TERMS:

The subscription to the WESTERN CAROLINIAN is Three Dollars per annum, payable half-yearly in advance.

No paper will be discontinued until al arrearages are paid, unless at the discretion of the Editors; and any subscriber failing to give notice of his wish to discontinue at the end of a year, will be considered as wishing to continue the paper, which will be sent accordingly.

Whoever will become responsible for the payment of nine papers, shall receive a tenth gratis.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted on the cus tomary terms. .* Persons sending in Adver tisements, must specify the number of times they wish them inserted, or they will be continued till ordered out, and charged accordingly.

No advertisement inserted until it has been paid for, or its payment assumed by some person in this town, or its vicinity.

All letters to the editors must be post-paids or they will not be attended to.

Book-Binding Business.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of the Western section of N. Carolina and the adjoining districts of S. Carolina, that he has established the Book-Binding Business, in all of its various branches, in the town of Salisbury, N. C. He has taken the store formerly occupied by Wood & Krider, on Main-street, three doors E. N. E. from the Court-House.

Having devoted considerable time to acquire a competent knowledge of his business, in the city of Baltimore, the subscriber flatters himself that he will be able to execute every kind of work in his line, in a style and on terms that will give general satisfaction. Merchants and others, can have Blank Books ruled and bound to any pattern, on short notice, as cheap and as well finished as any that can be brought from the North.

Old Books rebound on the most reasonable terms, and at short notice.

Orders from a distance, for Binding of every 734 James Hilliard description, will be faithfully attended to. WILLIAM H. YOUNG. Salisbury, June 8, 1821.

Private Entertainment.

THE subscriber respectfully informs 741 Hezekiah Rice the citizens of Salisbury and the 742 Anth'y, Simmons adjacent country, that he has removed 743 Adam Sykes from his late residence on the north side of the 744 Philip Thomas Yadkin river, on the main road leading from 745 William Townly Salem to Danville, 15 miles from Salisbury, and 746 John Tillery has taken the house formerly occupied by Capt. 747 Matthew White Ja. Krider, in town, on Main street, a few doors 748 Henry Wiggins north of the Court-House; where he is prepared 749 Thomas Bullock to keep a House of Private Entertainment for | 750 Baxter Boland Travellers and citizens. He will at all times turnish Stabling, Fodder and Grain for Horses. 751 William Baker THOMAS HOLMES.

Salisbury, Sept. 25, 1821. N. B. Eight or ten BOARDERS will be taken at the customary prices in town.

Private Entertainment.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the pub- 758 Matthew Warren 926 Robert Singleton L lic generally, that he has taken charge of 759 Hercules Ryan that large and commodious building, situated on | 760 George Redner the Yadkin river, at Beard's Bridge, Rowan coun- 761 Samuel Scott ty, N. New Stage to Raleigh.

THE subscriber, who is contractor for carrying the U. States Mail between Raleigh and Salisbury, by Randolph Chatham for the C way of Randolph, Chatham, &c. respectfully informs the public, that he has fitted up an entire | 776 Martin Cole NEW STAGE; which, added to other improvements that have been made, will enable him to carry PASSENGERS with as much comfort and 779 Jeremiah Messer 945 William Elks expedition as they can be carried by any line of 780 William Stemm stages in this part of the country. The scarcity 781 Henry Vize of money, the reduction in the price of produce, &c. demand a correspondent reduction in every department of life: Therefore, the subscriber 785 James Balentine has determined to reduce the rate of passage from eight to six cents per mile. Gentlemen 786 Richard Cordle travelling from the West to Raleigh, or by way 787 William Fox 788 Wm. Flemming of Raleigh to the North, are invited to try the subscriber's Stage, as he feels assured it only needs a trial to gain a preference.

The Stage arrives in Salisbury every Tuesday, 792 Daniel Twigg 3 or 9 o'clock, and departs thence for Raleigh the same day at 2 o'clock; it arrives in Raleigh 794 John Atkinson Friday evening, and leaves there for Salisbury on Saturday at 2 o'clock.
