REPORT OF SALES as made by E. J. DAVIS & SONS

Fairmont, N. C. at close of business (Wednesday, September 8, 1926.

Since our last report for five days we have sold 578,606 pounds of tobacco for $168,886.21; and average for everything of $29.18.

Quite a lot of Scraps and Dark Tips have shown up, all of this has been included in above report.

Sales continue heavy, the market selling around 2 million pounds each week. We have not had a single "block" sale, the four large warehouses have taken care of all the tobacco each day, putting on whenever necessary "Double Headers" in the house having the last sale, and our large Re-drying Plant and Leaf Storage Houses have taken care of their purchases, and prices have been good throughout from 9 o'clock in the morning until the last basket was sold. In fact the farmers say this has been their best week.

The report of the Lumberton Market, as published in your paper on Friday, August 28th, made this report 274,972 lbs. at the average of $34.44, when the actual sales as given by one of the Companies who buy tobacco on the Lumberton market was $25.82.

These official reports of sales are made up by the various warehouses at close of business of each day's sales, and are sworn to when furnished the Government, and any one desiring to know the facts can get this information from any Company buying tobacco on any market. And the same day and date as above mentioned the Fairmont Market sold 489,860 pounds at an average of $30.20, leading the Lumberton Market on that day $4.38 on the general average.

Mr. R. W. McFarland Supervisor of Sales on this market says all of his report of sales for the Fairmont Market are Official and true and challenges any statement to the contrary. The Warehouse Books of Fairmont are open to the public to investigate, so that any statement of facts given at any time, as to any date, to the press or any one else may be investigated to back up this statement.

We repeat, that Fairmont is your best market and, if you have tobacco to sell it pays to sell it on the Fairmont market.

Our First Sales Days of next week are Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Our Second Sales Days, which are just as good, are Tuesday and Thursday.

If you have tobacco to sell bring us your next load, whether it be on First or Second sales.

Yours for Service and the High Dollar.

In Social Circles

Shower for Bride-elect. Parkton, Sept. 7.—Of the many social courtesies extended in honor of Miss Nellie Thomasson, whose marriage to Mr. Paul Farrell of Oxford, N. C., takes place in September, none has proven more enjoyable than the linen shower given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. James F. Blue. Mrs. Blue's lovely new bungalow was unusually lovely in its color scheme of yellow and white, which was effectively carried out in the decorations of ferns and cut flowers.

As the guests arrived they were received on the terrace by Mrs. Douglas Smith and Mrs. Carey Lancaster and directed to the punch bowl, where Miss Myra Blue served delicious yellow punch. Mrs. Ridenhour, Mrs. N. A. McMillan and Mrs. Blue received the guests in the living room.

Every one was asked to write an appropriate poem beginning each line with the first letter of the name of each of the contracting parties. Next a contest was held. Mrs. Douglas Smith being the winner in this. She was presented a lovely box of hand-made handkerchiefs. The guest of honor received a pair of lovely chiffon hose. After the contests little Miss Merle Etta Lancaster, dressed in an airy fairy costume of white with white parasol announced "there was a shower coming up," and just behind her tripped little Miss Sarah Belle Smith dressed in fairy costume of yellow and white parasol with a shower of lovely gifts suspended from it, which she presented to the bride with this toast:

"Here's to the bride-to-be, Smiling, bright and fair, Here's to those who would like to be, Wondering when and where, Very cooling and apropos in color, were the refreshments of yellow and white block cream with yellow and white cake. On the plates were yellow baskets filled with mints and small capids. On the bride's plate was a miniature bride.

Those attending the shower were: Miss Sarah Currie, Mrs. J. C. Lancaster, Mrs. D. G. Ridenhour, Mrs. Neil A. McMillan, Mrs. R. B. Hutson, Mrs. Walter Gaaney, Miss Myra Blue, Miss Katie Blue, Mrs. L. M. Powell, Mrs. Pearl Fisher, Mrs. Dan Proctor, Mrs. Dan McMillan, Mrs. Sandy McMillan, Miss Esdale Currie, Miss Mary Spell, Miss Nellie Thomasson, Mrs. Sam Thomasson, Mrs. Douglas Smith, Mrs. R. M. O'Berry, Miss Georgia Williamson, Mrs. Simon Gaitley, Miss Martha McLeod, and Miss Margie Campbell of Reaford.

ROGERS-WILLIS Marriage of Miss Myrtle Elizabeth Willis and Mr. Victor Rogers a Surprise to Their Friends. Reported for The Robesonian.

A marriage of much interest and surprise to their many friends was that of Miss Myrtle Elizabeth Willis to Mr. Victor Rogers here at the home of Rev. A. E. Paul at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. Paul quietly performed the ceremony in the presence of a few very intimate friends. The beautiful ring ceremony was used.

Mrs. Rogers is the eldest and very attractive daughter of Mr. S. A. Willis of near town. Mr. Rogers is a promising young man of Lumberton, having held a position with the Central service station for some time.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left for a few days trip to Myrtle Beach, after which they will be at home at Lumberton.

MISS ELIZABETH HUGGINS BRIDE OF THURMAN FLOWERS

Red Springs, Sept. 6.—Miss Elizabeth Huggins became the bride Sunday of Thurman Flowers, of Hemingway, S. C. The ceremony was performed at the home of Miss Huggins' uncle, A. C. Huggins, the bride's pastor, Rev. E. L. Hillman, officiating.

The wedding was a quiet affair, only immediate members of the family and a very few close friends being present.

The bride is the daughter of E. B. Huggins, of Red Springs. She was a member of the freshman class at Flora Macdonald college last year. The groom is a prominent merchant of Hemingway.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Flowers left for a trip through western North Carolina. They will be at home in Hemingway after September 12.

Record Of Deaths

EVE REDMOND. The remains of Eve Redmond, 6-year-old adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Redmond of Cayce, S. C., near Columbia, were interred in the Norment cemetery, East Fifth street, Wednesday at 6 p. m. Services were conducted by Rev. Father Leo of Hamlet. The child died of pneumonia in a hospital in Columbia Tuesday evening. Mr. P. J. Redmond is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Redmond of Lumberton. Mr. and Mrs. Redmond returned home last night.

Farmer Shocked by Lightning. Cerro Gordo, Sept. 8.—Vance Williamson, young farmer who resides on Fair Bluff-Boardman road, five miles north of this place, last night was badly shocked and had his hearing impaired when a lightning bolt struck a heavy electrical storm struck low to the earth not far from his home. Pigs confined in a pasture nearby were added from the lightning bolt and are today acting strangely. A dog was also shocked seriously and was likewise added according to reports from the territory late this evening.

Mr. Williamson is recovering from the injury and today expressed his belief that his dog and probably hogs also would be all right in a few days.

Law Abiding. A farmer walked into the general store and said to the recently bereaved widow: "I'll take that tub of clemargarine and all the flour and bacon."

"My goodness, why do you want all those things?"

"Well, I'm executor of your husband's will and lawyer Stiles told me to carry out all the provisions."

The Big Thing Is To Think Big Thoughts

"Live in the Realm of Big Thoughts is Message of Rev. T. M. Grant in Sermon to Young Students.

"If you want to keep your youth from being despised you must live in the realm of big thoughts" Rev. T. M. Grant told young people who heard him Sunday morning at Chestnut Street Methodist church in a special sermon to high school students and girls and boys about to go away to college.

"Let no man despise your youth," Paul's advice to Timothy, whom he wanted to rise to the heights, was Mr. Grant's text.

"Life is one continuous stream," he said, "and not separate units. We are concerned about the appeal of the child today as never before. Our schools are not teaching as they used to teach. We realize that young people have a life to live today and don't have to wait until tomorrow. Now is the big time.

"Blessed is the man who knows how to think king thoughts, for only in that way can you live a king life. If you want to live on the mountain-top you must be clothed in big thoughts. Little thinking and prejudices make lives that are contracted and warped.

"The big thing is to know how to think big thoughts. Men and women who have lived big thoughts are the ones who have left their impression on society. If you want to keep your nature from being dwarfed you must have at the center of your being big, clean thoughts. Don't wait for somebody to beckon you on, but live up to the high ideals of your home.

"Keep company with big folks, and you'll have for your friend the One who is the only friend, the Comrade in white. If you walk with Him you will have a life worth while."

To Organize County Poultry Association

Meeting Will be Held in Lumberton September 15—Association Necessary to Market Poultry Profitably.

Miss Flora Lee Carl, home demonstration agent, and Mr. O. O. Dukes, county agent, announce that a meeting will be held at the court house, Lumberton, Wednesday, September 15th, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a county poultry association. All those interested in poultry are asked to attend this meeting. This applies to those having a few birds as well as those having large flocks.

During the past months it has been clearly demonstrated that the best way to market poultry is in car lots. This can only be done through cooperation. A well-organized poultry association will give this promising industry a big boost.

Poultry marketed cooperatively during the past sixteen months brought $15,000 to Robeson county.

SEVENTEEN OUT OF THE TWENTY AGRICULTURE SCHOOLS GROWING CAPONS. (By J. M. Osteen, District Supervisor Agr'l Educa.) Seventeen of the twenty vocational agricultural schools in our district are growing capons this year. The boys in these schools are not worrying over the cheap price of fryers at this season of the year. In fact some of the boys are buying young cockerals on the outside in order to grow more capons. They are not selling their young cockerals for 20 to 25 cents per pound when they will be able to get $2.50 to $4 each later on. These 17 schools have on hand at present in their project work 3040 head and will have more before the caponizing season closes. The boys in the Troy agricultural department are leading in the number from any one school with 1150 head at present, their goal for the season being 1620. This is due to the fact that these boys grew and shipped 883 head last season which sold for $233.65. 10,000 to 12,000 pounds of these birds are already spoken for or engaged for the coming season, and any surplus will be used to locate new markets not yet supplied. Schools in our district producing capons at present for the coming season are Troy, Vass, Ellerbe, Rockingham, Norwood, Stanfield, Oakboro, Candor, Mt. Gilead, Indian Normal, Orrum, Philadelphia, Green Creek, Forest City, Lattimore, Ellenboro, and New London. CHEMIST FIGURES ON POSSIBILITY OF ELIMINATING SLEEP Philadelpia, Sept. 6.—(A.P.)—Sleep as a necessity for humans may be done away with entirely through the development of chemistry, Irene Dupont, of the E. I. Dupont de Nemours and company, declared today at the opening session of the gold jubilee convention of the American Chemical society. Pointing out that some adults sleep a greater number of hours than others, Mr. Dupont said it seemed likely this was due to some human systems requiring a longer time to work out poisons that accumulate.
