Watch Repairing, etc.

AMES B. HAMPTON respectfully informs the public, that he occupies the old shop formerly owned by his father, on Main-street, a few doors south of the Court House, Salisbury, where he is now prepared, with a good set of tools, to repair all kinds of Watches & Clocks.

He assures all who may favor him with their custom, that their work shall be executed in as good a style as at any other shop in this part of the country. All kinds of old jewellery repaired, and some kinds made. Jobs of every description in his line of business, will be thankfully received, and executed on a short notice. People who reside at a distance, by sending, may depend leaving their work as faithfully attended to, and returned, as though they were present,....and make the old established Salisbury price charged.

Watch & Clock Repairing and SILVER-SMITHING.

THE subscriber takes this method to inform his customers and the citizens in general, in Salisbury and its vicinity, that he still continues his business two doors east of his former stand, where he assures the public that his utmost endeavor shall set by wanting to accommodate those who may please to favor him with their custom.

Watch, Silver, and Silver-Ware, constantly kept for sale. C. WILKINSON.

100 Dollars Reward.

On the seventh day of this month, Adam Curry, well known in the courts of justice for his placing silversmiths, about 35 years of age, in fact, or upwards, high well proportioned and handsome, light hairy, of a pleasing countenance, and easy address. He wore a white hat and blue-grey cloth coat; but it is expected he will change his dress. He is fond of drink and cards. The above reward will be given to any person who will apprehend the said Curry, and confine him in any jail in the United States, so that he may be brought to justice.

Notice to Jailors.

RAN AWAY from my plantation, in Lincoln District, South Carolina, on the 5th of Sept., 1822, and may be known by the name of Peter. He is about 22 or 23 years of age, six feet 2 or 3 inches high, of slender make, this visage, thin, his head bald and speaks with considerable consequence, when coming along, has a sore on the bottom of his right ear, which is at present small, but the surrounding scar is larger than a dollar—the toes are crooked—but his wester show on the first. I purchased Peter from Mr. John S. Vincent, who brought him from Orange County, N. C. near the Caswell line. In running by that place, he will probably be lodged in some jail, and for that reason, I expect, he will do his best to escape. Any jailor who may have him in custody, will please direct him to the jailor at Liberty Hill, Lancaster District, S. C.—for whom satisfactory evidence before me will be rendered. JOHN GROUCH.

Stop the Villain!

I WILL give six hundred dollars reward for the detection of a young man by the name of William Moore, and his property to me at Jonesboro', Tennessee, or Wilkesborough, N. C. with the money and payee he stole, or $300 for him alone. The said William Moore stole from me on the 15th October last, $25, together with my pocket book and papers. There were several 50 dollar bills on the United States Bank, and one $20 bill in Tennessee money. He is about a foot or 18 inches high, dark complexion, black hair, nose of its forehead rather decayed, is extremely well made, has a good deal of skin on his body, is hard to beat, is fond of spirits and altogether quite a plausible fellow.

Nov. 2, 1822. TUES.—LEROY HALE.

Sheriff's Office.

Nashville, Oct. 14, 1822.

LETTERS addressed to the Sheriff of Rowan County, in official business, must hereafter be paid, or they will not be attended to, as there are great numbers of letters addressed to me from other counties, &c. I have found it necessary to adopt this course in order to save myself the expense of paying rather an uncomfortable sum in the course of a year, to the sole benefit of other people's pockets.

SAMUEL JONES, Sheriff.

Money Lost.

THE mail carrier lost, somewhere on the road between Salisbury and Lincolnton, a parcel of money, all Salisbury Corporation bills, $14, which was wrapped up in a piece of white paper, with the sum marked on the outside. Whoever will give information of the money, at either Salisbury or Lincolnton, or at any place on the road, shall be rewarded for their trouble.
