McLean Defends Salary And Wage Commission

Charges "Some Designing Person" With Attempting to Discredit His Work.

RALEIGH, April 27.—In a statement issued Sunday, Governor McLean defends the appointment of the salary and wage commission authorized by the 1925 session of the general assembly to fix the pay of all subordinate state employees and charges "some designing persons" with attempting to discredit his work.

"Unfortunately, there seems to be either a very great misunderstanding of the purpose of the salary and wage commission," says the Governor's statement, "or a systematic effort on the part of a few to discredit the work of the commission. Members of the last general assembly know very well I recommended the creation of the salary and wage commission and the public, I think, understood at the time."

The heaviest shocks was reported from the region around Louisville and Owensboro, Ky. Tonight's disturbance was the most widespread of any recorded in this region in many years. No reports of the shock were received from points north of Central Illinois and apparently the belt did not reach south of the Ohio river to any extent.

Negro Commits Horrible Crime on Child.

Morganton, April 24.—A horrible crime was perpetrated on a little twelve year-old deaf girl at the school for the deaf here this morning by Arthur Montague, a negro employe of the school, who was found about six o'clock asleep in the bed which had been occupied by the child. The negro was immediately placed in the county jail but excitement became so tense the officials thought it wise, out of an abundance of precaution, to remove him to another county for safe keeping. Sheriff Michaux hurried him off to Catawba county but later information is that Solicitor Huffman ordered him taken to Raleigh.

SOMERSET SUES BUILDING CONCERN FOR BIG DAMAGES

Asks for $50,000 From Ebeam Construction Co.—Fell From Fifth Floor Planters Bank Building in December—Alleges Defendant Failed to Give Proper Signal at Right Time—Complaint Says Defendant is Unable to Work.

ALLEGES INSUFFICIENT HELP FOR HAZARDOUS WORK.

Damages in the sum of $50,000 are asked in a suit started in Superior court here by M. D. Somerset against the J. E. Ebeam Construction Co., for alleged negligence which caused the plaintiff to suffer permanent injury when he fell from the fifth story of the new Planters Bank & Trust Co. building. An answer has not been filed.

It is set out in the complaint that on the 11th day of last December the plaintiff was in the employ of the defendant company, and that his duties required him to assist in hoisting and placing steel girders more than 50 feet above the ground; that while working on the fifth story of the building a signal was given the hoisting engineer to loosen the cable to which Somerset was holding; that the cable was loosened, and as a result the plaintiff fell to the basement of the building, crushing his skull, and badly mangle his body; that as a result of his injury he is no longer able to work in any capacity.

It is alleged that he still suffers "torturous" pain, both of mind and body. The defendant is also charged with failure in carrying out a promise to the defendant that more competent help would be secured to assist in the hazardous work.

H. E. STACY SPEAKS AT FINALS OF LAUREL INSTITUTE FRIDAY

Commencement Exercises Concluded Friday Afternoon With Primary Department Exercises—Ex-Senator G. B. McLeod Makes Short Talk to Indians Who Saved the Day.

Finals of Laurel institute, one of Robeson's most progressive and wide-awake Indian schools, were concluded Friday with exercises by the primary department in the afternoon. The higher grades had charge of the morning exercises, and the address of the occasion was delivered by ex-Senator H. E. Stacy of Lumberton.

Ex-Senator Geo. B. McLeod introduced Mr. Stacy after what he called a heart-to-heart talk with the people who have saved the day for the Indian race. Mr. McLeod spoke for many minutes on the great improvements that had been made since he used to attend commencement in the little one-room building which had been torn away years ago. He mentioned the peace and dignity of the affair now and compared it with hoots, shouts and boisterousness of a few years ago. He urged the people of that district to continue to move forward in educational work, and his speech was a delight to everyone present.

Mr. Stacy told of great men who had been responsible for the great awakening throughout the state educationally. Besides the men, Mr. Stacy said that the great awakening was the direct result of the World War. He quoted the late President Graham of the university of North Carolina, who said that after the World War there would be a broadening of educational work as never before. "This is from now on will be fought out, instead of fought out," Mr. Stacy said.

HINDENBURG ELECTED PRESIDENT OF GERMANY.

First President of Germany Elected by Popular Vote. Berlin, April 26.—The people of Germany have rallied to the banner of Field Marshal von Hindenburg and elected him president of the republic. He is the first president of Germany to be elected by popular ballot. He was nominated by the nationalist-conservative bloc to replace Dr. Karl Jaraes, who failed of election in the first balloting on March 29. His opponent was Dr. Wilhelm Marx, candidate of the republican bloc, adherents of the Welmar coalition composed of centrists, socialists and democrats. The third candidate was Ernst Thaelmann, communist.

Von Hindenburg triumphed in his race for the presidency with a majority vote of 845,000 votes. The unofficial final figures are: von Hindenburg, 14,639,000; Marx, 13,740,000; Thaelmann, 1,789,000.

Von Hindenburg comes to the chair once occupied by Friedrich Ebert, who was chosen president by the national assembly at Weimar in February, 1919, and who died in Berlin in February, 1925.

The women's votes and a heavy turnout of former stay-at-home voters elected the field marshal.

RED SPRINGS NEWS

High School Finals Begin May 29—A Novel Recital—Letz Quartet Delights.

BALL TEAM IN STATE RACE.

Correspondence of The Robesonian.

Red Springs, Apr. 26.—The commencement programme has been announced here for the high school. It will begin May 29. The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered on the last Sunday in May; Dr. W. S. Hill of Fayetteville will deliver the address at the graduation exercises June 3rd; on the evening of June 4th the senior class play, "Golden Days," will be presented. The primary grade exercises, which will begin the commencement week, will start May 29 or May 31st, the definite date will be later announced by T. L. Duncan, the superintendent. The 21 members composing the senior class are Misses Willie McDaniel, Lenell Odum, Mae Mercer, Dorothy Toon, Miriam Watson, Frances Newton, Mary McMillan, Flora McKinnon, Catherine Gibson, Ruby Powell, Berline Ratley; Messrs. Leroy Thaggard, Dan Klarrp, William Kay, Claude and Clyde Moody, John McKinnon, George Spell, Murphy Singleton, John T. McNeill Jr., and James McKay.

Mrs. Williamson, nee Lois Faires, an F. M. C. alumna, was an interesting visitor to the college last week, when she gave an address on Mexico Sunday night in the auditorium. Mrs. Williamson is a missionary to that field from the Southern Presbyterian church.

Visitors in town for the Letz quartette which gave a concert this past Monday were: Mr. and Mrs. Wharton, Miss Katherine Wharton and Miss Jane Dickson Vardell, who came down through the country from Greensboro.

Miss Ruth Vardell is in Red Springs staying with her mother, Mrs. C. Y. Vardell, at the new McEachern home. Miss Vardell expects to be here until the last of May.

Mrs. Hammond left Red Springs last week for Atlanta, Ga. She was wired of a family reunion being held there, and will be gone for a while.

A most novel recital was given last Friday here in the graded school building in the afternoon and in the evening. Miss McRuer who is "Whistling" for Christian education in the Southern Presbyterian church, gave one of the most unique and fascinating recitals ever heard here. Miss McRuer whistles in her throat and to describe the bird-like melody that pours forth would be impossible.

When quite young, she lost her teeth and found then that she could still whistle—only in her throat. The recital was for the schools here. Mrs. Robeson and Miss Mandeville assisted her.

Red Springs has continued to win all baseball games, and is now in the State race for the championship for a positive fact. The first game on schedule in the elimination series was with Chapel Hill last week. Chapel Hill forfeited, however, and Red Springs has advanced automatically towards their goal. Never has such enthusiasm been displayed about sport as now for the victorious baseball team. The local players have a large and interested retinue of followers.

The well-known Letz quartette delighted the people of the surrounding community last Monday evening in Flora Macdonald college auditorium. From the opening strains of a beautiful Beethoven quartette, the musicians had the rapt attention of the audience. Beethoven was followed by a charming Suite of Debussy in 4 movements. The tone color, shading, delicacy of touch and perfect blend, however, the four players fully justified their name of being one of the best and foremost quartettes in America.

FAIRMONT LETTER

Old Fiddlers' Convention May 8—U. D. C. Birthday Tea Night of April 28—Mrs. J. F. Johnson Hostess to Aid Society—Personal.

By Mrs. H. G. Inman. Fairmont, Apr. 25.—The Parent-Teachers association met Monday April 20. On account of the funeral of little Lawrence Fisher Floyd, only a few members were present. They voted to buy three elementary readers in order to make the elementary grades a standard school. The fourth and ninth grades won the picture.

There will be an old fiddlers convention under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers association at the school auditorium Friday night, May 8th. Everybody is invited to attend as there will be plenty of music on a variety of instruments.

Birthday Tea April 28. The Gus Floyd Chapter of the U. D. C. will give a birthday tea Tuesday night at 8, April 28th, in the school auditorium. Everybody is invited, including the pupils in the high school. Each person going is supposed to carry a penny for each year of their age, and we might add here that if there are any who do not want to let their age it will be perfectly all right and we are sure no questions will be asked if they just drop a dollar in the basket.

A committee is at work arranging a program that will be worth while; and last, but not least, there will be refreshments.

The Aid society of the Baptist church was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. J. F. Johnson at her home on Church street. After the business was disposed of an interesting program was enjoyed. The first number was a "seed contest." Messdames W. T. Sledge and Charlie Webster, answering the most questions, were presented a beautiful bouquet of flowers. Miss Mary Ethel Lewis delightfully sang "O Sole Mio," while Mesdames Burke W. Pittman and Charlie D. Baker sang in a beautiful manner "Moon of the Springtime," after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. P. Jones, Misses Mirtha Traynham, Flora Griffin and Mildred Davis, served delicious lemon punch and Charlotte Russe, followed by salted nuts in fancy little boxes made by the hostesses little daughter, Kathleen.

The May meeting will be held with Mrs. Jet Lewis and it is hoped that each member attend.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Ellis and little son, William F. Jr., of Lloyds, Virginia, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Thompson and children of Winston-Salem and Dr. Paul H. Thompson of Wake Forest spent the Easter holidays at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Thompson. It was indeed pleasant for all the children and grandchildren to be together at Easter time. It was a regular spring tonic for "Mr. Charlie", whose condition remains about the same. We hope that he will soon be well and out on the streets everyday and back at his clerical work, where he is missed so much.

Mrs. E. L. Vinson, who underwent a serious operation in the Charlotte sanatorium, was so much improved that she was able to come home to recuperate.

Mrs. Edward McFarlan of Wilson was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Grantham.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Pittman and little daughter, Mabel, in company with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Floyd, spent Saturday in Bennettsville, McColls, Clio and Laurinburg eating dinner with friends in Clio.

Miss Clara Lewis, student nurse at James Walker Memorial hospital, Wilmington, attended the funeral of her aunt Mrs. Mollie Lewis Griffin. She also spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Artemus Lewis.

The many friends of Mr. Lee Caudell will be sorry to learn that he is in a Florence hospital in a serious condition with internal goster.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Webster of Loris, S. C., spent Wednesday in the city. Mrs. Webster has just returned from a visit to relatives in Washington, Baltimore and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Grantham and children spent Wednesday in Pinehurst.

LEGIONNAIRES NOT WILLING TO GIVE UP PRESENT HOME

Would Vacate Now, However, if Own Hut Could Be Built on Town Property—Would Mean Death to Local Unit of Organization to Give Up Hill Now—Statement of Kiwanian Terrific Blow to Members of Legion.

COMMITTEE TO RAISE ENDOWMENT FUND DEFICIT

Lumberton post No. 42 of the American legion in meeting Thursday night went on record as fully endorsing the movement to aid the public library in the town of Lumberton, and offered its support in the work.

Legionnaire W. B. Ivey was appointed a committee to report to the Lumberton Kiwanian club that the legion endorsed the movement, but that members of the legion, to a man, did not approve the idea of giving the hall now used by the legion to the library association to be used as a library. The hall, it was stated in meeting, was tendered to the local post when the municipal building was erected, to be used as a home for the legion as long as it was needed. There was no time limit placed on it, and the vacating of this public property is entirely with the commissioners of the town.

Discussion of the proposition lasted for more than an hour. Many of the legionnaires present were extremely anxious to offer the hall to the library association, but they could see the death of the local post, as soon as there was no home for it. No other place in the town of Lumberton could be as well suited for the legionnaires, unless it would be a hut of its own location on the same lot as the municipal building. Many were anxious to see a hut built, but no definite action was taken, except to instruct Mr. Ivey to make it clear to the Kiwanians that the post would not give up the present hall, except under protest, until a suitable hut could be built to care for the $1,500 worth of furnishings that have been placed in the present home.

Some Kiwanian Thursday Night. Attendance Thursday night was the largest at a meeting of the legion in months, and enthusiasm ran high. Some of the world war heroes felt that someone was trying to take a home away from them, and they spoke in bitter terms of the manner in which some had talked about the organization. It was reported in the Kiwanian club had said that he did not approve of the legion hall as the proper location for a library, but that he was using his efforts to break up the rowdiness that had been going on in the hall, and get the legion out of the town's property.

This was a terrific blow to the members and officers of the soldier organization, and Commander Ed J. Gover and Chief of Police D. C. Barker, both ex-servicemen with brilliant records as soldiers, stated that they were in position to know if anything wrong was going on there, and that they could not see any reason for the statement of the Kiwanian. One ex-commander of the post stated that he had always kept in close touch with the legion hall and that unless the Kiwanian had blacklisted the organization on account of the boxing matches that had been held in the hall, he could see no reason for the utterance. Boxing, he said, was taught in the army, and was one of the sports which kept the men in good spirits. The occasional bouts held at the hall have caused many of the ex-soldiers to feel that they were members of a real organization which brought back to memory the few good things connected with the war.

Serious attention was called to the endowment fund for orphans of soldiers and ex-soldiers, and a committee was appointed to clear the slight deficit which was made when the quota of $416 was reported raised.

Sartorial Stars at Gun Shot Won Engraved Cup.

Messrs. J. L. Stephens and D. W. Biggs, dolled up in knickers and posing as who's who visitors from Pinehurst, were the bright particular stars at the Lumberton Gun club shoot last Thursday afternoon and treasure as a memento of the occasion an engraved cup which all agreed they fairly won for looking so cute. Their costumes fitted so soon and otherwise were so up to snuff that every other shooter was consumed with envy. Some of them thought that a nether garment extending below the knees with a knicker suit was peculiarly effective and soon would be all the style.

It is not claimed that Messrs. Stephens and Biggs were the "shooting stars" at the shoot, but they were more fearfully and wonderfully arrayed than anybody else and so walked away with the "cup", which was especially engraved for them.
