FUNERAL OF R. K. CRAVEN AT CLARKTON WEDNESDAY A. M.

The funeral of R. K. Craven, farm demonstrator of Bladen county, who died in a hospital in Wilmington yesterday at 4:30 p. m., will be held at the home place in Clarkton Wednesday at 11 a. m.

Deceased was a brother-in-law of Mrs. D. D. King of Lumberton, who went to Clarkton yesterday. Several from Lumberton will attend the funeral.

Death was due to pneumonia following an operation made necessary by an injury sustained some time ago. Deceased was about 50 years old.

St. Paul News

A. L. Auxiliary Raises $43.80 for O'teen With Splendid Entertainment—Mother's Day Reunion—Sacred Concert—Personal and Other Items.

By Bessie G. Johnson
St. Paul, May 16—Mrs. R. E.
Steele spent last week-end in Raleigh with her daughter, Miss Mar-forie, who has been teaching near there this season, returning home Tuesday night, spending the day among old acquaintances in her former home town, Lumberton, while enroute to St. Paul. Miss Steele's school closes within the next few days and she is expected home some time next week, her friends will be glad to note.

Mr. A. R. McEachern is spending several days in New York looking after business interests.

The entertainment given by the American Legion auxiliary on Tuesday evening was greeted by a large appreciative audience. The entire program, which featured numerous musical selections, was well gotten up and most auspiciously carried out in every way, to say nothing of the mook wedding which of course was decidedly a hit among all and proved a delightful conclusion. $43.80 was realized, which will be used to assist in furnishing the boys' sun parlors at O'teen.

Mrs. Maggie McEachern of Fayetteville, who was visiting among relatives and friends near Lumberton, arrived Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R.
McEachern, where she will spend several days.

Mrs. L. A. Lentz of our town was given a pleasant surprise last Sunday morning when a number of her children with their families began to roll in to enjoy Mother's day with her. A sumptuous dinner was served, each family bringing a separate lunch, which was attractively arranged on the family table. Thirty or more guests were present, which included Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bennet and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. C.
Thomas of Raeford; Mr. and Mrs.
Jess Bennet of Fayetteville, Mrs.
Jessie Lanier of Norwood, Mrs. J.
W. Bradley and children of Durham, Mrs. John K. McNeill and children from Raeford, Mr. and Mrs. J. C.
Lentz and children, city, Mr. L. A.
Lentz Jr. of Red Springs, and Mrs.
Minnie Shankle of Albemarle. Two of the children Mrs. J. E. Blalock of Benson and Mr. Devere Lentz of Wake Forest, were absent. Despite this and the heavy downpour of rain, there was nothing else to mar the beauty of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion McNeill, and brother, Mr. D. C. McNeill, motored over from Laurinburg yesterday for a shot visit in the home of Mrs.
McNeill's mother, Mrs. T. L. Northrup.

Miss Nonie Johnson arrived this morning from Currituck county, where she held the principalship of a junior high school out on Knott's Island the past season, school having closed Tuesday.

A sacred concert will be given Sunday afternoon in the M. E. church by the singing class from the Methodist orphanage at Raleigh, which our people are looking forward to with expectancy.

Baxter and Mable Esther Johnson, the two elder children of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnson, who reside on Armfield street, are victims of scarlet fever, their many friends regret to learn.

Miss Margaret McGeachy arrived Wednesday afternoon from near Mebane, where she was a member of the school faculty this season. She has with her one of her pupils, Miss Agnes Scott, who stopped over for a brief visit while enroute to Floa Macdonald college, where she will attend commencement.

Friends of Miss Maggie Wilkerson of Laurinburg were glad to have her come over for a short while yesterday afternoon, she having accompanied her brother, Robert, who was enroute to his farm beyond town. Both returned in the late afternoon.

Mr. Marion Howard, who taught in Sampson this season, has arrived home for the summer vacation.

Dr. R. G. Kozier's friends are glad to see him on the streets again following his recent illness.

Mesdames J. A. Johnson and N.
A. McEachern and Miss Mary Janet McNeill were Fayetteville visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Friends of Rev. R. L. Byrd, who resides near Tar Heel, regret to learn of his serious accident, which occurred Thursday while attending the Southern Baptist convention in Atlanta, Ga., where he was run over by an auto, suffering a broken leg. Mr. Byrd is a brother-in-law of Mr. Harry Fisher, formerly of Tar Heel, who last year moved to the McGeachy homestead beyond town.

Mrs. W. T. Rhodes of Godwin is spending this week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Guiton, to the delight of friends.

CURE MARKET OPENS 8:30; NO SALES BEFORE THAT HOUR.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

During the past few weeks there has been some confusion about the hour for the opening of the curb market. We wish to have a perfect understanding between the producer and the consumer and to render the most satisfactory service. Thus the doors will be opened at 8:30 exactly every Saturday morning, and no sales will be made before that time.
All producers are urged to be at the market promptly and we shall insist that no sales will be made before that hour.

On next Saturday we expect to have a large number of spring chickens along with dressed poultry, also all kinds of fresh vegetables and country produce.

house door in Lumberton, N. C., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real estate:

A one-half undivided interest in and to that tract of land situate in Wabart's township, near Bialah Church and School House; beginning on the east side of the public road at Downing's line and coming with said line to the run of Little Swamp; thence down said run to the run of Gum Swamp at the corner of Stephen Pittman and; thence to the run to the bridge at the road; thence up the road to the beginning corner, containing two hundred acres more or less and being the same land conveyed to H. J. Sawyer and Paul Baker by Nathan Pittman and wife by deed dated May 18th, 1923, and recorded in Book T-E, page 258, Robeson County Registry.

This April 30th, 1924.
