THOSE who denounce Republicans for "thieves" measure by their own dishonesty, if they had a chance, and should not be trusted-and at best they are but fools and asses. If Greeley is elected there will be ten applicants for every office, for the Democrats, with few exceptions, are all office-seekers, and the public money would be stolen in cords-every tax would have to be doubled to satiate their capacious maws. Not a single office would be abolished.
