Fayetteville district. Miss Cora Odum's many friends gladly welcomed her from Kennedy Memorial home, near Kinston, where for sometime she has held a very responsible position, for a 2-weeks vacation, which was spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Opie Odum, returning Tuesday to resume her duties as matron there. Miss Odum or "Cora," as she is known among us here, speaking in highest terms of "our county's best" in the way of news, gave us her subscription to The Robesonian on the morning of her departure in order to keep in touch with the "home news," which would be a "bright idea" for others going away, to follow, as well as local ones, whose subscriptions, whether "new or old," we gladly welcome.

Miss Mary Blue, daughter of Mr. Willie Blue of our town, spent Sunday in Laurinburg with her friend Miss Eloise Throver.

Misses Janie McIntyre and Ruth Stewart of Rennett and Vass, respectively, returned to their homes Thursday last week, following several days' visit to their friend and cousin, Miss Agnes Stewart.

Mr. Elias Johnson of Lincolnton spent the week-end among relatives and with Mrs. Johnson and little son, who have been spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Butler.

Mr. "Bobbie" Little of Raeford, who visited several days among his uncles and aunts in our town, returned home last Sunday. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gilchrist Little, former residents of St. Paul, whose numerous friends among us will be interested in learning of the arrival of a little daughter, born some days recently.

Mrs. T. L. Northrop and son, Master Dan, went over to Laurinburg Wednesday afternoon last week for a visit to their daughter and sister, Mrs. Marion McNeill, and the "grand mother," Mrs. Laura (Northrop) Rich, who also resides there. Mrs. Northrop returned home Friday night while Dan remained over a "wee bit" longer.

Mrs. Norman W. Kirkman, formerly Miss Josephine Evans, returned to her home town, Greensboro, Friday, following a very pleasant visit among home folks here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lancaster and son, Mr. David Jr., who spent the past week's vacation among relatives at Mt. Airy, Cherryville and Mt. Gilead, where the former's son and daughters reside, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. O. Denmark spent the week-end among friends at Weddell, returning home Monday afternoon.

Miss Mary Johnson of St. Pauls R. 2, D., who attended summer school at East Carolina Teacher's college, Greenville, returned home Friday.

Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Canady, former members of the high school faculty, were here from Wake Forest summer school, visiting briefly among friends during the past week-end. Mr. Canady filling the pulpit at the local Baptist church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Johnson went to Winston-Salem Friday, for a few days visit among relatives and friends.

Miss Nonie Johnson, who has been engaged in post-graduate work during the recent 3 months summer school session at East Carolina Teacher's college, Greenville, left there Friday, coming over to Selma, where she visited friends during the week-end, where at one time she was principal of a four-teacher school, arriving in "our city" on the afternoon of Monday, to the delight of her friends and our family, of which she is member. She will have charge of the 7th grade in a 20-teacher school at Meadow, out from Benson, during the ensuing term.

Mr. Carl Fletcher of McColl, S. C., who visited several days in the home of his sister Mrs. J. W. Butler, returned home last Sunday.

Mr. Carl H. Howard, who spent several days in Cleveland, Ohio, returned home Sunday night, having again resumed his duties as carrier on route 1.

Mrs. Hook, formerly Miss Agnes Evans, who was visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Evans, together with her five youngest little daughters, returned to their home, Eastover, S. C., the previous Monday.

Misses Lula Mae Tyner and Lella Cain of near Tolarsville returned Friday from Greenville, where they attended summer school.

Mr. Francis Northrop, who visited northern cities while vacationing, stopping over in Laurinburg upon his return, for a short visit to his sister, Mrs. Marion McNeill, arrived in St. Paul Wednesday night last week, and has again resumed his position with the local bank. While in New York he visited briefly in the home of his aunt Gertrude McGeachy and her daughter Mamie the former being an aunt of his mother.

Miss Pearl Evans spent last Saturday in Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Howard and family in company with their sister were here from Roseboro, spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Howard, who reside near town.

Miss Margaret McGeachy returned from Fayetteville latter part of the week, where she visited briefly in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Archie A. McEachern. Miss McGeachy was accompanied there Wednesday morning by her sister, Miss Ada, who was enroute to Baltimore, Md., where she went Friday. It is indefinite just how long she will be away, as she may take up work in the city which was once, and is yet, partly her home.

Miss Sarah McDuffie, second daughter of Mr. D. A. McDuffie, spent Monday and Tuesday at Pittman hospital, Fayetteville, where she underwent a tonsillar operation which was performed by Dr. Chester on the day of her arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Sugar and family of Bennettsville, S. C., spent last Sunday in the home of his brother, Mr. Joe Sugar, and family. Mangle, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sugar, accompanied them home for a short visit.

Miss Pearle Howard, who holds a position in Fayetteville, during her recent 10 days vacation visited her sister Miss Clyde Howard, in Franklin, Va., stopping over in Lumberton Monday night upon her return, coming on here for a short visit in the home of relatives during the latter part of her vacation.

Mr. W. H. Stewart, road supervisor on the V. & C. S. R. R. was given several days vacation during the past week.

Mrs. Marshall Newton and small daughter Mildred, of Rockfish, visited latter part of the week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Martin.

Mr. Marvin McCormick of Ayden, in company with a friend, William Harrington, of that town, came over last Friday, spending several days with the former's brother, Mr. J. G. McCormick, and family. St. Paul formerly having been his home.

Miss Murphy Hall, who spent several days at Montreat, returned home on Thursday last week.

Miss Lulu Rosier, our very efficient operator in the local telephone office, enjoyed the past week vacationing, part of which was spent in Fayetteville, her place being filled during the while by Mr. David McInnis who was formerly night operator until resigning recently on account of his father's moving to Tjmonsville, when he was succeeded by Mr. Charles Sessions.

Mr. W. H. Stewart and son, Carl, spent last Friday in Fayetteville on business interests, while during the week-end they visited at Clarkton.

Mrs. C. J. Caddell and son, Charles Jr., spent several days in the home of her sister, Mrs. J. D. McNeill, of near Lumberton, whom they accompanied home Wednesday night following her few days visit here the previous week.

Miss Della McGoogan, who spent some time at Montreat, is home again, to the delight of her numerous friends.

Exercise care in selecting beef cattle for finishing this winter, advise livestock workers at State College. Finished steers command a higher price than do cows or a cheaper grade of cattle, even if they are just as fat.

SELECTING A BANK

WHEN you deposit your money in a bank, the thing that appeals to you above everything else, is the ABSOLUTE SAFETY for your money.

We believe that, you, as a depositor, have the same right and duty to yourself to investigate our financial responsibility and business methods that we have in making loans to our customers.

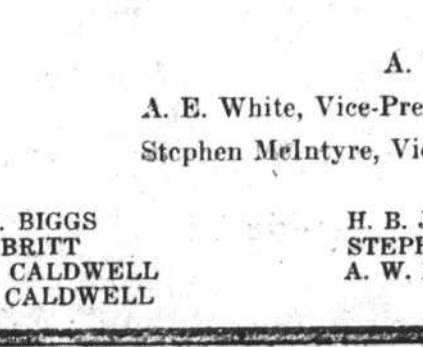

This bank does not speculate nor promote speculative enterprises, neither do we make loans except on sufficient collateral or securities approved by our Board of Directors.

Every possible safeguard that would tend to make this a safer and stronger bank is used here, and nothing is left undone that would increase the protection to our depositors who have entrusted their money to our care.

The affairs of this bank are under the close supervision of a Board of Directors composed of successful business men who realize the importance of the trust imposed in them. They are men who KNOW that our policy of SAFE and CONSERVATIVE BANKING is strictly adhered to.
