Watch Repairing, etc.

JAMES B. HAMPTON respectfully informs the publick, that he occupies the old shop formerly owned by his father, on Main-street, a few doors south of the Court-House, Salisbury, where he is now prepared, with a good set of tools, to repair all kinds of Watches & Clocks.

He assures all who may favor him with their custom, that their work shall be executed in as good a style as at any other shop in this part of the country. All kinds of old Jewels repaired, and some knobs made. Jobs of every description in his line of business, will be thankfully received, and executed on short notice. People who reside at a distance, by sending, may depend leaving their work as faithfully attended to and returned, as though they were present, and say the old-established Salisbury price charged.

Watch & Clock Repairing and SILVER-SMITHING.

THE subscriber takes this method to inform his customers and the citizens in general, in Salisbury and its vicinity, that he still continues his business two doors east of his former stand, where he assures the publick that his utmost endeavor shall not be wanting to accommodate those who may please to favor him with their custom.

Watches, Jewelry, and Silver-Ware, constantly kept for sale.

100 Dollars Reward.

ON the seventh day of this month, Noxus Carr, broke jail in this county and escaped. He was under sentence of death.

Noxus Carr, well known in our courts, of justice for his daring villainies, is about 30 years of age, six feet or upwards high, well proportioned and handsome, light hair, of a pleasing countenance, and easy address. He wore a white hat and blue broadcloth coat; but it is expected he will change his dress. He is fond of drink and of cards. The above reward will be given to any person who will apprehend the Carr and conduct him in any way to the United States, so that he may be brought to justice.

ALEEN GILL.

Stop the Villain!

WILL give six hundred dollars reward for the detection of a young man by the name of William Moore, and his wife, at Jonesboro', Tennessee, or Wilkesboro', N. C. with the money and papers he steals, or $50 for his slave.

The said William Moore stole from me, on the 12th October last, $575, together with my pocket book and papers. There were seven $5 dollar bills on the United States Bank, and one $25 bill in Tennessee money. He is about 3 feet 6 or 9 inches high, dark complexion, black beard, some of his foreooth rather decayed, is remarkably well made, broad a good deal running, and is hard to beat, is fond of spinners, and altogether quite a plausible fellow.
