.

One of the most enjoyable receptions of the season was the one given at the elegant home last Thursday night of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hughes, from 8 till 11 given in honor of Miss Eupha Smith, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. V. G. Smith. Delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCormick and daughter, Sarah, took Virginia, the elder daughter, over to Raleigh yesterday where Miss Virginia will attend summer school at State college. Miss Sarah Hall of Dundarach who teaches, accompanied them.

Miss Marie McMillan left today for Greensboro, while Miss Georgia Williamson left yesterday, where they attend the summer school.

In fact we are unable to report all the teachers who are away just at this time, and it affects the social standing with most of us. Most as soon as the young folks get home from teaching or from college they have to leave for summer schools.

Mrs. D. S. Currie had the misfortune of getting her arm broken over at the Gray's Creek picnic yesterday. As she was starting for home, some person driving a car backed into Mrs. Currie's car and caused her arm to be broken. She was rushed home quick as possible, Neill McNett driving. Dr. Currie, also Dr. Nash of St. Pauls were present at the arrival of Mrs. Currie and treatment was rendered and the patient is resting as well as could be expected at present.

Mrs. V. G. Smith is visiting relatives in Virginia this week and her many friends sympathize with her, she having lost one of her sisters, who lived somewhere in the west; also one of her brothers died in South America on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cashwell arrived home Sunday from Rocky Mount, where they visited loved ones, accompanied by Jack Thompson, making their trip by Ford.

Grantham of our town, who was Miss Jane McBryde prior to her marriage. Deceased was also related to the late Dr. T. L. Northrop of St. Paul and was a most highly-esteemed citizen of Wagram, whose death will be learned with regret by his great hosts of friends over the country.

The "Missionary basket" meeting which the ladies of the Baptist society have each week will meet at the home of Mrs. D. B. Lancaster Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. They meet at the homes of the different members and much interest is manifested through these gatherings.

An Attractive Window Display
Showing Calhoun Highway—Death of Little Wilma Lewis—Personal Mention.

By Mrs. H. G. Inman.

Fairmont, June 13.—One of the prettiest and most attractive window displays ever seen in Fairmont is that at E. V. McDaniel's store. They are not advertising their wares nor wears but something more important and claiming the attention of more people in Fairmont than a whole town full of clothes, shoes and other paraphernalia. Not that these articles do not need advertising for every business man knows advertising pays but it is more important now, for the people of Fairmont are working hard to get the Calhoun highway through here and if everybody will put a shoulder to the wheel "she's a sure thing."

They have the Calhoun highway leading from Athens, Ga., to Wilmington, N. C., completed—Not in the proverbial nut shell but in their show window. There you see the railroad crossings, telephone system, swamps, rocks, curves; and if you look closely, the faintest hint of a hill. Mr. Ralph McDaniel, who is traveling salesman, is the decorator.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lewis of route 1 was saddened Monday morning when they learned their small daughter, Wilma, aged 2 1/2 years, had passed into the great beyond. She had been a sufferer of colitis for a week, in the Thompson hospital at Lumberton.

Wilma was an attractive and sweet little girl and will be greatly missed in the community.

Funeral services were held at the home, interment being made near the home.

Miss Maude Bullock spent the week-end in Lakeview visiting her cousin Miss Bell Horne.

Miss Elsie Pugh, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Pittman's hospital in Fayetteville, is expected to arrive home today.

Miss Annie McMillan spent last week in the home of her sister Mrs. M. N. Jenkins at Tabor.

Mr. W. S. Ivey of Americus, Ga., is spending a few days in the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Thompson, on Cottage street.

Mr. John F. McMillan, of Marion, S. C. spent the week-end with his niece Miss Annie McMillan.

Miss Jessamine Ashley, who taught in St. Paul the past year, left Tuesday morning for N. C. C. W. Greensboro, where she will attend summer school.

BARACA-PHILATHEA
MEETING IN KINSTON

Kinston, June 11.—The Baracas and Philatheas of North Carolina will gather here Thursday for the annual convention of their union. The first day of the convention will be given over largely to registration of delegates and their assignment to homes for entertainment no small task in a town of 12,000 population. The opening session will be held Thursday evening, with addresses of welcome by Vernon Cowper, president of the chamber of commerce, and Dr. Bernard Spilman, president of the Baptist State convention, who resides here.

—Mr. R. A. Hedgpath Jr. arrived home this morning from Richmond, Va., where he has just finished in pharmacy at the Medical college of Virginia.

—License has been issued for the marriage of Miss Roberta Floyd of Fairmont and Mr. Claude M. Gunn of Lee county; Miss Maude F. McRae of Maxton and Mr. Milton Lee Correll of Milwaukee, Wis.

many friends will learn with delight is much better. Miss Pearl Howard who has been undergoing treatment at a Charlotte hospital the past few weeks, has been considerably worse since last week. Her friends hope, however, she will again prove convalescent. Her brother Mr. A. E. Howard spent Sunday at her bed-side, returning Monday.

Mrs. Maggie McEachern of Fayetteville, who spent several days recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McEachern, was called last week to the home of Mrs. Neill McCormac Sr. who has been very sick for some days. Mrs. McCormac prior to her marriage was Miss Barbara McRaney, sister of Mr. J. D. McRaney. Her many friends wish for her a very speedy recovery. Mrs. R. H. Coley, who has been suffering with abscess of the face, went to Pittman hospital last Friday, where she has been undergoing treatment. Mrs. W. D. Johnson, who has been a patient a few weeks at Highsmith's hospital, Fayetteville, is getting on very nicely following a very serious operation last week, her friends will be glad to note.

Quite a number of cases of measles among the residents of the mill village.

Drs. J. F. Nash and L. J. Moore, who have recently erected a handsome office building of brick on Broad Street, have moved in and look very much at home in their modern and up-to-date buildings which is indeed a credit to the town.
