NEWS AND COMMENT

By J. M. Fleming. It is to be hoped Judge W. P. Stacy will survive the criticism he is receiving from a few North Carolina editors in regard to that young un-

That new law requiring all automobile drivers to "Cross Crossings Cautiously" will be observed only by the law-abiding drivers. The others may get their necks wrung out of joint, but the surviving "happys" will be unable to collect any damages out of the railroads.

It is our wish that Judge Kerr may succeed the late lamented Claude Kitchen as Representative from his district.

We are glad Governor Morrison commuted Clyde Montgomery's sentence to life imprisonment instead of electrocuting him.

We congratulate Profs. J. R. Poole, county superintendent of schools, and W. B. Crumpton, superintendent of the Lumberton city schools, on their re-election to their same old jobs.

And now Rev. Walter M. Gilmore, pastor of the First Baptist church at Sanford, gives up his pastorate to become secretary of stewardship of the Baptist State convention of North Carolina.

Of course those at the head of affairs know better than we, but it makes us sorry for our pulpits to suffer the loss of such good preachers as Rev. G. T. Lumpkin, who is appointed superintendent of a hospital, and Dr. J. W. Lynch to dry up in a professor's chair.

The tax business has become acute. In Matt. 17:24-25 we find these words: "Doth not your Master pay tribute? He saith, yes."

We have received a great many compliments on our recent write-up in which we took occasion to rasp the perpetrators of that Proctorville outrage. To our many friends we extend thanks for their gracious words.

For twenty six years, over a quarter of a century, through good times and "hard times", through war and readjustment conditions, the National Bank of Lumberton has steadily grown and prospered. We have faithfully endeavored to gain and deserve the confidence and good will of our friends and patrons. We desire to heartily thank each and every one who has contributed in any way to the success of this institution. We are in a stronger financial position today than ever before, and are, therefore, able to assure our friends that their legitimate requirements will be well cared for.
