

The following is a short extract from a letter we have received from a gentleman in the State of Mississippi, whose character and standing warrant us in attaching a good degree of faith to what he says:

"There is no doubt but Gen. Jackson will get the vote of this state, and I think of Louisiana. Crawford is out of the question. The contest will be between Old Hickory and Mr. Adams. I should be much pleased to see North-Carolina supporting Gen. Jackson; they ought to do so, and also every State in the Union."

Extract of a letter from Nashville, Ten. to a friend of the Editor of the Western Carolinian, dated 16th Oct. 1823.

"The election of our gallant Old Hickory to the Senate, over the radical Williams, will agreeably surprise you. The principles and political life of Mr. Crawford are too inimical to the feelings and virtues of the people of this state, for him to ever hope of support here, and I fondly trust our brethren of North-Carolina accord with us in opinion; indeed, I know too well their sterling republican qualities, to doubt it. Next to Gen. Jackson, a large majority of this state are heart and hand for Mr. Calhoun.

"Yours truly."

GEORGIA.

A letter to the Editor of the Newbern Centinel, from a gentleman in Milledgeville, Georgia, after mentioning that the late elections in that State for members of the Legislature were decided with a view to the election of Governor, (who is chosen by the Legislature,) goes on to say:

"The Crawford party have brought forward William L. rous as their candidate for governor, (one of the most popular men in the state, and against whom little can be said except that he is the friend of Crawford, and have exerted their whole strength to place those individuals in the legislature who are friendly to his election. Yet we have now returns from every county in the state, and it is almost certain that there will be a majority in favor of Talbot, (the Clark candidate, as he is called here.) Talbot's friends are in favor of Mr. Calhoun, and openly opposed to Crawford. Our legislature will meet the first of next month, and if Mr. Talbot should be elected, as is now generally believed he will be, it will furnish pretty conclusive evidence that there is a majority in the state opposed to Mr. Crawford.

"I am inclined to believe that all the opponents of Crawford will unite in Mr. Calhoun, against whom there are fewer prejudices, than against either of the other candidates."

NEW-YORK ELECTION.

An Election was held in the state of New-York on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday last, for the choice of 10 members of the Senate, and the members of the House of Representatives. The old democracy of the state has again triumphed by an overwhelming majority. In the city of New York, which is entitled to ten members of Assembly, two Tickets were offered, both composed exclusively of old tried democrats—the gentlemen on the first Ticket nominated were said to be nearly all friendly to Mr. Crawford, and were of course warmly supported by Mr. Noah of the Advocate.

The gentlemen on the second Ticket were supported by the American and Patriot, on the ground of their being opposed to Mr. Crawford, and in favor of giving the choice of Electors of President to the people; they were elected by a majority of from 4 to 500.

For the Senatorial District composed of the city of New-York and Long-Island, Dr. Abel Huntington was the candidate supported by the friends of Mr. Crawford, David Gardiner, Esq. also a republican, but opposed to Mr. Crawford, was run in opposition to him, and is elected.—There remains no longer any doubt but the choice of Electors in New-York for the next Presidency, will now be given to the people.—Columbian Register.

POST-MASTER GENERAL.

We observe it stated that the new Post-master General, in making the contracts last month for carrying the various mails in the United States, has reduced the amount for that service to about seventy thousand dollars less than it has heretofore been.

FAYETTEVILLE, NOV. 13.

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church of North-Carolina, commenced their Annual Session in this town on Thursday last, and closed it on Monday morning following. During their session, many excellent and animated discourses were delivered; and on the Sabbath, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to a large number of communicants. We are promised a more particular account for our next paper; and to that we must refer our readers, or such of them, —and we presume the number is not small,—who feel an interest in the spread of the gospel, and the triumph of the Redeemer's kingdom.—Observer.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN, ORDINATION.

On Saturday, the 13th instant, the Rev. James Stafford was ordained, at Thysira, in this county; and then installed in the pastoral charge of the congregations of Thysira and Bathpage. The ordination sermon was preached by the Rev. Daniel Gould, from these words: "Who is sufficient for these things?" The charge to the candidate and to the united congregations, was delivered by the Rev. John Robinson. The scene was truly solemn and impressive. In explaining the difficulties attending the sacred office of the ministry, as well as the consolations and enjoyments to be expected, the sermon of the Rev. Mr. Gould, was plain, simple, solemn and pathetic. It was such as "Paul himself might approve and own." The charge of the Rev. Mr. Robinson, was admirably adapted to the occasion. The matter and the manner were alike solemn and impressive. In enforcing the duties of the ministry, and of the people, he evidently shewed that he had no disposition "to shun to declare to them the whole counsel of God." On the Sabbath day following, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the newly ordained minister, assisted by the venerable servant of God, Doct. James M'Ree. On this occasion, it is supposed more than 400 persons communed. In no part of our country, it is believed, are the privileges and ordinances of religion more highly appreciated, and more universally enjoyed, than in the western counties of North-Carolina; especially in the counties of Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, Iredell, and Rowan. In each of the congregations of the Rev. Jno. Robinson, Jno. W. Wilson, Samuel C. Caldwell, Jos. D. Kilpatrick, Doct. M'Ree, Jno. Erwin, and some others, there are several hundred communicants. In all these congregations, the number of young persons professors in religion is unusually great. The state of moral, literary and religious improvement, in this section of the state, is but little known to those residing in other parts of our country. The state of society, the fertility of the soil, the salubrity of the climate, the mildness of the seasons, and the variegated and picturesque scenery, all conspire to render this part of the state a desirable abode. Truly, "the lines have fallen to us in goodly places."

The writer of this communication is endeavoring to obtain the state of the different churches in this part of the country; which, when obtained, he intends to publish.

PHILADELPHIA, NOV. 7.

A meeting of friends of Gen. Jackson, in the City and County of Philadelphia, was held on Wednesday afternoon, at the County Court House. We were not at the meeting, but from gentlemen who were, we learn, that it consisted of about 150 persons. It may be proper to remark, that the weather, throughout the greater part of the day, was unfavorable. A preamble and resolutions expressive of the determination of the meeting to support General Jackson, were adopted, a committee of correspondence, consisting of nine persons, appointed to confer with similar committees throughout the Union.

The invitation to the meeting was not confined to citizens of any particular political complexion, but extended to the friends of General Jackson generally; and from the names of the gentlemen appointed on the Committee of Correspondence, it appears that the meeting was composed of citizens attached to both the great political parties. Col. Jacob Holgate presided, and Zalegman Phillips, Esq. acted as Secretary.—Amer. Sentinel.

FROM SUMATRA.

The ship Mary, captain Hale, which arrived at Boston on Wednesday, left the Island of Sumatra on the 24th of July. A memorandum handed by captain H. states, that the natives had been very troublesome in the interior of the Padang settlement, and had destroyed many of the district troops in several skirmishes. Reinforcements, however, had arrived from Batavia, and it was expected that the Dutch authorities would soon be in a condition to act on the defensive. The cholera morbus has been very prevalent at Padang, and had carried off many of the inhabitants.

Generating Steam.—A plan "for applying Electricity, Galvanism, or burning glasses, to the generation of Steam," has been announced by a Mr. Slack, in the Rhode Island American. He thinks burning glasses "would be a cheap way for farmers to do their boiling and cooking; and he says that the expense of the apparatus would be comparatively trifling."

Wheat yield.—Capt. Peter J. Boynton, of Shelburn in this County, raised the past season, upon three acres and one tenth of an acre of land, two hundred and fifty bushels of winter wheat. A considerable portion of this crop has been sold for seed at $1.50 per bushel, averaging from 61½ to 64 lbs. per bushel; which is pretty good evidence of its quality.—The particular mode of cultivation we have not learnt, but as Mr. Boynton is among the number of our best farmers, presume he pursues the correct one, namely, to use no more land than he can cultivate well.—Burlington, Vt. Sentinel.

The hon. Henry Clay delivered, on the 11th ult. before the Synod of Kentucky, composed of all the Presbyterian Clergy in the State, an address respecting the plan of the American Colonization Society. He argued that it was both desirable and practicable to colonize the free blacks of America. Dr. Drake, formerly of Cincinnati, followed Mr. Clay in a short speech, showing the miserable condition of the black portion of the population in the free States, and its unhappy effects upon the slaves of the adjacent States.

Selling unusually Low.

THE subscriber is now receiving a large assortment of DRY GOODS, HARD-WARE, CUTLERY, DOMESTICKS, &c. from New-York and Philadelphia, selected by himself with care and bought on the best terms. Being anxious to secure a continuance of his present respectable custom, he has come to a determination to offer his extensive stock of Goods in Salisbury, at prices which, in his opinion, will be found as low as the price of those who advertise "selling off at cost." His customers and the public generally, are invited to call, examine, and judge for themselves.

Merchants' Hotel,

Sign of the Rising Sun, corner of King & Society streets, Charleston, S. C.

CHARLES H. MIOTT respectfully informs his acquaintances and Travellers generally, that his well known establishment has been considerably improved since the last year, which renders it as comfortable as any House in the City. Its situation, being in the centre of business, renders it particularly worthy the patronage of Merchants from the country, and Planters. The House contains upwards of sixty rooms, and is high and airy; the Stables are fire-proof, and are situated on the opposite side of the street, under the direction of careful ostlers; the Table will always be furnished with the best market affords, and the Bar with good Liquors; and an attentive Bar-keeper.—Every attention shall be paid to those who stop at the house.

New Fashions.

THE subscriber having very lately received from his correspondent in Philadelphia the latest fashions from the celebrated shop of Robt U Winbrenner, of that city, is now ready to do all kinds of work belonging to the Tailoring business. He pledges himself, that all those who may favor him with their custom, shall have their work done in the best style of the fashions of the day, and on reasonable terms. Travellers, and others, who wish garments made on short notice, can be accommodated with a whole suit, on a notice of two days. Orders from a distance punctually attended to.

THOMAS V. CANON.

Tailoring, at Lincolnton.

THE subscriber returns his thanks to the citizens of Lincolnton and its vicinity, for the very liberal patronage with which they have hitherto favored him; and begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that he will still continue to carry on the above business in all its various branches, at his old stand. He assures all who will favor him with their custom, that their work shall be performed in a fashionable and durable manner.

As he is determined not to have any inferior workmen under him, he feels confident that his punctual attention to the performance of his promises, and the superior style in which his work will be executed, must merit to him the confidence and favor of all his friends. He has hitherto been accustomed to obtain the latest fashions from Charleston, and will still endeavor to do so, twice a year, by the merchants who visit that City.—The subscriber can assure all who may wish to favor him with their patronage, that he has become master of the art of cutting garments agreeably to the best plan known in the United States; and, as sewing well is the most essential part in making a garment, he can also assure them, as he keeps none but good workmen, that part shall be satisfactorily performed. All who are unacquainted with the subscriber, as to his punctuality, morality or workmanship, are referred to any of the following merchants of Lincolnton, who have favored him with liberal patronage, viz: Col. John Hoke, Col. Daniel Hoke, David Ramsour, Jacob Ramsour, Robert H. Burton, Jacob Forney, and Jacob Biebardt, Esqs.
