* New members.

Gen. John Geddes has been re-elected Mayor of the City of Charleston.

Walter Leake has been re-elected Governor of the State of Mississippi.

Iseral Pickens is re-cleded Governor of Alabama, by a majority of about 2,000 votes over his opponent, Henry Chambers.

Scipio, a negro fellow who was condemned to death by the Court of Magistrates in Charleston, last year, for being implicated in the insurrection among the blacks of South-Carolina, but whose punishment was commuted to transportation for life, lately returned to Charleston. His return excited a good deal of alarm among the inhabitants, for fear of a second plot. He was, however, after some difficulty, taken last week; and it don't appear that any thing like an understanding existed between him and any other of the blacks of the City, or State. What is to be the fate of Scipio now, is not certain; but he will either suffer death, or be removed from the State, never to return.

killed in Pendleton district, S. C. by a Mr. Wilson. He measured eight feet, from the nose to the tail.

A Mr. Fogg, of Scituate, Massachusetts, has been admitted to practise as an attorney in the county courts of that State. When Mr. Fogg rises at the bar, we should suppose that the judge and jury would hardly be able to see their way clear. The "mystery of the law," says the Charleston City Gazette, hardly needed this veil; its "glorious uncertainty" is already proverbial.

Another Fight .- A soldier and a baker, quartered at Chambly, Lower Canada, agreed to settle a dispute by a pitched battle, with fists. At the fifteenth round, the baker hit his antagonist so powerful a blow in the jugular vein, that he soon after expired.

A curious instance of forgery was lately detected in New-York. A Mrs. Wier, assisted by a paramour of hers, forged a check on a bank for $800, with her husband's name to it. They got the money, and decamped togethers. The wretches were, however, taken, and $750 recovered. The grand jury made a presentment against the woman; but as she might be a party to the matter, the husband's testimony was not received; and therefore the hussy and her late partner were acquitted.

A company of gentlemen caught, on the 1st inst. at one haul of a seine, in the Delaware, 279 drum fish, averaging 35 pounds each, amounting to 9765 pounds, which, calculating according to the Philadelphia price, would be worth $1000 ! Whig.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

Our means of ascertaining the fact, do not authorise us to say with confidence, which of the two candidates, Mr. Calhoun or Mr. Adams, is most popular with the people in this section of the State; we are satisfied, however, that they prefer either of these gentlemen to Mr. Craw-

We have heretofore avoided the publiestion of articles on this subject, the discussion of which we deem premature.-The time, however, has arrived when the public mind should be prepared for the judicious selection of a Chief Magistrate : and, as a competent knowledge of the candidates can be best obtained by a candid enquiry into their respective qualifications, we shall present our readers with such occasional notices as may subserve that object.

Newbern (North-Carolina) Sentinel.

Aothing like keeping up the Steam .- On the first trip of the steam boat this season, to test her speed and machinery, upwards of 500 persons embarked on board, and after enjoying a hearty dinner, and the glass had gone round cheerily, it was determined to make a President to these U. States, when Henry Clay eclipsed the others; John Q. Adams, a few lengths behind ; John C. Calhoun, close at the heels of Mr. A.; and Wm. H. Crawford, distanced. It appears by the Buffalo Journal of this week, that on the last trip of the steam boat, Mr. Adams was the favorite candidate .- Black Rock Beacon.

ALBANT, N. Y. SEPT. 4.

CHOICE OF ELECTORS.

If the language held by the public ournals of this state, be any criterion of the public feeling, then we may set it down as a certainty, that Mr. CRAWFORD is not the choice of the people, nor of the republican party, for their next president. Indeed it would seem that his friends have embarked in a cause which will utterly turn out a forlorn hope, and we may expect to see them using every strat gem to secure the object of their wishes, independent of all agency on the part of the people. To this end, the patriotic state paper has assumed, what its director deems conciliating language, and endeavors to allay the suspicions which its imprudent course has awakened. It is but a few days since that patriotic journal declared, that it was a dangerous experiment to give the people the choice of presidential electors, because popular excitement would prevail. But, finding that a strong! current of hopular indignation was setting against him for making this imprudent and scandulous declaration, Mr. Van Buren now weekly admits that if the measure " should be ultimately demanded by A very large Panther has lately been the people, we shall give to the proposition our cheerful approbation and support." Verily, the sovereign people owe his majesty many thanks for this great condescension!

We repeat what we have heretofore soid on this subject, it is the object of Mr. Van Buren to allay all excitement on this question, till after the election, as he is in hopes that he can get a majority of members of the legislature regularly nominated who will stand pledged to go with him in procuring the present mode of appointing the electors, so that he can fulfil his bargain for the sale of the votes of this great state to Mr. Crawford. Let those interested look to this, when they go to the polls-and act as becomes freemen. Republican.

PROM THE NEW-YORK PATRIOT.

The National Advocate says that "Mr. Monroe owes his support to the friends of Mr. Crawford." How shall we treat this stupendous slander? Mr. Monroe, a soldier of the revolutoin, the confidential friend of Washington, Jefferson and Madson-the man who has served his country in almost every distinguished stationwho has toiled in times of difficulty and danger, in peace and in war, for forty odd patriot whom the country delights to honour, whose transit has been applause, and whose praise is now heard in a nation's acclaim; and he " owes his support to the friends of Mr. Crawford." Mr. Monroe. who generously extended the hand of friendship to this man, who was ready to supplant him in the Caucus in 1816, and too magnanimously gave him an honourable station by his side, which has warmed a serpent to life, with all the willing-This fish story is told in the Bridgeton ness, but without the power to strike his benefactor; and "he owes his support to tery under this name, a writer in the the friends" of this man. It is estimated that the damage done to the plantations on the Mississippi, in consequence of the late inundation, will not fall much short of three millions of dollars.

Reanomy of old times .- About the year 1683, the Legislature of Pennsylvania passed a resolution that no member thereof should " come into the House, during its session, barefoot, not eat his bread and cheese on the steps ! !"

Sickness near Philadelphia .- A very fatal malady was prevalent in the vicinity of Philadelphia, at our latest dates. In some instances, not one member of a family is able to assist the others. A public meeting has been held, for the purpose of affording relief to the indigent.

The trustees of the Banking Company at Marietta, in Pennsylvania, have offered 50 cts.; Molasses, 40 to 50. reward of $1000, for the apprehension of the villains who robbed that bank of a large amount of paper, by seizing the cashier, holding a pistol to his breast, and forcing him to go with them and unlock the vault.

Pittsburg, (Penn.) says the Providence Journal, the site which, 40 years ago, was a howling wilderness, the abode of the savage, and the resort of beasts of prey. now contains from 9 to 10,000 inhabitants, and nearly 2000 houses, many of which are splendid. As a manufacturing town, it is exceeded by few in the United States, and is said to be justly styled the " Manchester of the west."

Dwarf .- There is now exhibiting in Boston a male dwarf, born in Maine, who is about 20 years of age, and measures but 37 inches in height.

Dyspepsia .- A correspondent of the American Farmer, says he has been completely cured of the dyspepsia by drinking sassafras tea. The relief found by chew ing the leaves and buds, first caused him to think of the tea.

Loss by a whale .- A captain and boat's crew, belonging to a Nantucket whale ship, have been lost in the Pacific Ocean. They had fastened to a whale, which either destroyed the boat or carried it down-

A gentleman of Louisville, (Ky.) had, in-the process of a fatal disease, a large cavity, 4 inches deep and 3 in diameter, formed in the brain, from whence excavoted half a pound of brain. The excavation was directly through the organs of firmness and veneration. Yet this gentleman retained his faculties entire, and of character.

Seventy kernels of ripe coffee are stated to have been obtained from one seed, sown last year at Norridgewock, Maine, wool. and a plant now in a garden there is expected to yield considerably over 100 seeds. The coffee ripens and comes to maturity about the same time that the Indian corn does.

An aggravated case of crim. con. has been brought out in Jantucket. A gentleman of that place, after being married only a few months to a young, beautiful and accomplished girl, was obliged to make a voyage to the South Seas. After a necessary absence of two years, he recently returned, and found that his wife had gone "to that bourne from whence no traveller returns," having died in giving birth to the child of her seducer.

Origin of Stander .- Mother Jusper told me that she heard Greatwood's wife say, that John Hardstone's aunt mentioned to her, that Mrs. Trusty was present when the widow Barkman said, capt. Heartall's Post Office, N. C. cousin thought Ensign Doolittle's sister years—and this man "owes his support believed, that old Mrs. Oxby reckoned, to the Iriends of Mr. Crawford." This that Sam Eriffe's better half had told Mrs. believed, that old Mrs. Oxby reckoned, Spaulding, that she heard John Rhymer's wife say, that her mother told her-that Mrs. Garden had two husbands!!!

> Minister to France .- It is rumored that Mr. Wirt, Attorney General of the U. States, and Mr. Brown, a Sentor in Congress from Louisiana, are both thought of as successor of Mr. Gallatin to the court style; of St. Cloud.

National Lettery .- Respecting the Lotdence, and Mr. Clark of Richmond, to be him certain that they can be compelled to him certain that they can be compelled to do so, even if the City of Washington is not bound—and that it is advisable to conness, by the name of John Ingrum. He is about drawing,-Charleston City Gazette.
