PLATFORM

The following is the full platform adopted by the Republican National Convention, beld at Philadelphia, June 5th and 6th, 1872 The Republican party of the United States, city of Philadelphia, on the 3th and 6th days f June 1872, again declares its faith, ag-ents to its history, and amongs the pro-lon upon the questions before the country,

First. During eleven years of supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all, and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnaturally, it criminally punished no man for-political offences and warmly welcomed all who proved loy Ten lines or less constitute a square. De- with their neighbors. It has steadily deductions made in favor of standing matter creased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of a great war, and littlated a wise and humane policy towards the Indians. -The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and suc-cessfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual seitlers, immi-gration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens rights secured from European Powers. A uniform national currency has been pro-vided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the cost ex traordinary burdens, and new bonds nego-tiated at lower rates. The revenue has been carefully collected and honestly applied .-Despite the annual large reduction of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's administration of the rate of one hundred millions a year. Great financial crises have been avoided, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the and menacing foreign difficulties peacu-fully and honorably composed, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high re-spect throughout the world. This record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe that the people will not tional Constitution should be corduitly sus-tained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can safely be trusted only to the party that secured those amendments. Fourth. The National Government should spek to be intain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens every-where and sympathizing with all people who strive for greater liberty. Fifth. A system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Gov-ernment are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patron age, and make honesty, efficiency and fideli-ty the essential qualications for public posi-part in the disturbance, and condemntions without practically creating a life ten-

Among the questions which press for attention is that which concern the relation of capital to labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure protection and the creator of capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great elements of civilization. We hold that Congress and the duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot-box, and therefore, they are entitled to the thanks of the na-
