

VOL. LV .- VOL. NO. 81 .- SERIAL NO. 35.

LUMBERTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1924.

STABLISHED 1870. FRICE FIVE OF COUNTRY, GOD AND TRUTH,

Playmakers Delight Larga Austin Walters Is Arrested Audience At Red Springs In Georgia On Bigamy Charge

Prefer Charges Against Local Man -Married Miss Lula Franks of Vanceboro and Sent Wife No. 1 Word He Was Gone For Good-Had Been Married to First Wife 13 Years-Only Ohild Was Adopted After It Was Left on Front Porch DRAMATIC INCIDENT IN LIFE of Home of County Attorney.

WALTERS HAS POLICE RECORD.

Austin Walters of East Lumberton has been arrested in Moultrie, Ga., who betrayed them after gaining on charge of bigamy preferred aginst their confidence, and James McQueen, him by wife-No. 1 and Mrs. K. M. a white man of Robeson county, ap-Stewart of Vanceboro, sister of wife pearing upon the stage in a dramatic No. 2. Sheriff R. E. Lewis wired the incident in the history of the famous oficials in Oneida, Ga., yesterday to outlaws in Scuffletown gave a large arrest Walters, but according to a Robeson county audience at Flora letter Mrs. Walters No. 1 received Macdonald co'lege Mnday night many here last night, the Moultrie officers thrills and won from them, each and had already made the arrest.

founded when she was shown a letter and for the actors who so ably supreceived by the local police, stating ported him. that Austin Walters had married Miss Lula Franks, of Vanceboro, the cere- ers have won such high praise mony being performed in New Bern. throughout the State for their folk-The letter was sent after relatives of plays. The three plays they presented wife No. 2 heard that Walters had a at Red Springs before an appreciative living wife in Lumberton, and to con- audience that packed the large audifirm the report. The officers sent the torium at the college are so rich and necessary information post haste and full in flavor, so realistic, so admiras a result Walters was chused to ably iinterpreted, that you are lifted Moultrie and arrested.

Left 3 Weeks Ago. When interviewed here last night the familiar themes of song and sto-

Mrs. Waiters stated that she had not ry. heard from her husband since he left hear, however, through an uncle of and sweep "The Scuffeltown Outlaws' Walters', that her husband passed easily ranks ahead of the others. It fell to the floor dead. Sallie McArthrough Wilmington several days ago is the production of William Nor- thur was the only eye-witness and through Wilmington several days ago is the production of William and gave the above testimony at the in-and told his uncle to advise his wife ment Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom gave the above testimony at the in-ceived by Mrs. Stewart came at the most of the loss is covered by insurat Lumberton that he was "gone for Cox of Rowland, and its young auth- quest, concluding by saying that the good". She did not understand the or has achieved a notable success. Dr. woman who did the shooting ran out not dilated, that had it been a second good". She did not understand the or has achieved a hotable success the message until the news of the mar- Frederick H. Koch, director of the A S Prove who lives and the second later she would fire but were quickly put out. Mr. H. riage arrived.

Wife No. 1 and Sister of Wife No. 2 "The Scuffletown Outlaws" by William Norment Cox of Rowland Appeals With Tremendous Power to Audience Composed of Robeson County Folk—A Splendid Literary Production Admirably Presented.

OF ROBESON COUNTY OUTLAWS

Henry Berry Lowrie, his wife Rhody, his hiece June, his brother Steve, and John Saunders, the white man several, high praise for the young Mrs. Walters was almost dumb- Robeson county author of the play

> No wonder the Carolina, Playmakout of yourself and feel the tug of old familiar things and you live again

Each of the three plays presented between Walters and his first wife, Cox's work, and when the play was amination that he was notified of the between Walters and his first wife, coast work, and make the audience fully agreed shooting about 20 minutes after he two had always been pleasant. They so she says. "Of course we quarrel at presented that near $100,-times. Every married couple does with his estimate of the worth of heard the shot fired. He went to the lad not quarreled, nor had she left 000 damage by loss of building and times. Every married couple does with his estimate of house, struck a match and found the him, only for the perpose of nursing damaged goods. have. I have had a right to quarrel the leading role left nothing to be de- dead body lying on the floor. He im- her mother. Mrs. Stewart is considwith Austin, and Mr. Glover knows sired , and further local interest was mediately notified Rural Policeman ered a very fine woman, the pick of nity fought heroically and people it", she said. Mr. Glover (local police added by the fact that another Robe- J. H. Carper. In his testimony it was her community, it is stated. , she said. Mr. Glover (local police added by the lact that More Bob Proc-ficer) had during the past few son county young man, Mr. Bob Proc-shown that the pistol the woman car-Some are unpatriotic enough to and Hope Mills came in large num-

Jealous Negress Kills Man Mrs. Hugh Stewart's Condition And Awaits Trial In Jail

Buelah Suart Cursed, Assaulted With Piece of Wood and Finally Shot and Killed Ivan McDuffie-Tried to Get Him out of House-Used Big Army 44-Calibre Pistol-Returned After Shooting and Left Pistol on Dead Body-Captured

ONLY ONE EYE WITNESS.

Ivan McDuffie, colored, was shot the home of Wiley McDuffie, 5 miles west of Rowland, and Beulah Stuart, negress, charged with the shooting, where she was injured. was captured near the South Carolina line last night and is in jail here. Jealousy seemed to have been the motive for the shooting, as evidence at the coroner's inquest held yesterday showed that the woman went to the McDuffie house and immediately was excited when he got to the Mon- water were used before the fire was upon entering began cursing Ivan McDuffie. This not seeming to have the desired effect, she began striking him with a piece of wood. She evidently wanted to get Ivan out of the house, as the evidence also showed that she took his hat off of his head, went out of the house and stayed a few minutes. Ivan remained in the house and she returned, placed his hat on his head, and went to looking for something. After searching his suitcase she found his pistol, and drew it on him, at the same time using profanity, with threats of killing. McDuffie thought it was time to be tearing a big hole in his breast. He alongside his wife.

Last Night.

Playmakers organization, was espe- A. S. Bracy, who lives near the have been killed instantly. There has been no great trouble cially pronounced in his praise of Mr. scene of the shooting, stated on ex-

Further Account of the Disastrous Shows Some Improvement Fire Monday-P. T. A. Will Raise Library Fund for School-Basketball-Oyster Supper and Other Husband Crazed With Drink and Ap-Items. By C. D. Williamson

Parkton Letter

at 7:30 o'clock that the Hutson Bros.

store was on fire. The fire was discovered on the second floor, and it is thought it caught in some trash by roaring flames, and Fayetteville was to fight the dedence.

for 2 years only.

defective stove flue.

Some soon began

parently Had Considered Murder Parkton, Nov. 18-One of the most and Suicide Before Reaching House -Wife Was Visiting Sick Mother, exciting fires of our town was yesterday morning when it was discovered

NO PREVIOUS TROUBLE

By H, C. MacNair. Maxton, Nov. 19-The condition of

Mrs. Hugh Stewart, who was shot and seriously injured by her husband Sun- flames, with buckets, while others and instantly killed Tuezday night at day night, is showing some improve- were removing goods from the stores. ment, according to report from her It was soon evident that the water last night. She is still at her mother's power was insufficient to check the called on for aid, and the fire Crazed With Drink. It is believed that young Stewart partment rusl ed one of their fire was crazed with drink, and there is trucks, making the 15 miles trip in evidence that he may have had the 17 minutes. The A. C. L. Ry. Co. also killing under consideration before he rendered aid by the hose attaching to reached the house. It appears that he the locomotive tank. Several tanks of roe home, and immediately insisted completely outed. The engine tanks upon knowing when Mrs. Stewart hold 8,000 gallons water. was going home with him. To this in- The building that was completely quiry she replied, "I cannot go and burned was the Campbell and Thompleave mother sick." He then exclaim- son building, and two stores and one ed, "Louise, we are both going some- barber shop occupied the building. where tonight". She replied, "Hugh Hutson Bros. carried a heavy stock don't you start anything, as it might of dry goods, notions, hardware and excite mother." It was then that she groceries, and their loss by fire and went to the telephone and called up damaged goods is heavy. Next was C. a neighbor and asked that someone L. Pittman's fancy grocery. His loss come over, stating that Hugh was is probably as bad as Hutson Bros. there and drinking. While still at the in proportion, as he only saved a small phone he walked up to within a few part of his goods. J. B. Koonce, barfeet and took deliberate aim and fir- ber, only saved one chair from the ed, the shot taking effect just above building. L. E. Hughes was damaged changing position, so he walked into the heart. She fell and immediately to the amount of several thousand about & weeks ago to work on the on this ceventh year of the Playmakabout & weeks ago to work on the on this teventh year of the Flaymak-Vanceboro tobacco market. She did ers is a gem, but in dramatic power fired the big army 44-calibre pistol, blew his own brains out, falling Grantham drug store suffered considerable by damaged goods, also the

The Second That Saved. Parkton Grocery and W. G. Britt by The doctors say that the shot re- damaged goods. We are advised that second of time that the heart was ance. Several other buildings caught on

C. McMillan's residence and some No Domestic Troubles out-louses caught but were put out

The family relations between the by the bucket brigade. It was estimated that near $100,-

The town and surrounding commufrom Lumber Bridge, St. Paul, Rex

Items of Local News Lea Tells Co-ops Something Must Be Done Immediatelu to go to Bennettsville tomorrow night

SIGNING FOR ONLY 2 YEARS.

ed to Control Price.

-There will be a special Thanks-Predicts Overproduction in 1923giving sale at the curb market Satur-South Georgia Will Raise As Much day and somebody is going to get a Tobacco as South Carolina Belt- free turkey. Only 24 Percent of Tobacco Raised __Mr. Furman Biggs left Tuesday in S. C. Belt Delivered to Associa- night for the Northern markets, tion in 1924-Fifty Percent Need-for K. M. Biggs' department store.

prayermeetings announced for to-Mr. W. E. Lea of Florence, S. C., Thursday night of next week on acfield director of the Tobacco Co-oper- count of church services. ative Marketing association, was the -The condition of Miss Elizabeth principal speaker at the regular Frye, county welfare officer, who unmonthly meeting of members of the derwent a serious operation at Highcotton and tobacco associations held smith's hospital in Favetteville a in the court house here Tuesday.

week ago, is improving nicely. He spoke for nearly 2 hours, plead--The game of football between the ing with the loyal members to get to local high school team and the Whitework and sign up their tenants, neigh- ville hi's which was to have been playbors, and anybody else that was eligi-ble. He asked for the co-operation of Whiteville lads on account of sickness members of locals, stating that some- and injuries among the players.

-Miss Sadie Kinlaw expects to rething had to be done to overcome the turn tomorrow to her home in Columoverproduction which would likely come in 1925. In 1922 only 36.1 per- bia, S. C. She attended the funeral and burial of her father, Mr. Frank cent of the tobacco grown in the Kinlaw, who died suddenly in a board-South Carolina belt was delivered to ing house here last week.

the association, and in 1923 a fraction -Those wishing to contribute to less. In 1924 only 24 percent was de- the Thanksgiving dinner for the livered to the association. This he county home inmates are requested waid, was almost unbearable, and the to send their contribution to the members had to go to work for them- homes of Mrs. W. W. Parker or Mrs. selves. In this connection he said that if the association could receive 50 week. According to those in charge, percent of the tobacco grown the 2 home-made cakes will be greatly price could be controlled, explaining appreciated. that the only reason a good price was

-The condition of Mr. J. P. Townmaintained this year was kind provi- send, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Baker sanatorium

South Georgia will make more to-bacco in 1925 than the South Caroli-ed. Mrs. Van Edwards, who was a South Georgia will make more tona belt, he declared. Now is the time patient at the Thompson hospital at to get the tenants and landlords in the time of the fire, will return to her the association, because they are in a home tday from the sanatorium, more favorable frame of mind than where she has been since the fire. they have been since the association -New automatic scales recently was started.

have been installed in the local post-He again asked for the co-operaoffice. Postmaster I. L. McGill also tion of the members and in closing has received notice that an electric said that anyone signing now would cancelling machine has been shipped not be signing a 5-year contract but which will be installed in a few days. Maxton Department

This is the most up-to-date equipment, the same as that used in the government building at Washington. and it will no doubt greatly facilitate the dispatching of the mails in this

- By H. C. MacNair office. -Dr. R. C. Beaman left this morn-Maxton, Nov. 19-Pumps had to be bers and rendered aid, for which the thawed this morning before any waing for his home at Tarboro after that this was all because of the ville and the A. C. L. Ry. Co. we ex- uine killing frost. Ice was in abun- visiting friends here since Monday, coming to Lumberton from Wilming-Miss Reba MacNair is at home ton after the close of the Methodist goods to the Thompson building on resting after her recent operation at conference. He conducted prayermeetthe west side the railroad; C. L. Pitt- Greensboro, where she has been in ing last evening at Chestnut Street Methodist church, which he served Gillis old store, while Mr. Joe Koonce Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Greene and Mr. as pastor for 6 years prior to conferand Mrs. A. C. Greene were week- ence last year. Dr. Beaman has a host The following names have been end visitors in Charlotte, where they of warm friends in Lumberton who handed me for special mention: Engi- visited Miss Marjorie McLeod at are always delighted to have him neers and firemen, R. Patterson, Dun- Queen's college. They attended the visit them. He made headquarters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Long-Gone Days Recalled. Barnes.

where he will purchase holiday goods -Men's Christian league cottage

-Several from here are expecting see the play "Seventh Heaven".

EIGHT

PAGES TODAY

at the time Walters left she said, "no ed among the Lowrie gang for two The scene of the shooting is near amendment, that had it not been for tend more than thanks. more than usual", and she thought years in order to betray them. His the South Carolina line. everything was all right. It tragic death at the hands of Steve The inquest was held and it was only 2 months afterwards Proctor acts the part admirably. In she be held for higher court when Red Cross Roll that the ceremony was performed. fact, all the amateur playmakers do arrested. They lived happily in Duke for about superb acting, and one forgets that 2 months, moving then to Barnesville, they are supposed to be amateurs. in the lower part of this county, where they lived for a few years with Mr. Walters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asper Walters. Then they moved to

Into the mercantile business on a small scale. He seemed to do well with the business until last, July, when the place and of North Carolina a means of express.
Captain Chas. J. Smith of Fort state. They fitter reconcections of long-gone days, when the life of our State. They fitter reconcections of long-gone days, when the life of our State. They fitter reconcections of long-gone days, when the life of our State. They have remained steadfast to their original purpose of giving to the people when the place and of the place and of the place and of North Carolina a means of express. tage for beverage purposes. He paid tory, in the tales and in the songs of a heavy fine and costs.

long police record, having been con- day, a rich and interesting field ready son county, North Carolina, whose victed of violating the fish laws, for to their use. operating a gambling device, and other lesser crimes.

There is only one child in the Walters' home, an infant which was only a few months ago left on the front porch of the home of County Attornany children of their own, made application for and adopted the child.

At the home last night were 2 brothers of Walters', neighbors and friends who seemed to be in sympathy with Mrs. Walters, who in her new experience seemed at a loss to know just what to do. She will likely return to the home of her people in Duke until disposit on is made of the case against Walters.

Fiddlers' Convention at B. T. M. a Success.

About 15 fiddlers and banjo-pickers participated in the fiddlers' convention at Barker-Tenmile school last fee and his young "Marse Robert" and affection by two years residence Friday night and door receipts rode the same horse to mill and ate with them as a missionary, and his were $10, $5, $3, and $2, and they were won by the following: Fiddle: first prize, A. D. Cashwell, who lives near Fayetteville; second, a Mr. Webb. Banjo: first prize, a Mr. Sessoms; second, a Mr. Franklin of St. Paul.

A large crowd attended, including a number from Lumberton.

Box Supper.

There will be an entertainment and timate view of the homels but wholebox supper next Wednesday night at some life in the remote fastnesses of 7:30 at the Long Branch school house. our Carolina nills It is replete with Corner 2nd. & Chestnut Sts.

years arrested Walters on charges of tor of Lumberton, was one of the ried out the house and the one which say that Hugh was crazy on account years arrested Walters on charges of the fatal shot was lying on the of the kind of liquor he was drinking, town extends thanks. But to Fayette- ter could be had. This is the first genthere was any trouble between them white man from Nova Scotia, who liv- dead body.

The Playmakers

Watson Winston, now of Chapel Hill.

The stage settings were designed

"The honor of Bonava presents a of

picture of the old South in Reconstruction days. Its author, Judge Ro-

North Carolina, is well qualified to interpret these troubled times in our history. The chief incident of the play is taken from the life of a much Le-loved Carolinian-a captam in the large slave owner. Many a time Cufwas found that, by her will, slie had given her all to "Young Marse Rob-

"Politicin' In Horse Cove, by Martha

bert Watson Winston, former'y

member of the Superior court

George Denny.

Confederate army.

ert".

"The Carolina Playmakers

tragic death at the Lands of Steve The inquest was held Lowrie after he had repented too morning by Coroner D. W. Biggs. The September 2, 1924, marked the 13th late, and the dramatic moment when jury was composed of Messrs. E. P. anniversary of the wedding of Austin the young Indian girl June, whose Bryant, W. A. Groom, J. T. Norton, Walters and Sarah Ham, which took love he had won and whose fidelity S. H. Hammon, Ed. Bryant and E. C. place 4 miles west of Dunn, the cere- had saved him until she learned that Sinclair. Their verdict was that Ivan mony being performed by a magis- he had played her false too-all is so McDuffie came to his death as the retrate. They became acquainted at a well conceived and so well portrayed sult of a pistol-shot wound inflicted little church one mile east of Duke, that one is lost in admiration. Mr. by Beulah Stuart, and ordered that

> -Dr. E. R. Hardin, county health The following is taken from the officer, expects to leave Saturday Correspondence of The Robesonian. printed program and tells briefly the night for New Orleans ,La., where outstanding features of the plays: have scheduled to take part on the pro- November 24.

as a result he was convicted in Re- of North Carolina a means of expres- mor. It is a play of election day, corder W. B. Ivey's court of retailing sion, in simple folk-plays. They have 'the biggest day in all the year' ir found in the store of legend and his- the little mountain settlement.

"The Scuffletown Outlaws deals the village and the country people, with a dramatic incident in the histand in the aramatic happenings of to- ory of the Croatan Indian's of Robesity, among them a distinguished citi- had disappeared mysteriously from appreciated by all who heard.

North Carolina, by 1590. "The author of the play, William ty.

leaders in the campaign organized to and fine neighbors. exterminate them; a kinsman of his, Folks in this section are his own doorstep; and several other day in this section. relatives were wounded in defending Mr. Ed McRowan, Mr. Boyd Davis in wagons to the frontiers of Texas. Smyrna, "Judge Winston's father was a His betrayal of them, after having Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Lamb mounted to $95. The prizes offered from the same plate. The author pays tragic death at the hands of Steve Proposed Concert at Tabernacle Calla tender tribute to his own colored Lowrie, the meanest of the bandits, mammy, old Aunt Charlotte. She are true to the facts. The author has nursed him as an infant, and in her interpreted his materials with arms he cried away the pain of many markable sincerity, and with a stubbed toe. When she came to die, breadth of sympathy unusual in the shortly after the date of the play, it young writer."

PROMPT SERVICE

tha Boswel of Brovard, presents an in-FULLER'S SERVICE STATION

the poison stuff both would now be Huson Bros. have moved yesterday living uninjured and happy.

Men's Prayermeeting In Court House Each Morning 8:30 to 9 Including Sunday

Fairmont, Nov. 19-Join the Red men will never be forgotten. he will attend a meeting of the Sou- Cross! The Red Cross roll drive will

SMYRNA NEWS ITEMS

By H.' R. Church

forefathers are thought by some in- Sandy Baxley of St. Pauls were Sun-34, the university course in dramatic earliest childhood has lived within a moved to Dr. H. T. Pope's place in the tion. In the forward march of the production, under the direction of Mr. stone's throw of the Scuffletown habi- Long Branch section. Sorry to lose school system at Parkton, Prof. Partat of the notorious Lowrie gang in them from the community, for they rott says that he does not want to ad-Robeson county. His forefathers were were earnest workers in the church, vance the high school without equally million dollars have been advanced to recently.

Mr. O. C. Norment, was shot down their hogs by cholera, therefore hog- are recognized as a vital integral or- since the beginning of the present from ambush by them a few feet from killing seems to be the order of the ganic part of public system.

of John Sanders to assist the Croa- they attended the baptizing, Master school. tans in making their escape by night Austin Hayes being a candidate from > were son Mr. Bufus Lamb.

ed Off.

The musical concert that was to re- have been given at the Tabernacle school house Friday night of this ing to Mr. C. R. Britt of Howellsville, who was a Lumberton visitor yesterday.

-The condition of Mrs. K. M. Biggs, who has been taking special treatment at the Baker sanatorium, is very much improved.

dance.

their man placed his groceries in the J. D. college. city barber, is clean out, so far.

can Johns, K. M. Long, who so faith- Carolina-Davidson football game. fully discharged their duty in rushing water from the A. C. L. tanks. We

The Carolina Playmakers at Red Call At Fairmont have never seen faster work. The at- Springs Monday night was attended titude of these faithful riends both of by quite a number of the young peothe railroad and the Fayetteville fire- ple. They report a good time, and were enthused over the tale of the Lowery Parkton graded 'school receives gang. The older folks who did not atthern Medical association. He is be in Fairmont the week beginning state aid for the establishment of an tend enjoyed the revivification of elementary school library. The sum of their recollections of long-gone days, Chairman Fairmont Chapter. 1-13 to supplement the State appro- course at Carolina college was pre- tives.

priation. State aid cannot be used for sented Monday night, filled by the purchasing supplementary readers, so Richmond Little Symphony orchestra. the P. T. A. has unanimously voted to It was highly enjoyed by an appre- a short while last Saturday in St. Pauls. support movement to supplemint the ciative audience.

mentary readers. The board of educa-morning for Bennettsville, where he "These folk-plays present to Play- vestigators to have absorbed Sir Wal- day visitors at the home of Mr. J. H. tion recommends three sets for every joined Senator John L. McLaurin. all student-playwrights in the univer-earliest English settlers in America, ed us a fine sermon, which was fully ing the patrons and friends of the stay in Florida.

zen of North Carolina, Judge Robert Fort Raleigh on Roanoke Island, Mr. Cleveland Odum of St. Paul twenty books to the set. Today the LARGE ADVANCES TO MEMBERS was a Sunday visitor in this communi- elementary schools of North Carolina OF N. C. CO-OP ASSOCIATION. day.

ed Since Beginning of Present season. Raleigh, Nov. 18-More than four advancing the elementary school, for members of the North Carolina Cotlosing today, he says, the elementary schools ton Growers' Cooperative association, season, according to a statement is-tron and friend of the school to do his information, last night. The exact fitheir homes against their ravages. and Mr. T. F. Stone were Sunday or her bit toward making the ele- gures up to the close of business Nov- needed work on the roads around "The play centers about the scheme visitors at West Lumberton, where mentary school of Parkton a standard ember 15 were $4,288,161.29.

sociation warehouses rapidly and the Sunday afternoon.

home last week and holds a position the receipts of the same week last year. This week started off with very Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Humble left heavy receipts, Monday bringing reports of over 3,000 bales delivered.

Miss Novella Hodges of Laurinburg and Mrs. M. F. Hodges Sr. of R. Meeting of Co-op Local. 6 from Lumberton spent the week-end East Fifth street.

The oyster supper Thursday night, ders are the sponsors.

Tar Heel Topics.

Protracted Meeting-Road Force Doing Much-Needed Work-Work on New School Building-Personal. Correspondence of The Robesonian. Tar Heel, Nov. 19-Rev. Ralz Baxley began a protracted meeting here last Friday night. Mr. W. T. Hall of Lumberton spent Sunday here with friends and rela-

Mr. Thomas Jordan, Mrs. W. J. Monroe and Miss Ruby Monroe spent

Smyrna, Nov. 18-Rev. and Mrs. library with the necessary supple- Mr. Campbell McNair left this Mrs. Mollie Singletary has returned home after spending several months with her son-in-law and maker audiences three new authors, ter Raleigh's Lost Colony. These, the Prevatt, and Mr. Baxley also preach- grade. However, the faculty is ask- They will leav ethere for an indefinite daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brock of Louisburg.

Mr. D. W. McDuffie spent a short while in Elizabethtown last Satur-

Miss Sallie Lewis is visiting her sister here, Mrs. J. McK. Robeson. Mrs. Sallie Averitt and two children, Shepard and Eugene, visited friends and relatives in Abbottsburg

Mrs. D. W. McDuffie spent last Friday in St. Pauls.

Messrs. R. W. Courtney and Jas. Robeson went to Elizabethtown one sued by T. W .Chambliss, director of day last week on business.

The road force is doing some muchhere.

The present crop is considerably Work is rapidly being done on the later than it was in the fall of 1)23 new school building, which will be a but the percentage of deliveries to nice building when completed.

date is larger, despite the shortness Rev. Mr. Pait of Bladenboro preachof the crop. Cotton is coming to as- ed at the Baptist church here last

Cotton Market

Middling cotton is quoted on the local market today at 23 1-2 cents the pound.

There will be a meeting of the here in the home of Mrs, E. Parham, Pembroke local of the tobacco growers in the co-op association in Pemthe 20th, at the armory promises to broke at the Normal school building be the biggest social function of the Friday night at 7:30. Ex-Senator Geo. season. The K. of P.and Maschic or- B. McLeod of Lumberton will make the principal address.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin McNeill came up Sunday afternoon, visiting home folks and taking their two children. established himself in their confidence Sunday visitors at the home of their Helen Marie and Justin Jr., back home, who came up Friday evening.

with the Dixie Service station.

port was that the game was good, the ing 18 out of the 20.

school for only two sets at this time, are being standardized something sicy E. J. Birt by unknown Mr. and Mrs. Walters, not having and made by the students in English Norment Cox, of Rowland, since his Mr. David Davis and family have milar to the high school classifica- More Than 4 Million Dollars Advanc-

Mr. J. T. McNatt of Raleigh arrived deliveries last week were far beyond

Saturday for a visit to Durham.

On last Friday evening the Lumber week by the blind Johnson brothers of Bridge high school basketball team Lumberton will not be given, accord- came over and played the return practice game with the local highs. The writer was absent, but the re-> locals winning 6 to 20. Prof. Foglemen, referee, William Blouni scor-

The professor calls upon every pa-