MARRIED.

In Rutherford county, on the 25th of January last, Mr. John Cooper, sen. to Miss Cecelia Butler.

Step-daughter to George Rish, Esq. formerly of Lincoln county. Also, on the same day, by Aaron Pierson, Esq. Mr. James Thompson, to Miss Wilkins, daughter of John Wilkins, Esq. all of the vicinity of Franklin, Haywood county, N. C.

DIED.

At his residence in Wilkes County, on the 15th ult. of a dropsy, Mr. John Foster, in the 60th year of his age. He was the youngest child of eleven, all born at single births; and his is the first death in this extraordinary long-lived family. The remaining ten are all in usual good health; the eldest now in his 84th year. At an early age the deceased entered into the Revolutionary service; and in several arduous campaigns, discharged his duty faithfully, and was honourably discharged shortly after the capture of Cornwallis at York Town, Va. where he acted his part. On the death of his father, he received a handsome property, which he improved and added to; the proceeds of which he has used with hospitality and charity to many, and will long be remembered by his friends and extensive acquaintances.

In the neighborhood of Jonesville, Surry county, in this State, on the 13th inst. Mr. James Fletcher, aged about 75 years. He was a sober, industrious and moral man.

Mansion Hotel,

SALISBURY, NORTH-CAROLINA, BY EDWARD YARBROUGH:

WHO respectfully informs the public, and his friends, that he has taken the extensive and elegant establishment, situated at the north corner of the Court-House, (lately occupied by Mr. James Huie.) The convenience of this situation for business, is equal to any in the place. The House contains a number of private rooms, well calculated for the accommodation of Travellers and Boarders; the Stables are equal, if not superior, to any in the place, and attended to by obliging and attentive Hostlers; his table and bar, will be supplied with the best market affords; and the regulations of his House, such as he hopes will give entire satisfaction to those who may think proper to call on him; and he assures them, that no pains shall be spared to render their stay comfortable and pleasing. February 24, 1824. 93

Tuition, on good Terms.

THE subscribers have employed Mr. Wm. F. Thomas, a young man, who comes well recommended by the Rev. Mr. Musher, his teacher, and the Trustees of the Pleasant Grove Academy, to teach the Latin and Greek Languages, and a part of the sciences, for one year, commencing with the 15th Feb. 1824, at 20 dollars per scholar. The school will be continued, if suitable encouragement can be had, for several years. Comfortable boarding for 40 or 50 scholars can be had, for from 50 to 60 dollars, in respectable and decent families, and the price not varied.

We flatter ourselves that this situation combines as many advantages for an institution of this kind, as perhaps any one in the western parts of either of the Carolinas. It is near Fort Defiance, on the Yadkin River, in a wealthy and fertile settlement, where provisions of every kind can be had on the most favourable terms; for health, none can exceed it; and for moral character, but few excel. Every attention will be paid to preserve the morals and good treatment of the Students. Addresses made to the Post-Master at Fort Defiance, Wilkes County, N. C. will be duly attended to.

NAPOLEON,

THE celebrated race horse, by old Sir Archy, will stand a part of his time in Salisbury, this season. Feb. 23, 1824. 3197

Morganton Female Academy.

THIS Institution will continue the current year under the management of the Rev. Chauncey Eddy, Mrs. Eddy, and Miss Parkman, the same as the last year.

The discipline and course of studies are the same as those adopted in the most approved seminaries of New England and New-York.

The first quarter of the present year has already commenced, but admission can be obtained at any time, and the bills will be made out from the time of admission.

As the object of the institution is the intellectual, and religious improvement of the young Ladies, the Instructors feel themselves bound to exercise an attentive guardianship over them, to check their desires for vulgar and degrading amusements, and to direct their attention to such as enlarge the mind and improve the heart. Good boarding can be obtained, either at the Academy, with the Instructors, or in the immediate vicinity, at the rate of eighty-dollars per year.

Terms, $6 25 per quarter; or $5, when instruction in Painting is not required; payable at the end of each quarter. Morganton, Feb. 21, 1824. 489

Forte Piano, for Sale.

A FIRST rate second-hand Piano, is offered for sale, very low. For terms, &c. apply to MICHAEL BROWN. Salisbury, Feb. 16, 1824. 93

GEN. JACKSON.

Further extracts from the Pittsburg Pamphlet. The following resolutions were passed by the meeting:

Resolved, That this meeting recommend to the Democratic Republican friends of Andrew Jackson in this State, to hold meetings in their respective counties, and elect so many delegates as they are entitled to Representatives in the lower house of the State Legislature, to a convention for the purpose of nominating an electoral ticket for the State, friendly to Andrew Jackson.

Resolving that as the place, and the third Monday in March next for holding this convention.

Circular.—Having been appointed by a very large and respectable meeting of Democratic Republicans of Alleghany county, favorable to the election of Andrew Jackson to the Presidential chair, as a committee to correspond with other similar committees; and individual Democrats friendly to the same object, we inclose you a copy of our resolutions, and earnestly request your immediate co-operation. The delegation system has been hitherto successfully pursued in Pennsylvania, and is, in our opinion, clearly preferable to any other mode of nomination. Although the voice of Pennsylvania has been loudly expressed in favor of Andrew Jackson, yet his nomination by a democratic delegate convention, is perhaps vital to his success. Congress will in all probability nominate a President, shortly after the commencement of its approaching session, and immense exertions will be made to carry the candidate nominated by them in—extremely desirable that our forces should be concentrated, and Jackson announced by a delegate convention as the Democratic candidate of Pennsylvania. Such a nomination would not only secure to him the vote of this State, but would, we hope, have the happiest effects on his prospects throughout the Union. If Jackson should be nominated by similar conventions in the other States, in opposition to the caucus candidate, we should deem it a most important step towards his success. We were all the supporters of Mr. Shulze's election, many of us as members of committees, and we would sincerely deprecate a democratic opposition to Jackson in this State. Division in our ranks would again ensue, and the glorious victory we have just obtained, might be changed into the most lamentable defeat. We have recommended Huntington as the place, and the third Monday in March next as the time for holding a convention to nominate an electoral ticket favorable to General Jackson. Permit us most earnestly to solicit your aid in immediately convening a Democratic meeting in your county, for the purpose of sending delegates to meet those selected by this county, at the time and place above recommended. Your immediate and zealous co-operation is of incalculable importance to our success. Had a Democratic meeting in any other county selected a different time and place, their democratic fellow citizens of Alleghany would have most heartily concurred. Our only object is, that there should be no disagreement on that subject. A difference of opinion, even as to minor points, might frustrate an object so desirable to us all. The prospects of Gen. Jackson's success are daily increasing. He certainly will receive the vote of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee; and if nominated by a democratic convention in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, would probably unite in promoting his success. His election has hitherto been seriously injured by a discouraging prospect of defeat. This argument is powerfully urged against him by the friends of the other candidates. Now is the time to exhibit our strength, and demonstrate to the Union that Pennsylvania at least will rally round the standard of the Hero of Orleans. We are engaged in the glorious cause of an inflexible democrat and incorruptible patriot, a cause that merits our most zealous and active support. We shall be greatly gratified to hear from you immediately on this important subject.

Respectfully your Democratic friends, and fellow citizens, Charles Kenney, Andrew Scott, Edward Patchell, Thomas Brown, John Irwin, Joseph Cooper, Ross Wilkins, David Blair, Joseph Gazzam, H. G. Pius, R. J. Walker, Samuel Hare, Committee of Correspondence.

It appears that while hesitating to send a minister of Observation to Greece, we are credited abroad, with having sent a minister of Observation to Turkey. An English, of Boston, known for the versatility of his genius, his character, his faith, and his pursuits, recently a General in the Mussulman army, has arrived at Constantinople from this country, as it is said, to conclude a treaty (of alliance it is hoped) between the Sublime Porte and the United States.—Chas. Cowler.

Judge Archer has been nominated by the people of one of the districts in Maryland, for Presidential Elector. He is friendly to Mr. Calhoun.

The thermometer at Burlington, Vermont, on the 5th ult. stood at 23 degrees below zero at sunrise, and at 9 o'clock about 18. The air was perfectly still and serene.

POSTSCRIPT.

By Saturday Evening's Mail.

A large meeting of the democratic citizens of Philadelphia, was held in that city on the 18th ult.; at which it was resolved that the friends of Mr. Calhoun and Gen. Jackson would unite in support of one of those two gentlemen, for the Presidency. Among the delegates that were elected to the Convention, which is to be held at Harrisburg, to nominate Electors, not a single one is favorable to any of the candidates except the one above mentioned. The people of the great State of Pennsylvania, will unite in supporting either Calhoun or Jackson—and we are pretty confident, will North-Carolina, unless the caucusites succeed in a scheme which they have now in contemplation...which is, to divide the people, and induce the friends of Jackson to start a separate ticket, so that they (the caucusites) may slip in between the two. But we cannot believe that the true friends of the victor at Orleans, will be cheated by this device of their political enemy; for Jackson's chance of getting the vote of the people's electors, is too good, for his friends to pursue a course that will enable the caucus ticket to succeed.

A fire broke out in Raleigh, the 22d ult. which consumed seven or eight buildings, before it was arrested in its progress. It originated in a blacksmith shop. In consequence of this accident, the corporation of Raleigh have forbidden all persons from building any blacksmith shops, or bake-shops, within certain limits of the city.

The Raleigh Register informs us that a horrid murder was committed about 15 miles south of standing near her own door, after night with a lighted torch in her hands, was shot dead by some person unknown. The husband of Mrs. Collins immediately ran to the door, and heard the footsteps of the murderer, making his escape; but the night was so dark, that no one went in pursuit.

CHARLESTON, FEB. 20.

From France.—Commercial letters by the ship Ceres, are to the 4th January. A sale of New Upland Cotton, from New-York, (200 bales) had been made as low as 26 3/4 cents.

The consumption of Cotton in France the last year had been less than the preceding one—attributed to the Spanish war, the cold season, &c. The beginning of the new year, however, found the manufactory in full operation—the demand for Cottons steady, and the stock on hand, particularly of the lower qualities, not large.

Mr. Parish, Consul of the U. States, passed through Strasburg on the 23d December, on his journey from Paris to Vienna.

It is stated that the sister of the Duchess of Berri, is going to contract a marriage with Don Miguel, of Portugal.

Letters from Rome, dated the 16th Dec. state that the health of the Pope is still in a precarious state.

Fetes are still continued to be given in many parts of France, for the glory acquired by the French arms under the Duke of Angouleme, in the late campaign in Spain. Courier.

Chering news from GREECE.

The London Morning Herald, of January 6th, states, that the doubts that had been thrown upon the accounts of the naval advantages obtained by the Greeks over the Turks, are removed, by the later arrivals. The Turkish fleet is said to have been obliged to lay up at Constantinople, for repairs. A letter from the Greek Admiral, dated on board his ship, the Miauly, on the first of October, confirms the defeat of the Turkish fleet, in the last week of September, which the Greeks had found an opportunity to attack, in separate divisions, with their fire ships. The naval power of the Captain Pacha is thus accounted for—11 Turkish ships were destroyed, one frigate of 24 guns was captured, 15 were at that period blockaded in the Gulph of Volo, and the remainder had fled, in great confusion, for the Dardanelles, where they are known to have arrived.

Letters dated on the 9th Dec. were received in London from Odessa, by which information from Constantinople to the 1st, was communicated. The Captain Pacha had arrived in the Dardanelles, with a part of his fleet, the remainder of which is accounted for above, and he had been ordered to appear at Constantinople, and to give an account to the government of the great advantages which the Sublime Empire had reaped from the exercise of his naval talents during his summer's cruise.

The financial distress of the Turks is said to be extreme—and they have been obliged to adulterate the currency. An extraordinary Divan had been held, and the result is stated to have been a determination to propose an amnesty to the Greeks, and to offer to place them under the Government of their own—The Moldavia and Wallachia.

The thermometer at Burlington, Vermont, on the 5th ult. stood at 23 degrees below zero at sunrise, and at 9 o'clock about 18. The air was perfectly still and serene.

Shoe-Shop.....removed.

EBENEZER DICKSON, Shoemaker, wishes his friends, and every body else, to know that he has approximated about 20 yards nearer to the leading-house, (as our neighbors in the TOWN of Salem are polite enough to call it,) and nearly opposite the "PAPEK" Bank, on Main-street, Salisbury. March 2, 1824. 93

NOTA BENA.

I have now on hand, and intend keeping, a supply of the very best of LEATHER, and as I shall make it a point to employ first rate workmen, my friends and the public may depend upon getting as good work executed in my shop, in the line of Shoemaking, as ever was done in the town of Salisbury, or in the State. I not only engage to make as elegant and durable boots and shoes as any body else, but I further covenant with all who may shed the sunshine of their patronage on my shop, to do their work as CHEAP, and, perhaps, a little cheaper, than any other shop in the State. EBENEZER DICKSON.
