—Mr. Walter Connelly is receiving the lumber for his new dwelling, which will be commenced at an early day.

—Young ladies continue to arrive at the female college here, the music department being very full.

—Trains on the Western N. C. Railroad are now running to within seven miles of Asheville, and freight is delivered at that point.

—A movement is on foot to present the Rt. Rev. Bishop Thomas Atkinson with a memorial gift this year, it being the twenty-sixth of his episcopate.

—The wheat crop in this section was never more promising at this season of the year, having fully recovered from the supposed injury done by the dry during the midwinter.

—Services were held by Rev. N. Falls in the Episcopal church here last Saturday at 4 o'clock, p. m., and on Sunday at 11 and at 4 p. m., the Holy Eucharist being administered at the morning service.

—Charlotte sports are this week enjoying a cocking man between the games of Georgia and Holt's Alamo brand. Twenty-one fights in all will come off.

—See the prospectus of the Detroit Free Press in this issue—a capital weekly—and the champion funny man on its staff.

—Mr. J. T. Bell, of the firm of Milford and Webb, marble works of this place, is now executing a beautiful headstone for a party in South Carolina.

—The engineer in charge of the survey of the road from this point to Danville was ordered on Monday to stop work on the route already commenced and take the northern line, after having completed about four miles of the survey.

—The AMERICAN office is supplied with all the material necessary for turning out Printing of every description in the best and most expeditious manner, and at prices that will satisfy all who may favor it with their orders.

—The Sheriff of Catawba county, last Tuesday, transferred nine prisoners, convicted of grand larceny at the late term of the court at Newton, to the penitentiary.

—Several were white and for various terms; the longest 10 years.

—The preliminary survey being made by the Engineers of the Midland Railroad from this point appears to give them satisfaction, the grade being much lighter than was anticipated. They are working in earnest, and will push the work as rapidly as possible to completion.

—Quite a number of the Statesville merchants and others accepted of the invitation extended to them by the merchants of Charlotte to visit that place.
