REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS. For Superintendent of Public Instruction: Thomas R. Purnell,

OF FORSYTH. FOR CONGRESS-TTH DISTRICT : C. L. COOK,

> OF WILKES. ELECTION 6th AUGUST.

DR. COLUMBUS L. COOK, Republican candidate for this Congressiona District, stands upon the following platform: 1. Opposition to the flivil Rights Bill-and no change of the law as it is now-which secures the political rights of the colored race.

2. Opposition to the Internal Revenue Law and in favor of a repeal of the same, and will introduce a bill in Congress for 3. In favor of proper and wholesome laws, and honest and faithful officers to execute

4. Opposed to "Salary Grabs."
5. In favor of a low rate of interest, as before the war, so that farmers, mechanics. and others, can borrow money, at a rate of per centage that will not ruin them, to conduct their farming and mechanical business, and feed and clothe their families and educate their children. 6. Opposition to monopolies, and to all legislation that does not foster the welfare of the poorer class of people and laboring

7. In favor of educating every child in the State, and of all institutions of learning. 8. In favor of constructing railroads, and will endeavor to secure Government aid, where it is wanting and they do not pene-trate in North Carolina, to benefit the people in all their material interests.

WE have been favored with a re port of the discussion between Messrs. Cook and Robbins which came off at Mocksville, in which Maj. Robbins got badly "wooled" upon all the topics discussed. The fact is, if Gov. Vance, with his ability, failed when he encountered Col. Dockery some two years ago at this place, to sustain the secession Democracy, how can Maj. Robbins expect any better success. Secession brught upon the country all the calamities which the people have suffered and are now undergoing. They know this, and will not be humbugged again into electing Maj. Robbins; who was, is now, and ever will be, a secessionist.

The Mocksville discussion, is unavoidably delayed till next week.

Robbins not the People's Choice-Defeat Certain.

As a general thing, the leaders of the Democratic party in this District, personally have no heart in Mr. Robbins success. It had been a matter of comment in his own party, six months previous to his recent nomination, that the party in the District | tional institutions and seminaries was against him, and did not want him nominated. He went into the convention at Wilkesboro, two years ago, with no absolute strength whatever. He received the nomination then, by accident, through the contentions of others, and no one was more surprised and astonished at it, than himself. The usages of parties, which concede to a successful candidate the second term, added to the uncertainty of opinion as to Robbins' action, in case he were not again put forward by the convention, no doubt, secured him the nomination.

Mr. Robbins, went into the canvass, two years ago, with a majority for his party of over 3,000 votes, and boasted that he would make it 5,000. He fixed his own appointments as he has done in this canvass, and was met at all of them, by our honored townsman, D. M. Furches, Esq. The Democratic majority was reduced to 1,600.

Mr. Robbins enters the contest now, at a much greater disadvantage than he did formerly. In his former canvass, he was profligate in his promises-promises which he never fulfilled. He has literally done nothing for our people! We only hear of him on two occasions, and then in a way, which does no credit to himself, and great injury to his section.

Social Equality of Robbins. By Our "Special Artist."

COCK ROBBINS CORNERED Truth Stranger than Fiction.

Tell it Not in Iredell, Publish it Not in the Seventh District, That Major Wm. M. Robbins Practices Social Equality and Principles of the Civil Rights Bill.

A few days ago, a couple of colored men in a cotton field, were heard discussing the wonderful friendship of Major Robbins, for the negroes; that he had attended the colored church in Statesville at night, led in prayer, singing, and participated with them in the service generally; that his "prayer," as the old negro expressed it, "fairly made my bair rise

Not doubting the statements of these colored people, Rev. A. S. Billingsly, who has charge of this colored church, was "interviewed" upon the subjects, and affirmed the statement made by the negroes, saying that Maj. Robbins had to his recollection, one night, if not oftener, attended services at this church, led in prayer and joined with the negroes in singing the hymns; and that on another occasion while he was absent, he learned from his congregation, that Maj. Robbins had attended, led in prayer, singing

Now, whatever motive may have influenced Major Robbins to do this, it was practicing the principles contained in the "Civil Rights Bill," which he so roundly denounces, in advance of the passage of that bill into a law; and his example became a precedent that colored people can claim under a rule of reciprocity to follow, and with propriety. It is, to say the least, very inconsistent for Major Robbins to abuse Republicans as the "Civil Rights Bill" partyabuse the negroes, in his harangues upon the stump, as worthless vagabonds, when he has sat with them in their houses of worship, prayed and sang, in the night time, with themand, for what? Hoping, doubtless, to get some of their votes.

We only notice this to show that Major Robbins wears two faces-one for the whites and one against them; one for the negroes, one opposed to him be disappointed in both. If Maj. Sumner and Horace Greeley, could, if if not done ignorance. living. Upon the stump, Maj. Robbins declaims against Civil Rights to his white hearers, for their votes; and enters the colored churches upon terms of equality with the negroes, for their votes! Are either white or colored people, willing to vote for Robbins, upon any such terms. Can he have the confidence of either the practicing such duplicity? We leave the answer with the people.

Democracy and Civil Rights.

Two months before the Democratic party nominated Horace Greeley for President, he made this speech to a colored meeting at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. In that address he said :

be open to men of all races with a freedom, with a hospitality which has never yet been enjoyed. I trust the time will come when no man's color will exclude him from any religious organization whatever. So they say, with regard to our common schools, where a small district contains but twenty-five or thirty families, it is simply impossible, where two or three are colored, to have separ-ate schools, and in these cases to say that black children shall not go to school with white children is to say that they shall not have any school whatever."

Charles Sumner, Greeley's friend and supporter, introduced into the Congress of the United States, what is known as the Civil Rights Bill .-After he had done this, the Democracy of Massachusetts nominated him for Governor.

Congress, though largely Republican, will not comply with Sumner's dying request and pass the bill.

The only favor that this measure has ever received at the South, was through the Democratic party in supporting Horace Greeley. Now, this Democratic party is trying to make the people believe that the Republicans are in favor of civil rights. The this place last Thursday. The Republican party is the party of the people, and never stoop to deceive or betray them for the sake of office. The above scrap of history only goes to represent the Democratic party in its true light, and exonorates the Republicans from the slander which the Democrata would place upon them. 11

Civil Rights Bill and Back-Salary Grah Ignored.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Republican Congressional convention which recently assembled at Yadkinville, and which body nominated Dr. C. L. Cook for Congress:

"WHEREAS, There is pending before the Congress of the United States, a bill known as the Civil Rights Bill:

"Resolved, That we the Republicans of the Seventh Congressional District in convention assembled do declare that we are opposed to the provisions of the bill, believing that it is injurious and pernicious in its tendencies, not only to the peace of society and the well being of the country, but also to the success of the system of public schools, which the Democratic party has well nigh destroyed, a system which the Republicans reiterate is their purpose to foster and promote until the means of an education are placed within the reach of every child in the State. "Resolved, That the Congress of the United States having passed a bill known as the back-salary grab, whereby, a precedent has been established which will do great violence to the tax-pavers of this country as well as encourage politi- ing voice. cal profligacy: We the Republicans of this Congressional District do unequivocally condemn the same and also every member who voted for and received such

It he acted courruptly, he was unworthy of support; if ignorantly, he was too stupid to make laws for the people! No Republican was detected in wrong-doing, for whom this "Committee" was raised.

In our notice of the debate at Cool Spring, we purposely omitted to report upon this affair in these columns, and would not new do so, but for the onslaught made in the Landmark upon Dr. Cook, and Republicans generally, in a most unjustifiable manner.

MESSES. EDITORS:

Being present on the 29th ult., at the liscussion between the above named, Democratic and Republican candidates for Congress, it occurred to us, that some account of the discussion should be made public. It is proper to say, however, that we took no notes and write entirely from memory, and hope to do no injustice to either of the candidates. Mr. Robbins opened the discussion, in a speech of about an hour's duration. -

He said he came to thank the people for votes, he had all of them any how. He had redeemed his promises as far as possible, but the people should remember lhat the Republicans had a two-thirds majority in Congress, and his party were often powerless.
