ESCAPED CONVICT AGAIN IN TOILS OF LAW FOR ROBBERY

Andrew Hamer Admits Escaping From State Prison 2 Months Ago chandise Valued at $200.

SOLICITOR F. E. CARLYLE

Andrew Hamer, negro, escaped leigh, was tried before Recorder P. hands. S. Kornegay Saturday morning on a charge of storebreaking and bound over to Superior court.

It was in evidence that Hamer and Floyd Braswell, also colored, hired a Ford car from another negro who lives in Red/Springs Thursday night, and after robbing Mr. W. R. Tyner's store at Lowe of merchandise valued at about $200, started back to Red Springs. When near that town the Ford refused to run and the robbers were forced to remove their loot to the near-by woods, where they were found by officers
